From the Pastor's Desk

*O*n Thursday we celebrated Thanksgiving Day, and this holiday reminds us that we have a need to give thanks. It's fitting to ask the question, "To whom should we give thanks?" When people speak in public about the holiday we observe, it usually sounds as though they're advocating a general sense of gratitude to some kind of nothingness. This is not how Thanksgiving started, however.

Thanksgiving was originally meant to be a day for Americans to thank God specifically. Religious language is sprinkled liberally throughout the proclamations of a one-time national day of thanksgiving by George Washington in 1789 and by Abraham Lincoln in 1863. Washington mentioned "Providence," "the great Lord and ruler of nations," and "the Author of all the good that was that is or that will be." Lincoln, as you will be able to read for yourself, spoke directly of "Almighty God" and "our beneficent Father."

I thought it would be a good idea to reprint the proclamation by which President Abraham Lincoln, in the midst of the ravages of the Civil War, established the holiday we just celebrated. It is startling to read the words of a political leader who unabashedly speaks about God and his mercy, and also about "our national perverseness and disobedience." Lincoln's words remain valid for today. Let us join together, then, to offer God our thanks, our penitence, and our prayer for the suffering.

Abraham Lincoln's 1863 Thanksgiving Proclamation

The year that is drawing towards its close, has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. To these bounties, which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, others have been added, which are of so extraordinary a nature, that they cannot fail to penetrate and soften even the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful providence of Almighty God. In the midst of a civil war of unequalled magnitude and severity, which has sometimes seemed to foreign States to invite and to provoke their aggression, peace has been preserved with all nations, order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere except in the theatre of military conflict; while that theatre has been greatly contracted by the advancing armies and navies of the Union. Needful diversions of wealth and of strength from the fields of peaceful industry to the national defence, have not arrested the plough, the shuttle, or the ship; the axe had enlarged the borders of our settlements, and the mines, as well of iron and coal as of the precious metals, have yielded even more abundantly than heretofore. Population has steadily increased, notwithstanding the waste that has been made in the camp, the siege and the battle-field; and the country, rejoicing in the consciousness of augmented strength and vigor, is permitted to expect continuance of years, with large increase of freedom.

No human counsel hath devised nor hath any mortal hand worked out these great things. They are the gracious gifts of the Most High God, who, while dealing with us in anger for our sins, hath nevertheless remembered mercy.

It has seemed to me fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged as with one heart and voice by the whole American people. I do therefore invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November next, as a day of Thanksgiving and Praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the Heavens. And I recommend to them that while offering up the ascriptions justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, commend to his tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, mourners or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife in which we are unavoidably engaged, and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty Hand to heal the wounds of the nation and to restore it as soon as may be consistent with the Divine purposes to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquillity and Union.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, this third day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-eighth.

A. Lincoln

Advent Is Coming

This Solemnity of Christ the King is the last Sunday of the liturgical year, which always begins anew on the First Sunday of Advent. Advent begins with the Vigil Mass on Saturday, December 1, just as darkness settles over the land and the new day begins, according to the ancient Jewish reckoning of the day from sunset to sunset. The beginning of the Church year is determined by our need to have four Advent Sundays before December 25. Since Christmas can be on any one of the seven days of the week, there are years in which Christmas falls on a Monday and the fourth week of Advent is just one day long. There are years in which Christmas falls on a Sunday and the fourth week of Advent is a full seven days long. That's when Advent is at its maximum length of 28 days. This year, with Christmas coming as it does on a Tuesday, Advent is 23 days long. Get your Advent calendars adjusted, then, by opening two doors on the first day. Get out those Advent wreaths and buy new candles for them. But the best way to observe Advent is to be ready to let the season enter your hearts so you can use these weeks to resolve to listen more closely to God's voice.

Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women Advent Event at St. Peter's

The Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women (ACCW) will be hosting "Greet Advent as Women of Hope: A Morning of Prayer, Praise Presentation" at St. Peter's on Saturday, December 1. Our speaker for the event is Minnesota-based Nancy Jo Sullivan, a nationally-known speaker and author of Small Mercies, who will highlight some of the characteristics which Mary, Mother of Jesus, and her cousin Elizabeth shared as women of hope. The event includes morning refreshments, prayer, presentation, and Mass with Archbishop Nienstedt. Vendors will be on hand to help you with your Christmas shopping. Registration is $15 by Friday, November 23, and $20 thereafter. Information and online applications can be found at www.accwarchspm.org/forms/greet-advent-women-hope or by contacting the ACCW office at 651-291-4545.

Giving Tree

Our annual Giving Tree is now in the Gathering Space with its doll "decorations." Each doll represents a specific gift request from one of our families in need. Please take one or more dolls, purchase the gift, wrap it and return to the tree with the doll taped to the package. Please return all your gifts by Sunday, December 9, by the beginning of the 11:00 a.m. Mass.

We can always use help sorting and delivering the gifts. The more the merrier! There is something for adults and young adults to do, and the rewards are huge! Please consider spreading the Christmas spirit by helping with this very important project. Call Carol at 651-453-1345 for more information.

Faithfully Fit Forever

Join us; new participants are always welcome! This exercise class for mature adults focuses on whole body health. Please join us on Tuesdays from 1-2 in the Ravoux Room. Questions? Please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Immaculate Conception

Immaculate Conception

Saturday, December 8, is the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary and a holy day of obligation. Because it is the national feast day of the United States, December 8—like December 25—is a holy day of obligation every year.

The Church teaches, "...the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants) or dispensed by their own pastor. Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin" (Catechism of the Catholic Church 2181).

The timing of the holy day could add some complications to your decision about when to come to Mass, as it falls on a Saturday. We will have two options for Mass on this feast of Our Lady: 5:00 p.m. on the eve of the holy day (Friday, December 7) and 9:00 a.m. on the holy day itself (Saturday, December 8). Both Masses will be celebrated in the Main Church.

The normal 5:00 Mass on the afternoon of Saturday, December 8 will be the Mass of the Second Sunday of Advent.

Minute Memo from Ms. Shimshock, Principal of Faithful Shepherd

Thanksgiving—the time to take personal inventory of our blessings. One of the greatest blessings in our lives is the relationships that we have with others. Friends, whether close and personal or casual acquaintances, bond us together like nothing else. I am blessed to have such great friends. They listen and support my ideas and are there when I need guidance. Sometimes I get too busy in my daily life and take them for granted. In retrospect, I know I need to be more present to them. How similar to our greatest friend, Jesus. I get caught up in my life and forget about the sacrifice He made for mine. During this Thanksgiving season, be thankful of your friends, including Jesus. Tell them how thankful you are for having them in your life.

*Two are better than one. If one falls down, his friend can help him up.
But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up.*

Ecclesiastes 4:9-10

FORWARD IN FAITH
 2013-2015 DEBT REDUCTION CAMPAIGN

CHURCH OF ST. PETER

We Need YOUR Decision to Help Our Campaign Move Forward

We want to thank the growing number of contributors that have offered support to help fund our principal and interest payments over the next three years, apply additional funds directly to our mortgage principal to reduce interest expense, repay archdiocesan assessments, and complete several deferred repairs and improvements in our facilities.

We have a considerable challenge to reach our objective of every household responding with their decision. Recognizing that all gifts are welcome and appreciated, regardless of the size, your decision is a very important part of our success. By offering your financial commitment before we begin our follow up efforts, you will save us the time, energy and expense to contact you.

Commitment packets can be found in the back of the Historic Church, the Gathering Space and the parish office. Please take a few moments to complete the commitment card, seal it in the confidential envelope, return it by mail, deliver it to the parish office, or place it in the collection basket next weekend. Let's keep the momentum moving forward. Thank you!
