Twenty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 2, 2018

It's hard to conceive of a topic about which to write, apart from the disquieting news surrounding the Church these days -- or rather, surrounding the Church's leaders -- or more appropriately, surrounding the Church's earthly leaders.

It may seem redundant to state it thrice, as I have, but we would do well to hold fast to these very distinctions today.

As always, there have been, and ever will be, sinners in the Church at every level. Let it be clear to us, then, that crisis itself is nothing new. However, it may be safe to say that the present crisis amongst the Church's priests and bishops is unprecedented.

We can have our faith shaken if we have placed our faith in the people and precepts of the Church, without grounding our trust in the very person of Jesus. I can't plead any more simply with you than to remind you, as you have doubtless heard many times by now, that God is real, personal and deeply in love with you.

This should give us great comfort, even if we are a bit bewildered as to how to live under that truth. Fr. Steven's homily last week can give us a great place to start -- we must use our faith. As a muscle that grows slack and weak when neglected, our faith must be put to use in order to grow stronger. Engage what you know of God in the decisions you face, especially in the small ones. As you become accustomed to remembering Christ when greeting the teller at the bank, smiling at the cashier in the grocery store, maintaining your patience in the midst of frustrating traffic and correcting your children with stern and unrelenting love, you will become more willing and able to remember Christ when choosing a house, considering a job offer and dealing with a difficult family member or situation.

There is an age old saying that describes how to become holy rather accurately: "practice makes perfect." Since we have the benefit of the witness of the Saints, we know the habits and patterns of holy people. We have but to imitate these great examples, mindful that Jesus is the object of each choice.

What does this do, in the face of all we have learned of the failures of Church leaders over the past 14 days?

We must be very aware, acutely so now, that we as the Faithful of the Church should throw ourselves into our vocations in the Church. (Do not be mistaken; every baptized person has a vocation in the Church -- marital status, occupation, family situation or sinfulness entirely notwithstanding!)

Among the words we can trust from any Pope, is the reality that there is upon all of us a call to holiness. We, the laity, cannot afford to assume that our priests will carry our share of that load. There is a path to Sainthood in every walk of life that has in both its ends and means the good of all.

I must, as much as Fr. Steven, seek to act according to the way of Christ and according to the direction of the Holy Spirit. You, too, no matter where you live or work, must act according to the way of Christ, which we come to know through constant exposure to his revelation in the Bible and according to the leading of the Holy Spirit in every moment great or small.

As I sang and prayed our meditation song, ("Holy Jesus You Are," last week I received the consolation that we are not led by a pope, bishop, or priest. We are instead led by Christ, and that those whose responsibility it is to govern the Church are highly fallible people, along with each of us. None are worthy to be called "Christian" ("another Christ"). None are worthy to discharge the ministry of Christ as priest. None are worthy to claim to personally safeguard the sanctity of the Church's precepts as bishop or Pope. But we ARE all called, in spite of our unworthiness, and each in their own way.

Only the Holy Spirit can lead the Church home to the wedding feast of the Lamb. The Holy Spirit is doing just that. Slowly, sometimes painfully, but inexorably, we proceed with each step closer to our Divine Lover, to our destined Bridegroom, and at last to true union with Jesus, whose love is able to overcome our every flaw.

LITURGY OF THE WORD FOR CHILDREN

EXCITING NEWS! We are expanding Liturgy of the Word for Children (LWC), which was for 6 to 12 year-olds, to include ages 3-5! LWC will begin in September and be offered at both Sunday Masses. New this year, LWC will continue through the summer at the 9 a.m. Mass only. Beth Halbert, our Preschool Coordinator, has been hard at work creating curriculum for your children. If you have had children in Sunday School classes, you already know what a terrific job she does. Much of the content will feel familiar. LWC will give your children an experience of the Word in a meaningful, age appropriate way, while allowing them to experience the Mass. There is no need to register your children. Simply send them when Fr. Steven calls the children forward at Mass.

In order for this to be the very best program it can be, we need your help. Please consider volunteering to help with LWC. You will be able to return to Mass in time for the Liturgy of the Eucharist. If you are willing, or want to learn more, please contact Beth at bhalbert@stpetersmendota.org or kraible@stpetersmendota.org.

Because of the future implementation of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, and the expansion of LWC, we will no longer have traditional Sunday School during the 9 a.m. Mass. All families already registered have been notified by email.

If you have questions or concerns, please contact Lisa Amos at lamos@stpetersmendota.org. Thank you for your continued prayers for the children of our parish and your valuable support of our programs!

SUPPER FOR THE POOR OF PERU

We will be hosting a fundraiser to raise money for the poorest of the poor in Peru.

The supper takes place on Saturday September 22, from 6 to 10 p.m. in Heritage Center. The cost for the meal is $25 per person.

Please contact Yojani Bachmeier at 651-233-4834 or Maria Keller at 651-338-0913 to RSVP.

MIDWEST HEARING LOOP

Midwest Hearing Loop has come to the Historic Church of St. Peter! We recently installed the loop, and it is working to perfection. Look for information forthcoming regarding a presentation with an audiologist after a weekday Mass in the Historic Church. A telecoil or T-loop is a specialized circuit that is placed within hearing aids and consists of a small coil or wire. Although small, this wire is mighty. It is designed to pick up magnetic signals versus acoustic signals picked up by the hearing aid microphone.

PASTORAL MINISTRY

FOLLOWING JESUS

Jesus reminds us of the need to keep our thoughts and actions pure. We would not think of coming to the dinner table with dirty hands! We should approach the table of the Lord with hearts that are free from sin and open to the grace that is poured out for us at every Eucharist.

FIND OUT WHAT DEACONS ARE AND HOW TO BECOME ONE

Ordained in the Person of Christ Jesus the Servant

A Deacon Discernment Day, for men ages 25 to 59, will take place at The St. Paul Seminary, Institute for Diaconate Formation, 2260 Summit Avenue, St. Paul, on Saturday, September 22 or Saturday, November 3, from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. You need only attend one of these days. If you are married, your wife is encouraged to attend also.

Registration is required. Email Shellee Leif at sileif@stthomas.edu or call 651-962-6891.

We are where the Archbishop needs us.

We are where the Church wants us.

We are where Jesus is.

ROSARY MAKERS

We will begin meeting again on September 4. Take advantage of this chance to learn how to make corded rosaries. Join us in Classroom 10 on the first Tuesday of each month from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

In addition to making rosaries, we assemble kits for anyone who wishes to make rosaries at home. The completed rosaries are then donated to anyone who asks for them. Last year we supplied several hundred to local churches and adoration chapels. We need more people to make rosaries to keep up with requests. Won't you consider joining us? For more information, please call Mary Ellen at 651-457-1764.

BROTHERHOOD GROUPS

The Archdiocesan Catholic Watchmen will be piloting a small group model called Brotherhood Groups. To help kick this off, internationally known speaker Mark Houck, President and Co-founder of "The King's Men" will lead a seminar on the importance of small groups and what it takes to make Brotherhood Groups successful. All men are welcome, especially those interested in starting a Brotherhood Group or strengthening a men's group to which they belong. This seminar will take place on Saturday, September 8, from 9 to 11:30 a.m., at the Archdiocesan Catholic Center. The cost is $20 per person; the continental breakfast is included in the price. Register at thecatholicwatchmen.org. If you wish to carpool or if you have questions, contact parishioner Jim Lodoen at 612-201-2910 or at lodoenj@ballardspahr.com.

ADORATION CHAPEL

If you are uncertain about what an hour in our chapel might mean for you, consider what some of our adorers have to say about their very special time with Jesus. Over the next several weeks, we will be sharing some of their comments with you.

I find adoration to be a consistent, quiet space in my week, and in my more intentional times, a rich place to step beyond my everyday life, in reflection and retreat. It is one of the reasons I am most grateful for being Catholic.

~ Anonymous

The chapel is closed during Masses. If you need a sub for your hour, please refer to our substitute roster in advance to cover your hour. Contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or at lamos@stpetersmendota.org to sign up for an hour of adoration. We still need adorers at the following hours:

Sunday:
Monday:	2 to 3 am, 3 to 4 am
Tuesday:
Wednesday:	1 to 2 am, 2 to 3 am, 3 to 4 am
Thursday:	3 to 4 am, 10 to 11 am
Friday:	Midnight to 1 am, 1 to 2 am, Noon to 1 pm, 7 to 8 pm
Saturday:	3 to 4 am

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS (RCIA)

If you, or someone you know, has been thinking about becoming Catholic, we would very much like to hear from you! To begin, we'd like to get to know you and help you to learn more about the process. We will answer any questions you may have. We look forward to helping those baptized in other Christian traditions, the unbaptized and anyone who may already have made their First Communion as a child, but has not received the sacrament of Confirmation. For more information or to schedule a private inquiry meeting to discuss your own faith journey, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304, or email her at lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

NET MINISTRIES: HOME FOR MISSIONARIES

NET Ministries is beginning our training season once again. Missionaries from all over the country (and world) will be arriving within weeks. From September 8 through 22, our missionaries are in need of housing, in and around West St. Paul. This is an amazing opportunity to open your home to young men and women who have dedicated a year of their life to the Lord. If this is something you can do, or if you know of someone who can, please email Joe Rynda at joerynda@netusa.org or call at 651-450-6833.
