Second Sunday of Easter or Divine Mercy

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

From the Pastor's Desk

We have come to the Second Sunday of Easter, which is also known as Divine Mercy Sunday. Pope John Paul II chose to promote in an intense way a devotion that was made known to the world by St. Faustina Kowalska. This devotion to the mercy of Jesus Christ (the "Divine Mercy") is observed every day of the year, but especially on this Sunday, when we hear the Gospel reading about Jesus showing his hands and side to St. Thomas and the other apostles. This Sunday afternoon at our parish, our observance of the Divine Mercy devotion will begin at 1:30 with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and will include the Divine Mercy chaplet, the rosary, and benediction. I will also hear some confessions, and we will conclude at 3:45 this afternoon.

Next Sunday, April 14 will be a day for our 28 Confirmation candidates to prepare to receive the sacrament of Confirmation at the Cathedral of St. Paul at 2:00 the following Sunday. At 9:00 Mass on the 14th we will formally "send" the candidates to be sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit. Later they will hear guest speaker David Rinaldi and have lunch. Then at 1:00 we will have a penance service so that they can go to confession before they receive what for them will be the third and final sacrament of initiation, perfecting what began on the day they were baptized.

The Season of Easter is also the time for First Communion, when second graders, having already been sacramentally reconciled to God, receive the Eucharist for the first time. All of the Sunday Masses on April 21 and its vigil, as well as May 5 and its vigil, will be First Communion Masses in our parish. May God bless the children who are about to receive this great sacrament!

On Easter Sunday Pope Francis gave the traditional Urbi et Orbi address ("To the City and to the World") to the crowd in St. Peter's Square. I would like to reprint much of what he said.

Dear brothers and sisters in Rome and throughout the world, Happy Easter! Happy Easter!

What a joy it is for me to announce this message: Christ is risen! I would like it to go out to every house and every family, especially where the suffering is greatest, in hospitals, in prisons ...

Most of all, I would like it to enter every heart, for it is there that God wants to sow this Good News: Jesus is risen, there is hope for you, you are no longer in the power of sin, of evil! Love has triumphed, mercy has been victorious! The mercy of God always triumphs!

We too, like the women who were Jesus' disciples, who went to the tomb and found it empty, may wonder what this event means (cf. Lk 24:4). What does it mean that Jesus is risen? It means that the love of God is stronger than evil and death itself; it means that the love of God can transform our lives and let those desert places in our hearts bloom. The love God can do this!

This same love for which the Son of God became man and followed the way of humility and self-giving to the very end, down to hell - to the abyss of separation from God - this same merciful love has flooded with light the dead body of Jesus, has transfigured it, has made it pass into eternal life. Jesus did not return to his former life, to earthly life, but entered into the glorious life of God and he entered there with our humanity, opening us to a future of hope.

This is what Easter is: it is the exodus, the passage of human beings from slavery to sin and evil to the freedom of love and goodness. Because God is life, life alone, and we are his glory: the living man (cf. Irenaeus, Adversus Haereses, 4,20,5-7).

Dear brothers and sisters, Christ died and rose once for all, and for everyone, but the power of the Resurrection, this passover from slavery to evil to the freedom of goodness, must be accomplished in every age, in our concrete existence, in our everyday lives. How many deserts, even today, do human beings need to cross! Above all, the desert within, when we have no love for God or neighbour, when we fail to realize that we are guardians of all that the Creator has given us and continues to give us. God's mercy can make even the driest land become a garden, can restore life to dry bones (cf. Ez 37:1-14).

So this is the invitation which I address to everyone: Let us accept the grace of Christ's Resurrection! Let us be renewed by God's mercy, let us be loved by Jesus, let us enable the power of his love to transform our lives too; and let us become agents of this mercy, channels through which God can water the earth, protect all creation and make justice and peace flourish.

And so we ask the risen Jesus, who turns death into life, to change hatred into love, vengeance into forgiveness, war into peace. Yes, Christ is our peace, and through him we implore peace for all the world. [The Holy Father names many different lands that are especially in need of peace.]

Peace in the whole world, still divided by greed looking for easy gain, wounded by the selfishness which threatens human life and the family, selfishness that continues in human trafficking, the most extensive form of slavery in this twenty-first century; human trafficking is the most extensive form of slavery in this twenty-first century! Peace to the whole world, torn apart by violence linked to drug trafficking and by the iniquitous exploitation of natural resources! Peace to this our Earth! Made the risen Jesus bring comfort to the victims of natural disasters and make us responsible guardians of creation.

Fr. Joseph Gallatin

Rediscover Book Group Insights

The response to our book groups for “Rediscover Catholicism,” the book given to all parishioners at Christmas Masses, has been fantastic. A heartfelt thanks to all of our dedicated leaders, who are giving so generously of their time to make these groups a success. For the next few weeks, we will share with you some thoughts of the group participants. If you are still interested in starting a group of your own, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or Joanne Rocco Carter at 651-454-7853.

Our group has individuals of all ages and walks of life. What is most inspiring to me is how we interact with each other as we readily share our faith. The young inspire the older members, the married inspire the younger and vice-versa. Everyone shares readily and they are so open and respectful of each other. It truly helps me see God's hand at work in each person's life. He not only enlightens us to not only grow ourselves but He uses us as His instrument of grace for each other."

~Sunday morning group

If you are not currently in a group, but have some new insight to share, or words of encouragement about this book, please email them to lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Pastoral Ministry

Adult Enrichment Opportunity

What happens inside the Vatican continues to compel millions of people, but few get to see it. SECRET ACCESS: THE VATICAN provides a revealing look at the inner workings of the Vatican, from the secret archives to the Swiss guards, as well as some of the treasures locked inside. This HISTORY special provides unique entry into one of the world's most elusive locations. See what is housed under the 110-acre site as an ongoing excavation of an ancient cemetery that the Vatican was built upon uncovers priceless artifacts, including the bones of St. Peter himself. Go inside the Vatican secret archives, a collection of rooms and libraries containing some of history's priceless documents. And get to know Vatican security: the top-of-the-line procedures and practices utilized by a combination of Swiss Guards (elite guards to the Pope), Vatican police, and Italian police that keep the Pope and Vatican safe.

Pastoral ministry will host screenings on Sunday, April 21, at 10:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. in the Ravoux Room. There is no need to pre-register. For more information, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

April 8: Day of Prayer for the Unborn Child

On Monday, April 8, we celebrate the Feast of the Annunciation. It is a perfect time to pray for the precious gift of life. April 8 also is the Knights of Columbus Day of Prayer for the Unborn Child and a day for everyone in our community, including public officials and health care workers, to gather together to demonstrate our commitment to build a culture that respects and protects every human life from conception to natural death. Please join us for prayer opportunities on Monday, April 8, and bring family and friends. At St. Peter's, the Rosary will be prayed at 8:40 a.m., followed by Mass in the Historic Church at 9 a.m. Mass will be celebrated at St. John Neumann at 6:30 p.m., followed by Eucharistic Adoration from 7 to 8 p.m.

Life is our first gift from an infinitely loving Creator. It is the most fundamental element of our God-given human dignity. Moreover, by assuming and sharing our human nature, the Son of God has more fully revealed and enhanced the sacred character of each human life.

Red Cross Blood Drive Coming Thursday, May 2

Mark your calendar! The blood drive will be held in the Ravoux Room from 1-6 p.m. Due to the severe winter in many parts of Mid-America, Blood Services Division forced the cancellation of more than 100 blood drives, resulting in a shortfall of nearly 4,100 blood and platelets donations. Your donation of blood is desperately needed.

Thank You From St. Peter's Council of Catholic Women (CCW) and the Men's Club

The members of the CCW Board extend a heartfelt THANK YOU to all who joined us in January for the Pastor Appreciation luncheon we had, to honor Father Gallatin, and to show our appreciation to him for all of his dedication and hard work as our Shepherd. There were over 100 of us enjoying the meal and the fellowship of other parishioners.

In February the CCW and the Men's club hosted the Soup Supper on Ash Wednesday and again, we want to thank all of you who joined us for soup before Mass. It was delicious, and this year we ran out of soup and were unable to send any home. The freewill donation after expenses was $612 and a check was sent to Mary Jo Copeland's Sharing and Caring Hands.

Our first St. Patrick's Day luncheon after Mass on Sunday, March 17, was a great success. A lot of fun was had by all and we had two children and three adults who won the limerick contest. The limericks were great! The winners of the raffle are Jackie Huot, the Waterford Wine glasses; Gerri Boland, the Belleek china basket; and Deb Sweeney, the cut glass candy dish. After expenses the Men's Club and the Council of Catholic Women split the profit and that money will go into the treasury of each club and given out at the end of the year to either our church or some other Catholic charity. Again, we extend a heartfelt THANK YOU to those who attended the St. Patrick's Day luncheon.

SAVE THE DATES: The Council of Catholic Women will be selling Gerten Plant Cards after all Masses the weekends of May 4/5 and May 11/12.

The Council of Catholic Women will be having its annual Luncheon and Fashion Show and it will be held on Saturday, May 18, at 11:30 a.m. in Heritage Center. Look for more details in upcoming bulletins.

Council of Catholic Women (CCW) Board Meeting

The Council of Catholic Women Board will meet on Wednesday, April 10, 1:30 p.m. in Conference Room I. All women of the parish are invited to attend.
