Twenty Fifth Sunday in Ordinary TimeSeptember 23, 2018

One of the great privileges of my work is that so many of you generously share your lives and your stories with me. I also hear from you when you are hurting, when you are joyful, when you have concerns for our Church and its people, and, thankfully, when you have wisdom to bestow light on troubling questions of our day.

One of the most common things I have heard in recent weeks is that many don't know what to think, or say, or DO about some of the challenges that we face today as a Church, as a nation, or global society and in our own homes. Despite the fact that the opinions and desires of each of us varies vastly, we all have in common our designation as beloved daughters and sons of the Lord.

I know this is something you've likely heard, and although you know it's true, you probably feel that it's just no longer enough. We cry, "What can we do?" Simply saying that we are sending "thoughts and prayers" isn't enough anymore. Why is that?

Well, I believe that it may be that, in many cases, we need to be more specific about what, exactly, we pray for and why it matters. Jesus gets right to the heart of this in the parable in this weekend's Gospel. How are we to ensure that our hearts are composed of good and fertile soil, so that we may "bear fruit with patient endurance" (Lk 8:15)?

How do we find this support? Jesus makes it clear that the Word of God is where we will find the very keys to the Kingdom of Heaven. While it's true that many wonderful things came out of Vatican II, one of the greatest gifts is a renewed thirst for the Word of God. The Council fathers themselves had this to say, "The Church has always venerated the divine Scriptures, as she has venerated the Body of the Lord, insofar as she never ceases, particularly in the sacred liturgy, to partake of the bread of life and to offer it to the faithful from the one table of the Word of God and the Body of Christ. She has always regarded, and continues to regard the Scriptures, taken together with Sacred Tradition, as the supreme rule of her faith..." (Dei Verbum, in Documents of Vatican II, 1975, no. 21)

Peter, in his First Letter, encourages us to meditate on God's Word.

You have been born anew, not of the perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding Word of God; for, "All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord abides forever." That word is the Good News, which was preached to you. Put away all malice and all guile and insincerity and envy and all slander. Like newborn babes, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up to salvation; for you have tasted the kindness of the Lord (1 Peter 1:22-2:3).

In "Called to Life", Jacque Philippe explores the Divine Word of God as it "mysteriously communicates God's very presence." He compares those of us consecrated to the Lord as the "spouse of the Word", and defines "meditation on Scripture" [as] the foundation of any authentic Christian prayer life. He goes on to quote Psalm 118, "The Lord is the lamp to my feet," and suggests that "God's Word introduces the most profound light of truth into our lives".

As we meditate more fully on Scripture, we begin to understand that it, along with the Body and Blood of Christ, is the answer we are all seeking in a world and Church starving for Grace. In the parable of the seed, we are instructed to cultivate our soil. Meditate on the Word, call upon the Holy Spirit to breath in you, that we may be more fully open to all that Sacred Scripture has to offer.

What can we DO? We become stewards of the field of our lives in Christ. We plow the soil until it is soft enough to receive the nourishment it needs to thrive. We pray that God will plant seeds of holiness in our hearts, and that the seedlings of our faith will grow so straight, so green and so fruitful in the love of Christ, that lives of Christian faith become irresistible to those we encounter. There is no doubt that the Evil One is as hard at work today as ever, sowing the weeds of doubt and fear, distrust and suspicion, because he delights in dividing us from one another and separating us from Our Father. We must pray as if our lives depend upon it, because they do.

Paul encourages us in Ephesians that Scripture is a mighty weapon. This we can enlist against the weeds of sin, which threaten to choke out the harvest of hope. "In all circumstances, hold faith as a shield, to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one. And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God" (Eph 6:16-17). No longer does "you have my thoughts and prayers" have to be enough. Now we can say, "May the Word of God fill your hearts and strengthen your conviction. May the Body of Christ strengthen you and the Holy Spirit move in your heart. May you feel the embrace of His Mother in your moments of despair, and the might of St. Michael and his angels at your back."

I remind you that our doors are always open to you in these challenging days.

LITURGY OF THE WORD FOR CHILDREN

EXCITING NEWS! We are expanding Liturgy of the Word for Children (LWC), which was for 6 to 12 year-olds, to include ages 3-5! LWC will begin on September 9 and be offered at both Sunday Masses. New this year, LWC will continue through the summer at the 9 a.m. Mass only. LWC will give your children an experience of the Word in a meaningful, age appropriate way, while allowing them to experience the Mass. There is no need to register your children. Simply send them when Fr. Steven calls the children forward at Mass.

Because of the future implementation of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, and the expansion of LWC, we will no longer have traditional Sunday School during the 9 a.m. Mass. All families already registered have been notified by email.

If you have questions or concerns, please contact Lisa Amos, Director of Mission and Ministry, at lamos@stpetersmendota.org. Thank you for your continued prayers for the children of our parish and your valuable support of our programs!

PASTORAL MINISTRY

FOLLOWING JESUS

Pride is one of the greatest obstacles of growing in our faith. Pride is a form of self love in which we can rely more on our own resources rather than depending upon God as the source of everything we need. James and John asked to have places of honor in the Kingdom. Jesus reminds us that it is in our humility that we are truly the greatest in the Kingdom. Let's ask the Lord for deeper humility.

You are invited to explore the biblical springs of the Eucharist. Through this exploration, you will enrich your understanding of this sacrament and deepen your appreciation of the great gift it is.

Through texts from the Old Testament, the Gospels and New Testament letters, you will discover that the Eucharist unites the prayers, works, joys and sufferings of our lives as an offering in union with Christ. Through meditation on these texts, you will learn to cultivate a Eucharistic life of prayer and active commitment in the world.

Sessions are Thursday, 6:30 to 8 p.m. in the Ravoux Room, beginning September 30. All are welcome. Please register by contacting Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

ADORATION CHAPEL

If you are uncertain about what an hour in our chapel might mean for you, consider what some of our adorers have to say about their very special time with Jesus. Over the next several weeks, we will be sharing some of their comments with you.

The chapel is closed during the Masses. Between 9 p.m. and 5 a.m., there is access to the chapel only with a key card. If you need a sub for your hour, please refer to our substitute roster in advance to cover your hour. We also read the Diary of St. Faustina, to whom the Divine Mercy message was given, and we pray together the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. Everyone is welcome; please consider joining us. For more information, contact Carol Mulvihill at cmulvihill@earthlink.net, or 651-356-2970.

SPIRITUALITY AS WE AGE: A RETREAT

As Catholic Christians, our spirituality is fed through the sacramental life of our Church, especially the Eucharist and the Living Word of God. In what other ways do you feed your soul? In nature, art, relationships? As we age in wisdom and grace, life experiences can deepen our spiritual perspective.

Join us on Monday, October 1, from 10am to 2pm, in Heritage Center, as we come together for reflection and discussion that seeks to provoke new insights into spirituality as we age. This retreat is for anyone who gets older every year.

FREE WILL donations will be accepted and appreciated. A light lunch will be provided. Please register by September 28 to Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or at lamos@stpetersmendota.org
