First Sunday of Advent

December 2, 2018

The moment I sat down to write this article is the moment it finally dawned on me that this Sunday marks the First Sunday of Advent. "How did it get here already?," I ask myself, wondering how I could have lost track of time so completely. It's easy to let myself be convinced that it's only because things have been busier than usual here at St. Peter's.

However, if I'm honest with myself, I remember that Advent seems to sneak up on me every year. Obviously, there's no better time for me to allow Advent to slow me down, to make room to prepare myself and be ready.

This is exactly what Luke is trying to impart upon us in the gospel for this weekend. "Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy from carousing and drunkenness and the anxieties of daily life, and [the day of Christ's coming] catch you by surprise like a trap."

We could think about this warning in another way, such as "Be watchful. Be ready. Be careful to keep your wits about you and your thoughts on His return!"

It's more than a mere call to readiness. It's an invitation to view our wait from another perspective. We are all waiting for something in our personal lives, such as the results of a medical test, word from an estranged child, grades from our first set of finals this school year, the safe return of a loved one from a tour of duty or any other deeply anticipated and prayed-for event. Whatever the case, we know the challenge of waiting, the stress of waiting, the anxiety of waiting.

The message for us is this: committing ourselves to put our waiting to good use may not remove our waiting, but it may affect its character. It can, and should, affect our character. Let's not fail to see that the greatest guidance for us in Scripture may not be limited to the dramatic events of the nativity and crucifixion (as vital as they may be), but also the time sandwiched between them—the time of Jesus's teaching and preaching and his Passion. This "in-between time," though fraught with tension, is nevertheless also characterized by hope, as both the beginning and the ending of the story of the Church—and therefore of our story—which has been secured by Christ. We are therefore free to struggle, to wait, to work, to witness—indeed to live and die—all with hope, because we know the end of the story.

It's the promise that, at the end of our wait, we will find that it's been worth every day and week of patient anticipation. When, upon reaching The Nativity of Our Lord, Luke will tell us that all the heavens will sing, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests!" (Luke 2:14)

This year, our Advent reflection book is Theotokos; the title is an ancient name for Our Mother, meaning "God-bearer." I am excited to be able to offer these to you this year, as we prepare together, not for the day of Christmas, but for the person of Christ.

From the introduction to Theotokos, "There is no better way to prepare for a person than to prepare with a person. Thus, we spend time this Advent preparing for Jesus with the woman who spent the very first Advent preparing for Jesus. We spend this Advent with Mary, the theotokos. . . Welcome to Advent, for we will prepare. Welcome to Mary, for she will teach you about her Son."

Theotokos is meant to be used as a retreat. I encourage you to use this opportunity to do just that. Retreat from the every day. Retreat from your tasks and lists. Retreat, for a short time, from the people who surround you, even the ones who fill your heart with joy, for even they can be a distraction.

This time of year, this retreat, this person of Christ for whom we prepare, strongly suggest that our adoration chapel, aptly named The Chapel of the Nativity, may be the perfect setting for your own preparations. Open nearly every hour throughout the week, it's hard to argue that there's even one among us who doesn't have at least some time to visit Him there. Bring your copy of Theotokos and work your retreat with Him. Pray the rosary more slowly than ever before, truly meditating on the mysteries. Do nothing but be present and allow yourself to become aware of how much He loves you and desires your affection and attention.

God bless you as we wait together in hope and faith.

Blessed Advent!

YOUTH NEWS AND FAITH FORMATION

ELEMENTARY FAITH FORMATION

Religious Education Grade 2

First Reconciliation Service

This Thursday, December 6 at 6 p.m., we will have the First Reconciliation Service for the children and their families that have been preparing for this Sacrament for these last few months. If you have questions, please contact Kathy Raible at 651-905-4311 or at kraible@stpetersmendota.org.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT REGISTRATION

Christmas Pageant

Our second Christmas Pageant rehearsal will take place on Saturday, December 8, at 10:30 a.m., after the Mass of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, which begins at 9 a.m. in the Main Church. We will finish rehearsal around 11:30. Please contact Kathy Raible if you have any questions. We are looking for older youth (grades 5 – 12) who would be willing to be in the choir or have a speaking or narrating role in the pageant.

COMING SOON... BAPTISM CLASS

Baptism is the gift of new life, the eternal life of the Risen Christ. This gift is a sacrament, an encounter with Christ himself. It is a precious gift given by God through the Church.

The next Baptism Preparation Class will be held on Sunday, December 9, at 1 p.m., in Conference Room 3. This class is required for all first time parents seeking baptism for their child(ren) or those who will be having their child(ren) baptized and it has been 5 or more years since attending a baptism preparation class. We would encourage parents who are expecting the birth of their child to attend the class prior to the baby's birth.

To register for the class, please contact Karen Cronin at kcronin@stpetersmendota.org.

I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

FAITHFUL SHEPHERD CATHOLIC SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE

Stop by FSCS on Wednesday, December 5, from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m., for our All School Open House and see how Faithful Shepherd is right for your child! You will have the opportunity to see our school in action during a typical school day, take a tour of the school and have questions answered by our staff, parents and students. If you cannot make this date, please call Jen Claude at 651-262-2898 to arrange a private tour. More information about our school can be found at www.fscsmn.org.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR MONEY COUNTING

We are looking for a few good souls to add to our money-counting rotation. We could use one permanent and several back-ups to help during the winter months. Money from the weekend Masses is counted on Monday mornings (except for one team that counts on Sunday mornings every 4th week). If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Christopher in the Parish Office at 651-905-4307.

ROSARY MAKERS

Rosary Makers

The next meeting of Rosary Makers is December 4, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Take advantage of this chance to learn how to make corded rosaries. Join us in Classroom 10, on the first Tuesday of every month. In addition to making rosaries, we assemble kits for anyone who wishes to make them at home. The completed rosaries are then donated to anyone who asks for them. Last year we supplied several hundred to local churches and adoration chapels. We need more people to make rosaries to keep up with requests. Won't you consider joining us? For more information, please call Mary Ellen at 651-457-1764.

BREAKFAST WITH ST NICHOLAS

The Knights of Columbus will host a Breakfast with St. Nicholas in Heritage Center today, Sunday, December 2, after both Masses. Come enjoy a wonderful breakfast of eggs, sausage and pancakes, while meeting this great saint.

DEPT. 56 SALE

Join us on Sunday, December 2, for our Third Annual Dept. 56 Christmas Village Sale. This year the money raised will go towards the "Windows to the Future." Our parish is looking to replace 105 windows in the old 1957 building. Each window costs $2500. With our Dept. 56 sale, we are hoping to make enough money to buy at least one window!

If you, your family or friends have Dept. 56 items that you would like to donate, please let us know! We will accept any donations of Dept. 56 items or any like new Christmas decorations. Items can be dropped off in the parish office, or in the family room on the weekends, until November 29. Please contact Anne O'Keefe at 651-905-4308 or at aokeefe@stpetersmendota.org, if you have questions or if you would like to volunteer.

THE GIVING TREE

Giving Tree Collection

Don't forget to bring in your gifts! If you have chosen to purchase a gift on one of the Giving Tree dolls, please note that the NEW, UNWRAPPED gifts must be here at St. Peter's today, Sunday, December 2, at noon. It is very important to return the gifts by the deadline, or we may not get the gifts to the recipients in time for pickup. Thank you for your generosity. Questions about specific gift requests can be directed to Lisa Amos at lamos@stpetersmendota.org or 651-905-4304.

Other helpers are also needed. The more the merrier! There are small tasks with limited time commitments for adults and young adults, and the rewards are huge. On December 9, we will gather following the 11 a.m. Mass to sort and package the gifts for pickup. If you would like to help this year, please call Carol at 651-356-2970. Thank you!

2ND ANNUAL HISTORIC CHURCH CHRISTMAS OPEN HOUSE

Come step back in time and imagine our Historic Church at Christmas, as it might have been in the late 1800s. One can only wonder what it was like to bundle up and ride in a horse and buggy to Christmas Eve Mass, on a cold and snowy night. We hope you can join us for an old fashioned Christmas open house on Thursday, January 3, from 5 to 7 p.m. We will have tour guides available, carolers dressed in period costumes and a variety of Christmas cookies and hot drinks. If you would like to volunteer or donate cookies, please contact Anne O'Keefe at 651-905-4308 or at aokeefe@stpetersmendota.org.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

PASTORAL MINISTRY

FOLLOWING JESUS

Jesus told His disciples to watch for the signs of the day of Redemption. Our earthly life is a journey that will lead us one day back to the God who gave us life. Let us prepare our hearts, that we may be found ready to receive what God has in store for us!

ARCHBISHOP'S DISCERNMENT RETREAT

On December 28—30, the Director of Vocations offers an annual discernment retreat with talks by Archbishop Bernard Hebda. In addition to the talks given by the Archbishop, there will be times of prayer, an opportunity for the Rite of Reconciliation, times of recreation and plenty of great food. The Archbishop's Discernment Retreat is for men, who are seniors in high school to age 50 and are discerning priesthood. This retreat is a wonderful opportunity to gain clarity in your discernment process and to meet other men, who desire to follow Christ and to know his will for their lives. Register online by December 14 at www.10000vocations.org.

ACCW ADVENT MORNING OF REFLECTION

On Saturday, December 8, you are invited to join us for an ACCW Morning of Reflection, at Holy Name of Jesus in Medina, from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. It includes a continental breakfast, a time of retreat and reflection and shopping at our Christmas Boutique. Speakers include Fr. Michael Daly and Dan Kantor, Night of Silence composer. Archbishop Bernard Hebda will preside at the concluding Mass at noon, which fulfills the Holy Day of Obligation. For more information or to register, go to <http://www.accwarchspm.org/advent-morning-reflection-2018>.

You may also call 651-291-4545 or email alliec@archspm.org.

NEIGHBORS, INC.

This month some seasonal food items are included on our list. Volunteers are frequently asked about holiday foods. With the Thanksgiving rush, we have started to run out of some of these items, and many people will be looking for them in December. The good news is that you may be able to find them on sale. Thank you for all you do!

ADORATION CHAPEL

If you are uncertain about what an hour in our chapel might mean for you, consider what some of our adorers have to say about their very special time with Jesus. Over the next several weeks, we will be sharing some of their comments with you.

The chapel is closed during the Masses. Between 9 p.m. and 5 a.m., there is access to the chapel only with a key card. If you need a sub for your hour, please refer to our substitute roster in advance to cover your hour. Contact Lisa Amos at lamos@stpetersmendota.org or at 651-905-4304 to sign up for an hour of adoration. We still need adorers at the following hours:

Sunday	4 to 5 pm
Monday	3 to 4 pm, 8 to 9 am
Wednesday:	1 to 2 am, 2 to 3 am
Thursday:	Midnight to 1 am, 3 to 4 am, 10 to 11 am, 1 to 2 pm, 3 to 4 pm
Friday:	1 to 2 am, Noon to 1 pm, 1 to 2 pm, 7 to 8 pm
Saturday:	3 to 4 am, 10 to 11 am, 9 to 10 am on the 1st and 3rd Saturdays of the month

CATECHISM CORNER

Catechism Corner

As a parish, we are embarking on a year of focus on the Mass and Holy Communion, so the Corner may need to pull from other resources, such as the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, known by its Latin name Sacrosanctum Concilium. (This is the most authoritative document on Liturgy in the Church. In English, the document begins, "This sacred Council has several aims in view...")

One initial clarification—the word "liturgy" refers to the ritual form of public worship the Church undertakes. The word "Mass" is commonly used to refer to Liturgy and comes from the very last words of the rite, to the people, "ite missa est." Liturgy and Mass can be (perhaps slightly informally) used interchangeably.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church is not a liturgical document and, instead, concerns itself principally with doctrinal matters of faith and morals, but it does have a number of points that touch on some of the meanings we encounter and the importance of our worship.

The first mention in the CCC is in paragraph 335, discussing the role of angels on the life of the Church. "In her liturgy, the Church joins with the angels to adore the thrice-holy God." So, the first thing we can learn about the Mass is that it is a participation in the eternal worship of God in heaven.
