Third Sunday of Easter

April 15, 2018

We are in the heart of the Easter season, and we hear of Christ's appearance to his disciples. He appears, offers them His peace, shares a meal and opens the Scriptures. He ends his time telling them, "You are witnesses of these things." This encounter of Christ was not intended just for his disciples 2,000 years ago, though! We are blessed to have a liturgy where the scriptures are opened to us, and we are called to share a meal of Christ, Himself, in the Eucharist. We have the opportunity to hear Christ and touch him every time we participate in the Mass.

With this great privilege, also comes responsibility - a call to be witnesses of these things! Of what are we called to witness? We are called to witness the reality that Christ came, suffered and conquered death for all! We are witnesses to the fact that we are saved, healed, redeemed and are adopted sons and daughters of God, because of his Son!

This call to witness can sometimes seem daunting. We ask, "How can I be an effective witness?" The enemy sneaks in and whispers lies of comparison. Suddenly we don't feel adequate to be witnesses, because we are too busy comparing ourselves to others. It's time to recognize this lie and stop scrutinizing ourselves. We must focus on our call to witness.

How do I witness? As St. Teresa of Calcutta famously said, "We can do no great things. Only small things, with great love." Let us then not worry about witnessing in great ways, but in small ways with great love.

I can witness to Christ's mercy, by offering forgiveness to those who have wronged me.

I can witness to Christ's peace, by choosing hope when things seem dreary.

I can witness to Christ's conquering of sin, by leaning on His strength, not on my own.

I can witness to Christ's beautiful plan in my life, by letting go of control and letting His Holy Spirit guide me.

I can witness to Christ's love, by being love to others, in small ways with great love.

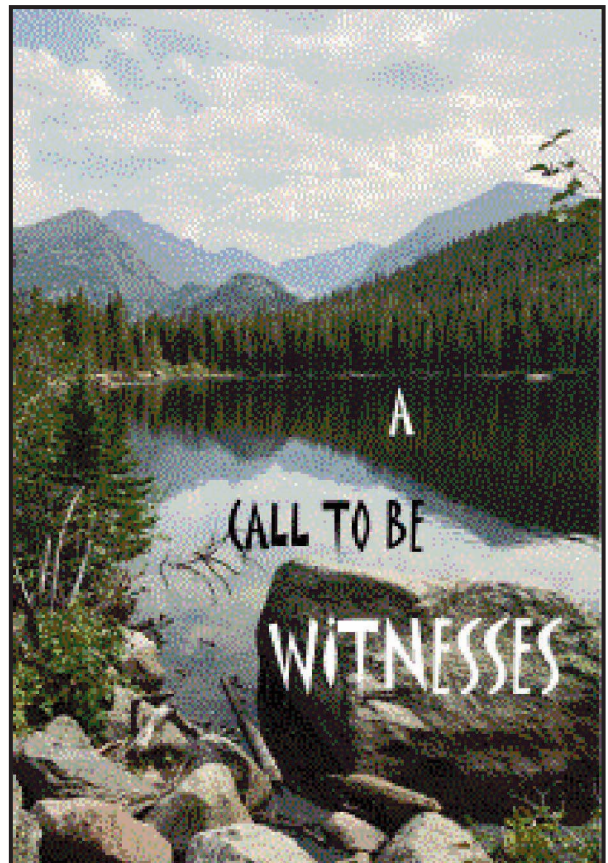

May we not let the enemy and his lie of comparison win. May we humbly accept Christ's call to witness.

Let the Lord speak to you in His word and nourish you at the Table of Life. Let us be prepared to be witnesses of these things.

Blessings,

Elizabeth

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD IS COMING

Our parish has been given the opportunity to bring the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd to our faith formation offerings in the fall of 2019. What is the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd? This is a question that we will be answering over the next weeks and months.

It is a way for a child to develop a personal relationship with God. Sofia Cavalletti and Gianna Gobbi, the foundresses of this work, spent over 50 years observing children ages 3 to 12. They found that there were certain pieces of scripture and parts of the liturgy to which children had deep responses. They believed and observed that there is a deep bond between God and the child, which produces, in the child, the desire to draw nearer to God.

The child enters a prepared environment, called the atrium, and is given selected presentations from scripture and liturgy that 'call forth' the child's response, rather than 'pours in' information. The catechist listens with the child and together they ask, "God, who are You? How do You love us?"

We will have an information table in the Gathering Space after all Masses on the weekend of April 21-22. There will be materials that are used in an atrium, along with written material for you to learn more and take with you. Please join us to learn more about the Level I Atrium, for ages 3 through 6, that we are preparing for use in the fall of 2019.

PASTORAL MINISTRY

FOLLOWING JESUS

Jesus reminds his disciples and us that we are witnesses to the Resurrection. Jesus died for the sins of all, and He rose so that we might have New Life in Him. In what ways can we give authentic witness of our faith to a world that is aching to know the Lord?

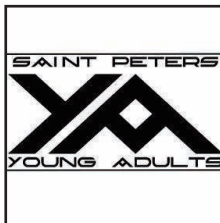

ROSARY COLLECTION FOR UGANDA

Looking for a new home for your extra rosaries? Make it Uganda! The Uganda Mission Team will be collecting rosaries at all Masses the weekend of May 5-6. We witnessed the importance of the rosary to our Ugandan brethren during our mission trip there last summer. We did not have enough to distribute to all who wanted them! We are collecting new or gently used rosaries in anticipation of Fr. Lawrence's trip here this June. Please, only rosaries in good condition. Please pass this request on to others that may want to contribute. Thank you!

ST. PETER'S YOUNG ADULTS

"Singing belongs to one who loves."
~ St. Augustine of Hippo

We are excited to announce the St. Peter's Young Adults Ministry. It was formed by young adults to both serve the unique spiritual needs of those in their 20's and 30's and to offer these same young people opportunities to give back to the entire community.

St. Peter's Young Adults will be hosting "praise and worship" the first Sunday of each month, at 6 p.m. in the Historic Church, beginning May 6. All are invited to come join us for an evening of fellowship, as we lift our voices as one to God!

Calling new members! If you are a young adult in your 20's or 30's and are looking to become a part of a Catholic community seeking to grow in faith together, please contact Lisa Hursin (lisahursin@gmail.com) or Michael Hoff (michaelthoff@gmail.com) to learn more about SPYA and get involved!

ADORATION CHAPEL

Grace. What does this word mean? One of the ways it has been described is as an unmerited favor by God to us. Does it get any better than that? So many of our greatest moments are a result of God's love and grace. Mark, one of our chapel division leaders, recounts this story.

"A few years back, I had a very close moment with Christ and a young woman, who had had two abortions by the time she was 21 years old. She was despairing and felt irredeemable. She believed there was no way God could love or forgive her. By the grace of God, I was able to tell her that God's grace is greater than any sin we can commit, and that God was calling her to be forgiven and loved through his representatives here on earth. A friend of mine walked with her to the nearby crisis pregnancy center, where she was greeted, literally with open arms by a counselor. We all need to remember that grace is far stronger, far greater than any sin or weakness we may have. Mercy and grace win."

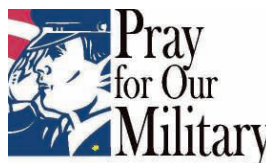

Grace is waiting in the chapel. Christ is calling us to spend time with Him and experience His Majesty and Grace in the Blessed Sacrament. As the apostle Paul said to his readers, "Grace and peace to you." All are welcome!

The chapel is closed during Masses. If you need a sub for your hour, please refer to our substitute roster to cover your hour in advance. Contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or at lamos@stpetersmendota.org to sign up for an hour of adoration. We still need adorers at the following hours:

Sunday:	2 to 3 pm, 4 to 5 pm, 5 to 6 pm
Monday:	2 to 3 am, 3 to 4 am,
Tuesday:	None
Wednesday:	1 to 2 am, 3 to 4 am
Thursday:	10 to 11 am
Friday:	1 to 2 am, 4 to 5 pm, 7 to 8 pm
Saturday:	3 to 4 am, 4 to 5 am, 5 to 6 am, 7 to 8 am

As we revisit certain helpful keys to prayer and cover practical tips on how to deal with distractions, dryness and other challenges, those who attend will also have the opportunity to grow in their understanding and experience of the fruitful practice of meditation and prayer of the heart.
