Thirty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR VISION
We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION
The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

From the Pastor's Desk

I sit writing at that peculiar moment in history at which the polls are starting to close on election night, and yet the results remain unknown. Therefore my topic will be about something other than the election – but maybe that's for the best.

This afternoon our volunteers from the parish went to the Dorothy Day Center in downtown St. Paul to participate in a program called Loaves and Fishes: they prepared and served dinner for people who are in need of our assistance. Some are homeless, but most are people who would run short of funds to prepare adequate meals for themselves at home. St. Peter's parishioners and some friends of the parish go there every other month in the odd-numbered months to serve the evening meal. In the even-numbered months our parish goes to serve the noon meal at Sharing and Caring Hands in Minneapolis. In each month, the food is ordered by the volunteer leaders and paid for through our parish operating budget. The ingredients are delivered directly to the site, so the items are waiting for our volunteers when they arrive. In the week before the meal the leaders contact volunteers to assemble a large enough crew, so a lot of organizational work is done from the volunteers' homes. When the day of the meal arrives, it's really something to see what experts the regular volunteers are in preparing meals for hundreds! On this rainy, dark, and cold day the Dorothy Day Center drew well over 200 people to dinner – so many, in fact, that most of the food was gone at the end of the meal. The people who come to dine are almost always very polite and express their thanks many times. All I did was pour cups of milk as I walked with several others around the room, but the people were quite grateful. Sometimes they reacted positively to seeing a priest. At one table a conversation about sacramental confession arose among the patrons, as one who was Catholic spoke up for his faith when others questioned it. The small amount of time I have spent at these two locations has always been rewarding. If you are interested in learning more about reaching out in this way, just contact the parish office or pay special attention in January when we will all learn more about stewardship opportunities.

Perhaps you are aware that we have begun the Year of Faith. The glossary found in the back of the Catechism of the Catholic Church defines faith this way: “Both a gift of God and a human act by which the believer gives personal adherence to God who invites his response, and freely assents to the whole truth that God has revealed....” So not only is faith a gift from God; it is also a human act. In faith we actually decide to believe what God has revealed. That is our response to him.

Ours is an age of doubt. Even as people search for the truth, many among us seem to have an automatic response of skepticism to the claims of Christianity. People are accustomed to deciding for themselves what is true, so they think there is one truth for me, and perhaps another truth for you. No wonder it's difficult today for people to embrace the faith wholeheartedly! We are being invited to make this a year of special emphasis on faith and on that natural outgrowth of faith: the spread of the Gospel. When we believe, we want others to know what we know, to feel the excitement we feel. A month ago I mentioned that Archbishop Nienstedt had published “I Believed Therefore I Spoke”: A Pastoral Letter on the New Evangelization in the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis. In it, he urges each one of us to become part of the New Evangelization. He sets this in context by saying that two years ago we engaged in a long discussion about restructuring our parishes, and the resulting plan was not primarily about “the downsizing of parishes or simple financial survival. Rather the chief goal lay in strengthening and re-focusing our resources” in order to proclaim the Gospel.

Archbishop Nienstedt encourages us to see faith as the result of an encounter with Jesus. As the life of St. Paul was totally changed by his encounter with Jesus, so we must have “a real relationship with a living person” as he did. Our encounter is not likely to be as dramatic, but we still ought to be able to say with St. Paul that Jesus is “the Son of God who has loved me and given himself up for me” (Galatians 2:20). The Archbishop acknowledges that Catholic people have often focused more on the content of the faith more than on having a personal relationship with Christ. (I would add that other Christian communities are sometimes seen as attractive precisely because they emphasize a relationship with Jesus that might very well exist apart from doctrine.) So Archbishop Nienstedt draws attention to how we as Catholic people can strengthen our personal relationship with Jesus. Our personal prayer and the reading of Scripture can lead us to experience Christ's love. The liturgy can certainly lead us to this experience as we unite our lives to the offering on the altar, as we receive Communion, and as we are reconciled to God in the confessional. This relationship is personal, but it's not meant to be private. We ought to be able to tell others about our experience of Christ's love. This is evangelization.

Giving Tree

It may seem very early to think about Christmas and the Giving Tree, but there are so many things that need to be done by those who work with the program that it is necessary to begin now so we have things ready for the families before Christmas. If you are aware of someone, yourself or others, in need of Christmas gifts from the parish, please use one of the flyers available in the Gathering Space to recommend them for the Giving Tree by Sunday, November 11. Your help in identifying recipients is very important. If you have any questions, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Campaign for Human Development
"The Church's love for the poor . . . is a part of her constant tradition" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2444). The Collection for the Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) provides funding for groups that create lasting change and uplift the poor in the United States. In the last five years, over 36% of CCHD's grants have gone toward advancing education, supporting economic development, and improving housing in low-income neighborhoods. You can help participate in this tradition today. Fight poverty in America. Defend human dignity. Give to the CCHD Collection.

Appalachia Thank You

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

As in the past years the St. Peter's parishioners have shown their generosity towards those who have little or nothing in the way of material goods. This year six full tubs of candy and a generous twenty five boxes of good quality gifts were packed and sent to the people of two parishes in the Appalachia. Your thoughtfulness and kindness will be remembered by this committee and the people we help.

Heartfelt thanks to all who participated.

FORWARD IN FAITH
 2013-2015 DEBT REDUCTION CAMPAIGN
 CHURCH OF ST. PETER

- Many thanks to those who have returned their commitment to help us reach our $2,202,625 campaign goal to help fund our principal and interest payments over the next three years, apply additional funds directly to our mortgage principal to reduce interest expense, repay archdiocesan assessments, and complete several deferred repairs and improvements in our facilities.
- Thanks, also, to the volunteers who helped distribute packets during Mass the past two weekends.
- This week we wrapped up the In-Pew phase of our campaign with the commitment packets available in the pews and the Gathering Space.
- It is vitally important that we have a planned and proportionate commitment from all registered households, and we need your help to achieve two very important goals of our campaign.
- The first goal is to invite the full participation of all members. The second goal is to generate financial commitments sufficient to reach our campaign goal.
- If you have not returned your commitment, please take a packet and respond based on your blessings and capacity. Return the commitment card (and the EFT card if you want to contribute electronically) in the sealed envelope by mail, deliver it to the parish office, or place it in the collection basket next weekend.
- In the weeks ahead we will begin our follow up efforts to contact and invite those parishioners that have not responded.
- Please save us the time, energy and expense of personally contacting you by returning your commitment. Stay tuned in the weeks ahead for an update on the campaign results.
- Thank you for your cooperation!
