

Church of ST. PETER MENDOTA

January 31, 2016
Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from Deacon Tim

In this last article I would like to talk about the role of the deacon in our Catholic Church. What is a deacon? What do deacons do and not do? Why does our parish have a deacon?

The deacon is at the first level of ordained ministry. Every priest, bishop, and even the pope himself, was first ordained a deacon. The diaconal ministry is one of service to the Word, at the altar, and in the world. Whenever I am present at Mass, you will hear me proclaim the gospel and sometimes preach the homily. This is what a deacon does as a servant of the Word. You may have also noticed that I am offering the prayers of the faithful. This, too, is part of the deacon's role. As a deacon, I am responsible to assist Father at the altar by receiving the bread and wine and preparing the altar for the consecration. As a deacon, I am an ordinary minister of the Eucharist, so distributing Holy Communion is also part of my ordained ministry.

As a deacon, I am called to assist at Mass. I may also witness marriages without a Mass, preside at funeral and wake services, offer blessings for people and objects, and visit the sick and suffering. A deacon does not consecrate the Eucharist, hear confessions, or anoint the sick and dying.

As a deacon, I have my foot in two worlds. I am a husband, father, grandfather, and full-time employee. I encounter situations out in the world, and I bring that "worldly" experience to my ordained ministry. As an ordained man, I receive the same sacrament of holy orders, but I am ordained at the level of a permanent deacon rather than a priest. I am here to serve the people of this parish in all the ways that I can as a deacon. I look forward to how God chooses to use me in this parish community and in my corrections ministry in Washington County.

People often ask what they should call me. By my ordination, the Church has given me a new name that reflects my new place and ministry in the Body of Christ. To the secular world, I am still Tim Hennessey. In the parish setting, I am your deacon, so please feel free to address me as Deacon Tim or Deacon Hennessey, or simply "Deacon."

There is a shift that occurs in me when I change from my regular attire into my clerical attire. While I am always a deacon regardless of what I am doing or wearing, I am strongly reminded of who I am in the Church when I am wearing my clerical clothing.

Congratulations! You have all completed Deaconology: 101. I hope this series of articles has helped you to know me a little better. There is a lot more to say, and I will weave little pieces of my life and my ministry into homilies and talks in the weeks and months to come. Thanks for being so welcoming. It is truly good to be here. I look forward to moving more and more into my various ministry roles at St. Peter's. With your help, support, and prayers, I will become the deacon that God wants me to be for this parish.

In Loving Service,

Deacon Tim

Interested in becoming Catholic?

If you or someone you know has been thinking about becoming Catholic, we would very much like to hear from you! To begin, we'd like to get to know you, help you to learn more about the process and have your questions answered. Lent Speaker Series

Sacraments in the Light of Mercy: How the sacraments help us to experience and live from God's mercy

Thursdays, February 18, 25 & March 3
6:30-7:30 p.m. in Heritage Center

Jesus is God's love incarnate, a love that comes to us as mercy. God's merciful love is communicated to us in numerous ways. The seven sacraments, instituted by Christ himself, are especially designed for this purpose: to bring the power of God's merciful love into all the areas of our life.

We hope you will come and join us this Lent, during the Year of Mercy, as we reflect together on how we can live more generously and concretely from these life-giving sources of mercy. All are welcome.

- ♦ February 18: The Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist
- ♦ February 25: The Sacraments of Vocation: Holy Orders and Marriage
- ♦ March 3: The Sacraments of Healing: Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick

No reservations are required. Free will donations will be accepted. Fellowship and refreshments will be provided after each evening's talk. For further information, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

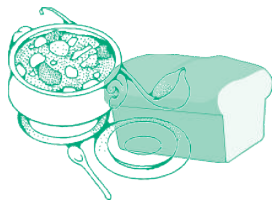

Join the Choir

The choir is beginning preparation for the Holy Week celebrations, the Lenten season and beyond. Now is a great time to join! Rehearsals are weekly on Wednesday nights at 7 p.m. and end by 8:30 p.m. If you have questions, feel free to ask any choir member or contact David at ddunst@stpetersmendota.org.

Catholic Services Appeal

Our parish is now conducting the 2016 Catholic Services Appeal for the 17 Collective Ministries of the Archdiocese that no one parish can support on its own. Please be generous. In 2015 the Appeal did not reach its goal and Ministries were not fully funded, including the Archdiocesan Hospital Chaplains, Catholic Grade Schools, Catholic Charities and the Venezuelan Mission. Please be generous this year.

The Designated Ministries are:

1. American Indian Ministry
2. Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women (ACCW)
3. Campus Ministry – Newman Center
4. Campus Ministry – Saint Paul's Outreach
5. Catholic Charities
6. Deaf Ministry
7. Catholic Elementary Schools
8. Archdiocesan Office of Evangelization and Catechesis
9. Catholic High Schools
10. Hospital Chaplains of the Archdiocese
11. Archdiocesan Offices of Latino Ministry
12. Marriage, Family and Life Office of the Archdiocese
13. Parishes
14. Archdiocesan Prison Chaplains
15. Saint John Vianney College Seminary
16. The Saint Paul Seminary
17. Venezuelan Mission of the Archdiocese

Please remember that parishes are a benefitted ministry; we receive 25% of the dollars we collect in our parish if we reach our parish goal. Please go to www.csafspm.org to read and see more about the ministries benefitted by the 2016 Appeal.

This is the Year of Mercy. We should remember that Jesus taught us the Corporal Works of Mercy: feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, shelter the homeless, visit the sick, visit the imprisoned, and bury the dead. These Works of Mercy are precisely what the 17 Collective Ministries of the Archdiocese accomplish. Thank you for your generosity!
