

Moses, Man of God

Moses was chosen by God to lead the Hebrew people out of Egypt. The people followed God through the wilderness. God sent them quail, and every morning but the Sabbath they found cakes of bread called manna on the ground to eat.

But God's people were not happy. They mumbled and they grumbled.

Name _____

Moses didn't know what to do, so he put on his coat and climbed a high mountain to talk to God.

God gave Moses two stones with ten rules written on them. They were God's ten rules for happiness. Solve the Circle Quote to learn what we call God's rules. Begin at the arrow and write down every other letter on the blanks below. You will go around the circle two times.

Circle Quote

The _____
