

The Right Attitude

Name _____

The seventh commandment is all about a special attitude toward others. It means we care enough about others to never take away something that belongs to them. It means we would never do anything to harm their possessions. It means treating the possessions of others as we would treat our own possessions. Solve the rebus to see what this attitude is.

The Story of Zacchaeus

To learn more about this attitude, read the story of Zacchaeus in Luke 19:1-10. Then answer these questions.

1. Zacchaeus was a _____ .

This job enabled him to cheat many people.

2. In order to see Jesus, Zacchaeus had to _____

_____ .

3. Jesus tells Zacchaeus he wants to _____

_____ .

4. What two things will Zacchaeus do to show he has changed his attitude toward others?
