February 21, 2016
Second Sunday of Lent

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Pastoral Associate

In the great literary stories, there is always a turning point. Likewise, we experience such moments in our own lives. There are for each of us, times when we are faced with choices, with decisions for ourselves and for others, that hold the potential to be forever life-altering. Today, in the Gospel of the Transfiguration, we witness such a moment in the life of Jesus and his disciples.

If we look first to our reading, we can take from the instruction St. Paul provides the Philippians some guidance in how we might attempt to more closely resemble true followers of Christ. It is easy I believe, to be distracted by all of the earthly concerns and temptations that we encounter daily. Especially challenging are those things that are not inherently bad. It's obvious that lying, stealing and cruelty separate us from Jesus. We can be reasonably sure we are able to avoid them. What Paul seems to be speaking of are those things which we need, to some degree, like food, rest and pleasure in the company of others, but that can insidiously and subtly begin to crowd Christ out of our lives and our hearts.

When I first "came back" to the Church, the things that were starkly opposed to my growing relationship with Christ were the easiest to begin to eliminate. At first, that felt like enough. For quite a long time, I held onto a sense of pride in my ability to convert to this newfound love of Christ completely.

I eventually became aware, as I think many of us do, that my relationship with God, through Christ, had stymied. I struggled with why that could be when it seemed that I was doing all the "right" things. Luckily, that came just a short time before my annual retreat to a hermitage. I set, as my intention for the weekend, the desire to see what-spiritually- was causing me to feel stuck.

I'd like to be able to tell you that in those three days of solitude and prayer I experienced a clear answer. That wasn't how God chose to respond. Instead, I spent the retreat uncomfortable, restless, and generally out of sorts. I was dissatisfied with the spiritual reading I'd brought. It was too cold and wet to walk in the woods, as is my custom on retreat. I was unhappy with the food I'd brought with me. More than once, I seriously contemplated giving up and driving home early. The only thing I managed to feel good about was that I'd been able to journal the experience and get some knitting done.

Some months later during Lent, I was spending some time reflecting on my still immovable sense of distance from Jesus, and read through those journal entries. Not long after, this account of the Transfiguration from Luke, made me rethink that retreat. For the disciples with Jesus on that mountain, the Transfiguration was uncomfortable. It challenged them. It was a turning point in their knowledge of, and relationship with, Jesus. I began to consider that this may have been what my retreat offered me, albeit on a less grand scale than the appearance of Moses and Elijah and Jesus in his shining white robes.

Again, I dove into the memories of that weekend in my journal. I realized that I had never let go of the habits of my old life before allowing Christ back into it. When I faced difficulty, I was still turning to earthly comforts. I wasn't just eating because my body needed nutrition; I was eating to comfort, to soothe and to distract. I wasn't seeking the woods to feel closer to a Creator God; I was dissatisfied because I didn't feel close to God the moment I arrived, and I was bored and didn't want to patiently wait for him. I wanted the books I chose to give me the answers that only God could provide.

This is how transfiguration works in most of our lives. Few of us will experience frequent, or indeed any moments as dramatic as Peter, John, and James did on that mountain. I have learned that the smaller, nearly unnoticeable moments of disquiet are worth looking at more closely. When we feel irritable, angry, and sad, what are we turning to for comfort? What things in our lives that have good, healthy purpose most of the time are we relying on instead of God? Lent is an especially appropriate time to reevaluate. Perhaps for you, taking a moment or two each day to make notes in a journal about where you are looking to draw comfort will shed light on areas in which you have room to grow ever closer to Christ.

Religious Education/ Faith Formation (RE/FF)

Kid's Change for Kids-To Uganda with Love

During Lent, we are asked to give alms. To encourage our youth and children to follow this Lenten practice, St. Peter's is sponsoring a child in Uganda. Please have children and youth bring in money that they have earned to help support this child. They may bring the money to their religion class and put it in the can located on their teacher's desk. All proceeds go to support the child we sponsor in Uganda. We will continue to collect money through Lent.

Random Acts of Kindness

Random Acts of Kindness Cross

The Random Acts of Kindness Cross is in the Gathering Space by the elevator. Each time you perform a random act of kindness—an act you perform because of a “desire to connect, to lend a helping hand and/or to extend yourself out into the world”—please put a tissue paper flower into the cross. By Easter we will have a blooming cross of kindness!

Baptism Preparation Class

If you are interested in having your child baptized, please contact Kathy Raible. Parents must participate in a preparation class prior to their child being baptized. You are welcome to come to the class either before or after the baby is born. Our next scheduled baptism class is on Sunday, March 6, at 1 pm. Call Kathy at 651-905-4311 or email her at kraible@stpetersmendota.org.

Sacraments in the Light of Mercy: How the sacraments help us to experience and live from God's mercy

Thursdays, February 25 & March 3
6:30-7:30 p.m. in Heritage Center

Jesus is God's love incarnate, a love that comes to us as mercy. God's merciful love is communicated to us in numerous ways. The seven sacraments, instituted by Christ himself, are especially designed for this purpose: to bring the power of God's merciful love into all the areas of our life.

We hope you will come and join us this Lent, during the Year of Mercy, as we reflect together on how we can live more generously and concretely from these life-giving sources of mercy. All are welcome.

- ♦ February 25: The Sacraments of Vocation: Holy Orders and Marriage
- ♦ March 3: The Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Holy Eucharist and Confirmation

No reservations are required. Free will donations will be accepted. Fellowship and refreshments will be provided after each evening's talk. For further information, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

24 Hours for the Lord

Come back to Confession in the Year of Mercy

Friday, March 4 - Saturday, March 5

Please consider joining in this worldwide celebration of the Lord's mercy by returning to the Sacrament of Reconciliation. As Pope Francis invites us, “Let us place the Sacrament of Reconciliation at the center once more in such a way that it will enable people to touch the grandeur of God's mercy with their own hands.” Special opportunities include round-the-clock confessions at both the Cathedral of St. Paul and Basilica of St. Mary in Minneapolis from Friday, 1:30 p.m. to Saturday, 12 noon.

Spirituality on the Margins Pilgrimage

Exploring the Ministry of Presence

Saturday, February 27 from 8:30 am to 2:20 pm

Are you ready to expand your circle of relationship? Have you ever considered being a 'spiritual listener' to someone who lives in poverty? Parishioners of St. Peter's are invited to an urban pilgrimage to experience the ministry of compassionate presence. This pilgrimage, designed by City House, will provide you an opportunity to prayerfully travel to St. Paul and listen to stories of individuals who are experiencing homelessness or exist in other conditions of poverty in the city.

Small group sharing, lunch at Dorothy Day, and an introduction to "Spirituality on the Margins" will be part of this half-day pilgrimage. There is limited space. If you have questions or wish to register, please contact parishioner Lorilee Petrangelo at Lorilee@city-house.org, or call 651-494-8303.

To sign up at the parish office, please see Lisa Amos.

Global Solidarity Sunday Weekend

March 5/6 is designated as Global Solidarity Sunday weekend in the archdiocese with the theme, "Taste and see the goodness of the Lord." This is an opportunity to reach out in solidarity to people around the world and take part in offering the goodness of the Lord to all.

On this Sunday, a special collection will be taken for four global priorities of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops: Africa, Latin America, Central and Eastern Europe, as well as humanitarian activities of Catholic Relief Services. Please be as generous as you are able and support your brothers and sisters overseas. Thank you.

Hearing and Vision Aids

Hearing and Vision Aids Available for Mass

If you find it hard to hear at Mass, or your ability to participate is inhibited by difficulty reading the hymnal or worship aids, we can help with that. Please see one of our friendly ushers and let them know of your need. We have hearing devices and magnifiers available for you to use while you are here. Thank you.

Neighbors, Inc.

Neighbors, Inc. Food Share Drive

Minnesota FoodShare is an annual campaign to help replenish supplies for Minnesota's food shelves. During the month of March, the food shelves record and report their receipts by weighing the pounds of food donated and counting the dollars contributed. Minnesota Food Share uses these totals to allocate proportional funds to each food shelf. This means the more a food shelf collects, the more money they receive from the fund. All donations from St. Peter's will be given to Neighbor's, Inc.

After each mass on February 20 and 21, and again on March 12 and 13, special grocery bags will be distributed for you to take home. Please consider filling these bags with your food donations and returning them to St. Peter's by March 30th. Monetary donations are also encouraged. Each dollar donated is the equivalent to one pound of food. You may place your monetary donation in the collection basket at Mass. Address the envelope to Neighbors, Inc.

Finding Jesus in the Old Testament

The New Testament lies hidden in the Old and the Old Testament is unveiled in the New.—St. Ignatius.

Learn how we can know that Jesus is, in fact, the promised Messiah and how to begin the study of scripture. Bill McLeod will demonstrate how to use typology to compare the Old and New Testament scriptures to unveil Christ's message. We invite you to come learn how typology is used to gain a deeper understanding of the meanings in the bible. Thursday, March 3, 7 pm, at Holy Spirit Church, 515 Albert St. S., St. Paul.
