Fourth Sunday of Easter*April 22, 2018

Dear beloved in Christ,

In the Easter message over the last few weeks, from both the lips of Christ and later by his apostles, there is a clear emphasis on repentance. While repentance is necessary for any initial conversion to God, our experience shows us that it needs to be a part of our continual growth as disciples of Jesus. Since we are seeking to learn more about the Holy Spirit and how the Spirit of God works in our life, I want to talk about two of the seven gifts that the Holy Spirit gives us that are related to repentance: the Gift of Piety and the Gift of Fear of the Lord.

As the Holy Spirit is the very love exchanged between the Father and Son in the Blessed Trinity, when St. John says “God so loved the world,” this “love,” and any expression of God’s love to us, will always imply the presence and activity of the Holy Spirit. Any gifts, then, that the Holy Spirit brings to us, will be in some way related to love and only rightly understood in the light of love.

When we are reborn in baptism, through water and Spirit, a new relationship is formed with God. While still remaining creatures in relation to our Creator, baptism allows us to relate to God in a filial way, as beloved children of Jesus’ Father, and this is through the Gift of Piety.

With each experience of the Father’s paternal love, the Holy Spirit stirs our heart to respond with love in return. This is what St. Paul explains to the Christians in Galatia, when he writes, “Because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying Abba, Father” (Gal 4:6). We have only to read the Gospels to see how deeply the Gift of Piety is at work in Jesus’ relationship with the Father. Whenever he speaks of the Father or to the Father, it is always with the greatest filial affection. The prayer of Jesus in the 17th chapter of John’s Gospel is probably the best example of the depth of love and devotion that the Gift of Piety can produce in the heart. When Jesus teaches his disciples how to pray and gives them the “Our Father,” he is helping to awaken this same gift within them, inviting them to relate to the Father as he does.

The Gift of Piety works together with the Gift of Fear. While the experience of fear in our fallen human experience adds much to our unhappiness, the Gift of Fear is something quite different, leading to a life of blessedness. The fear that the Holy Spirit brings to our hearts is not an anxious, neurotic fear, like the fear of punishment. While such fear can scare one into a change of life or to greater obedience, it’s not very successful in creating a filial bond with God. The Gift of Fear that comes from the Holy Spirit, who is love, stirs up a fear that is born of love—a fear of hurting our Beloved Father, by resisting the Father’s love for us, or by failing to respond to His love with love. A perfect example of this gift in the life of Jesus is when he says: “He that sent me is with me; He has not left me alone; for I always do the things that please him” (Jn 8:29).

Now we can see how these two gifts, the Gift of Piety and the Gift of Fear of the Lord, are related to repentance. As the Holy Spirit helps to foster and deepen this intimate relationship with our heavenly Father, a relationship that becomes the greatest treasure of our hearts, the fear of losing such a gift increases, such that, when we do sin, the Gifts of Piety and Fear help to stir our heart to repentance, to run quickly back into the Father’s merciful embrace.

All this is helpful to know so that we can recognize how the Holy Spirit moves in our hearts through these gifts. When we experience movements that lead us to be unfaithful to prayer and unfaithful to the Father’s will, we know they are not of the Holy Spirit. The same would be true of the various movements of pride to rationalize or down-play our sin—or to doubt or despair of God’s mercy—the Holy Spirit never produces such thoughts or feelings. However, when we are faithful to prayer, even when difficult, when we find ourselves trusting God during the storms of life or whenever we repent after a fall, we are letting the Gifts of Piety and Fear have sway over our hearts.

Come Holy Spirit, Holy Breath of God, breathe a renewed love into our relationships with Jesus and his Father, that we may taste, even now, the peace and joy of the blessed in heaven.

God love you,

Fr. Steven

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION DINNER

St. Peter's Annual Volunteer Appreciation Dinner is scheduled for Thursday, May 3, starting at 6 p.m. in Heritage Center. The dinner is open to all St. Peter's volunteers, whether you have helped by baking cookies once or ushering every single week! Please RSVP with the flyer from last week's bulletin. You may also RSVP to Anne O'Keefe at 651-452-4550 or email her at aokeefe@stpetersmendota.org.

FALL FESTIVAL MEETING

Even though we are all yearning for spring weather, the Fall Festival Committee has been busy planning this upcoming October's event. This year, we will have a two-day festival, taking place on October 6 and 7. The pork dinner will be Saturday. We will serve concessions on Sunday. We would like to have music both days, as well. The Fall Festival Committee is looking for more people to join them. We are in need of the following positions:

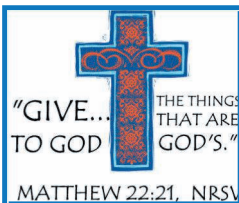

- advertising leading up to the festival
- a co-chair to the silent auction
- people who would be willing to solicit silent auction items
- one or several people to take the lead on our raffle

If you are interested in joining our committee, or if you have a new idea for the festival, please join our meeting on Wednesday, May 9, at 7 p.m. in the Conference Room. If you can't make the meeting but are interested in helping, please call Gail Barta at 651-454-9552 or e-mail Anne O'Keefe at aokeefe@stpetersmendota.org.

SAVE THE DATE!
FAMILY ROSARY PROCESSION

On Sunday, May 6, at 1:30 p.m., Bishop Andrew Cozzens will lead families in the Annual Archdiocesan Family Rosary Procession. See next week's bulletin for more information.

CCW STYLE SHOW AND LUNCHEON

The Council of Catholic Women will hold their annual Spring Style Show and Luncheon on Saturday, April 28, from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. The cost is $20. Bring a friend! Clothes are from Mainstream Boutique in the Village in Mendota Heights. For more information, call Nancy Stanton at 651-686-9009.

GRANDPARENT'S ADVENTURE

The Grandparent's Group will be meeting on Thursday, April 26, at 10:30 a.m., in the Conference Room. Please read Anchor 4, "Jesus in History, Mystery and Majesty," from Fr. John Forliti's Book, Ten Anchors. We will discuss these chapters at the meeting.

Grandparents are a blessing and anchors in a family. They often have time that parents do not for special one-on-one interactions. If you have questions about Grandparent Adventure, please contact Joan at 651-454-1568.

PRAYER OF THE HEART WORKSHOP

"As our body cannot live without nourishment, so our soul cannot stay spiritually alive without prayer."
~ St. Augustine

Since prayer is as necessary to our soul as nourishment and air are for the body, we are offering a series of three workshops to guide and support this essential practice of our Christian life. As we revisit certain helpful keys to prayer and cover practical tips on how to deal with distractions, dryness and other challenges, those who attend will also have the opportunity to grow in their understanding and experience of the fruitful practice of meditation and prayer of the heart.

For your convenience, this three-part workshop will be offered at two different sessions. Choose whichever best fits your schedule, and plan to make time to enrich your personal prayer and grow deeper into your relationship with Jesus. Both sessions will be held in Heritage Center.

Evening session: Tuesdays, April 24, May 8 & 15, 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Daytime session: Wednesdays, April 25, May 9 & 16, 10 to 11:30 a.m.

Part I: Introduction: Basic foundations and practical helps for personal prayer.

Part II: Approaches to prayer.

Part III: Various difficulties experienced in prayer and what to do about them.

Registration is not required. Please contact Lisa Amos for further information at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

PASTORAL MINISTRY

FOLLOWING JESUS

In the Gospel for this Sunday, Jesus describes himself as a good shepherd who lays down his life for his sheep. A trait that Jesus singles out for his sheep is that they recognize his voice and follow him. One way to attune our inner ear to the voice of our Good Shepherd is by prayerfully reading and studying the Bible, especially the four Gospels. Let's try to take 10 to 15 minutes this week to ponder over a page or passage of one of the Gospels, asking for the grace to follow what Jesus says.

ROSARY COLLECTION FOR UGANDA

Looking for a new home for your extra rosaries? Make it Uganda! The Uganda Mission Team will be collecting rosaries at all Masses the weekend of May 5-6. We witnessed the importance of the rosary to our Ugandan brethren during our mission trip there last summer. We did not have enough to distribute to all who wanted them! We are collecting new or gently used rosaries in anticipation of Fr. Lawrence's trip here this June. Please, only rosaries in good condition. Please pass this request on to others that may want to contribute. Thank you!

ST. PETER'S YOUNG ADULTS

"Singing belongs to one who loves." ~ St. Augustine of Hippo

We are excited to announce the St. Peter's Young Adults Ministry. It was formed by young adults to both serve the unique spiritual needs of those in their 20's and 30's and to offer these same young people opportunities to give back to the entire community.

St. Peter's Young Adults will be hosting "praise and worship" the first Sunday of each month, at 6 p.m. in the Historic Church, beginning May 6. All are invited to come join us for an evening of fellowship, as we lift our voices as one to God!

Calling new members! If you are a young adult in your 20's or 30's and are looking to become a part of a Catholic community seeking to grow in faith together, please contact Lisa Hursin (lisahursin@gmail.com) or Michael Hoff (michaelthoff@gmail.com) to learn more about SPYA and get involved!

SINCERE SYMPATHY

St. Peter's Parish extends its sympathy to the family and friends of Carole Ann DiLorenzo and Lois Mayne. We invite all to join us in praying that God may make them sharers in eternal salvation.

ADORATION CHAPEL

Grace is waiting in the chapel. Christ is calling us to spend time with Him and experience His Majesty and Grace in the Blessed Sacrament. As the apostle Paul said to his readers, "Grace and peace to you." All are welcome!

The chapel is closed during Masses. If you need a sub for your hour, please refer to our substitute roster to cover your hour in advance. Contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or at amos@stpetersmendota.org to sign up for an hour of adoration. We still need adorers at the following hours:

Sunday:	2 to 3 pm, 4 to 5 pm, 5 to 6 pm
Monday:	2 to 3 am, 3 to 4 am,
Tuesday:	None
Wednesday:	1 to 2 am, 3 to 4 am
Thursday:	10 to 11 am
Friday:	1 to 2 am, 4 to 5 pm, 7 to 8 pm
Saturday:	3 to 4 am, 4 to 5 am, 5 to 6 am, 7 to 8 am

MANDATORY TRAINING FOR ALTAR SERVERS

Deacon Tim will be training current altar servers, as well as anyone in grade four or older, who is interested in becoming an altar server at St. Peter's. The training will be held on Saturday, May 5, from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. in the Main Church. Lunch (pizza and soda) will be served at 12:30. Please meet in the Gathering Space of the church at 10 a.m. sharp.

MILITARY PRAYER BOARD

The installation of the new St. Peter's Military Prayer Board will take place April-May of 2018. If you have a family member serving in one of the branches that you would like remembered in prayers, please contact Jackie Dimmen by phone at 651-681-9851 or by email at jdimmen@comcast.net, in order to receive instructions for submitting a brief profile and photo to be posted. We are forever grateful for the selfless acts of these family members.
