From the Pastor's Desk

This Thursday, October 11, will mark the 50th anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Ecumenical Council, known to most people as Vatican II. It was the most important religious event of the 20th Century: it drew the attention of the world's media and it led to sweeping changes both in the way Catholics experienced their faith and in the way non-Catholics thought of the Catholic Church.

The Council was announced in January 1959 by Pope John XXIII, to the great astonishment of the small group of cardinals to whom he was speaking that day. No one expected that the newly elected and rather elderly Pope would call the first ecumenical council since 1871. But he did it. In the fall of 1962 the Council Fathers (the bishops of the world) arrived in Rome by ship and train – probably very few by airplane. Vatican II was a real event. Its first day – October 11 was also a Thursday that year – began with a procession of the 2400 bishops into the Basilica of St. Peter. It had rained during the night, but the sun had come out and the cobblestones were almost dry by the time the long procession ended with Pope John, who was carried in on the portable throne called the sedes gestatoria. When the Holy Father reached the altar, he prayed and then all sang the Veni, Creator Spiritus (Come, Creator Spirit) to begin the Second Vatican Council.

I have gone into this detail in order to make it plain that the great event which was Vatican II was a real series of meetings attended by real people. It took place in four sessions that were each about two months long, in the autumns of 1962, 1963, 1964, and 1965. As people of faith, we strongly believe the Council was guided by the Holy Spirit. And I am writing because we are people of faith, who have been called to give that faith special attention in the year that stretches out before us.

In honor of the 50th anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council, Pope Benedict XVI has proclaimed a Year of Faith. It will begin on Thursday with a Mass in St. Peter's Square celebrated by the Holy Father, and will continue until the Solemnity of Christ the King on November 24, 2013. Because the Catechism of the Catholic Church – itself a fruit of the Council – was officially published on the 30th anniversary of the opening of Vatican II, October 11 also marks the 20th anniversary of that great compilation of Church teaching that has made the faith so much more accessible. Thus the Year of Faith is occasioned by a twofold anniversary. The Holy Father last year wrote an apostolic letter called Porta Fidei (“Door of Faith”) to prepare the Church for the Year of Faith. In the letter, he states:

It seemed to me that timing the launch of the Year of Faith to coincide with the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council would provide a good opportunity to help people understand that the texts bequeathed by the Council Fathers, in the words of Blessed John Paul II, “have lost nothing of their value or brilliance.” They need to be read correctly, to be widely known and taken to heart as important and normative texts of the Magisterium, within the Church's Tradition ... I feel more than ever in duty bound to point to the Council as the great grace bestowed on the Church in the twentieth century: there we find a sure compass by which to take our bearings in the century now beginning.” I would also like to emphasize strongly what I had occasion to say concerning the Council a few months after my election as Successor of Peter: “if we interpret and implement it guided by a right hermeneutic, it can be and can become increasingly powerful for the ever necessary renewal of the Church” (Porta Fidei 5).

Later in the letter, Pope Benedict uses the example of Lydia, the woman who heard St. Paul preach shortly after his arrival on the continent of Europe. Lydia opened her heart to hear what St. Paul was saying, as recounted in Acts 16:14, and her life was changed. She became a disciple. Pope Benedict tells us it's not enough to know the content of the faith – the facts. We need to allow God's grace to open our hearts to the realization that what we hear proclaimed is actually the Word of God. When we realize that, we can never think of belief as a private act. Once we understand our faith, we need to commit to it publicly. The Year of Faith will be a time to explore what that means in the life of each of us.

Here in the parish, we are going to mark the Year of Faith in several ways. I want to invite you to attend one or all of the sessions on Vatican II that will be led by Lisa Amos between the morning Masses on the five Sundays from October 14 through November 11. We will be looking at the question, “What does Vatican II mean for you, a Catholic in the world today?” I also want to encourage you to read Archbishop Nienstedt's pastoral letter that was included in the latest issue of the Catholic Spirit newspaper. He mentions one way the Archdiocese will be helping us grow in faith this year: our parish happens to be the host of the kickoff meetings next month of the Rediscover Initiative. Every parish will be distributing a free book at all of the Christmas Masses, so we won't miss anyone, and we will have opportunities in each parish to discuss what is in this book that has already proven so popular around the world. Please keep watching for more about the Year of Faith!

Fall Festival THIS Sunday!

Join us after Sunday's Masses for our Fall Festival! We have a variety of children's games and activities, a lot of delicious food and beverages, BINGO, local vendors selling their items, and a silent auction. Stop by and win some great prizes – there's a lot to enjoy!

Calling All Golfers!

Take a chance at the Fall Festival's Closest to the Pin event and you could win a round of golf or dinner for you and five friends at the Mendakota Country Club's Grill and Dining Room! This is a generously donated prize. Come out and take a chance! Money raised will go directly to St. Peter's. Good luck!

Why Am I Being Counted?

Sunday Mass attendance numbers are being requested for all parishes by the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis. The ushers will be taking an official count at all Sunday Masses (Saturday and Sunday) on October 6-7, 13-14, 20-21 and 27-28.

Mass attendance counts are something our parish usually does anyway in order to gather information that helps the parish better serve all the faithful.

Marriage Minute

Marriage Matters: What is religious liberty?

Religious liberty is the “right to live the truth of one’s faith and in conformity with one’s transcendent dignity as a person.” According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church (no. 2106), “Nobody may be forced to act against his convictions, nor is anyone to be restrained from acting in accordance with his conscience in religious matters in private or in public, alone or in association with others, within due limits.” Religious liberty is so important that Blessed John Paul II called it the “source and synthesis” of rights considered basic to every human person.

Appalachia Christmas Program

Another year has passed and it is time to respond to the Appalachia Christmas Program. We will continue to help Father Joseph Koury and Father Danny Fister stock their “Christmas Free Store.” As in the past we will collect NEW unwrapped gifts to be placed in the marked boxes in the coat room and upper entry. PLEASE no used or old items! The selection of items has improved every year as everyone responds to our suggestions. Of the items suggested, hats, gloves and mittens are always appreciated, as well as blankets for the elderly.

Please remember to include any wrapped candy—bags or left-over Halloween candy, to be placed in the collection box marked “Candy.” The cut-off date for items will be Friday, November 2. We will pack on Monday, November 5, and would appreciate any and all help with the packing in the Ravoux Room after the 9 a.m. Mass.

If you have any questions, call Paula Ehrich at 651-686-0235.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT.

Food Shelve Donations

Thank you for your continued generosity. Your donations of UNEXPIRED, UNOPENED, NON-PERISHEABLE food is going a very long way toward helping those for whom every meal is uncertain. A special thank you to those of you who take the time to pick up our parish donations and deliver them to Neighbors, Inc. If you have expired or open food it should be disposed of at home. Fresh food cannot be stored on site between donations. If you would like to know what the food shelf is especially in need of, please take a copy of our suggested shopping list available at each of the two collection bins.

The food shelf is also in need of empty paper grocery bags. Thank you to those of you who have been donating yours!

*Please note that at this time we are unable to take non-food donations of used items. There is no place at the parish to store them and we do not have a way to get them to another organization. If you have nonfood, used items such as clothing, old books and bedding, please contact one of the many worthwhile organizations in need of them at this time.

ReCreation

Saturday, October 13
following 5 p.m. Mass
“All In” for Christ

The next installment of our ReCreation program will take place on Saturday, October 13, following the 5 p.m. Mass. In this session, guest speaker Greg Kelly from Grand Rapids, Michigan, will discuss the risks and rewards that we encounter when we go “All In” for Christ.” Loving God in an authentic way is a lifestyle choice, like many others, that carries certain social, financial, familial, even professional costs that we must weigh. What do we risk by embracing a Christian way of living? What might we lose? And, conversely, we’ll focus on the rewards, and benefits we gain by making that choice. What is the “payout”? What possible “Jackpot” are we living for when we play “All In” for Christ?

Remembrance Service

On Friday, November 2, at 6 p.m. on the Feast of All Souls, we will be celebrating a Remembrance Service.

This special liturgy is a time to remember all of our loved ones who have died. We gather to remember them in scripture, song and speak their name. We light a candle in their memory and celebrate the blessing of their lives. Those families who have celebrated the Funeral Mass of Christian Burial for a loved one from St. Peter’s within the last year will receive a special invitation to this Remembrance Service, but all are encouraged to attend.

Following the prayer service, we will have hospitality in the Heritage Center. Please hold all who have died and their families in your prayers during the month of November.

Church of St. Peter

2012 Giving Tree

Each year many are in particular need of our help and generosity, especially during the holiday season. Last year, our Giving Tree sponsored over 50 families. In addition to the parishioners who received gifts and grocery certificates, we were able to help families from Armful of Love, CHAPS, The Lewis House and Neighbors, Inc. Please take a few minutes to think about your friends, neighbors, the family who may sit next to you at Mass, or even your own situation. Is there someone you know who may need some help this season? Eligible families may be registered parish families, non-registered families recommended by a parishioner, or other families who meet with the pastor or pastoral associate.

Because the need has been increasing each year, and we expect this year to do the same, we do ask that selected families have at least one child in the home under age 18.

To recommend a family or request help for your own, please complete both sides of this form as completely as possible. Your requests are confidential.

Thank you and may God bless you and your families.

Please feel free to call Lisa Amos, pastoral associate, at 651.905.4304 for more information. To submit a recommendation, fill out this form and return it to Lisa Amos, Church of St. Peter, PO Box 50679, Mendota, MN 55150. All forms must be filled in completely.
