Reflections from our Pastor

My dear friends,

A very important part of this Jubilee Year is allowing God to form our minds and hearts with the right understanding of His mercy, so that we will approach His mercy with greater confidence and trust. This is precisely what Jesus is doing through the parables of the lost coin, the lost sheep, and the lost son in Luke's Gospel. As a further way to help foster this confidence and trust, I'd like to offer a few quotes from a wonderful book that we have in our resource center called I Believe in Love, by Fr. Jean C.J. d'Elbee. The book is based on a retreat that Fr. Jean gave on the life of St. Therese of Liseaux. Here are some of the pearls of spiritual wisdom in this book:

Thus the soul which suffers to see itself tarnished by its faults and failings, and which exposes itself to the rays of the divine, transforming Sun, can say to Jesus, "Jesus, I come to you completely beautiful, beautiful like the Sun which You are, pure with Your own purity, beautiful with Your own beauty, rich with Your own treasures.

To the sick who asked Him to cure them on the roads of Palestine, Jesus posed only one question: "Do you believe that I can heal you?" The response: "Yes, Lord!" Jesus: "Be it done unto you as you have believed." Jesus says to you now, "Do you believe that I can purify you in a moment and wipe from your soul every trace of sin?" "Yes, Lord, I believe." "Then it is done," replies the Lord, "because you believe, because you do not doubt it, because you know enough to cling to my infinite mercy, because you remember how I treated the prodigal son, the good thief, and the woman of Canaan when they vanquished me by their humility and confidence."

(When I'm aware of my sinfulness), right away, in the present moment, I say to Jesus that I know that He loves me and that I love Him. His arms, his Heart are always open, and I can take refuge there this instant, since my wretchedness, far from being an obstacle, is a springboard to propel me there.

Even a fall strengthens us if we repent of it, since Jesus brings good out of evil. Go to Him as to a fountain of living water, as many times as necessary, picking yourself up, each time more humble and each time more overflowing with confident love. If you make each sin an occasion for you to kiss the wound of His heart with repentance and confidence, each sin will become a rung in the ladder by which you ascend in love. From misery to misery we go from mercy to mercy.

St. Claude de la Colombiere writes: "As for me I glorify You, O God, in making known how good You are toward sinners, and that Your mercy prevails over all malice, that nothing can destroy it, that no matter how many times or how shamefully we fall, or how criminally, a sinner need not be driven to despair of your pardon."

God's greatest pleasure is to pardon. The good Lord is more eager to pardon a repentant sinner than a mother to rescue her child from the fire. Our faults are grains of sand beside the great mountain of the mercies of God. God, at the moment of absolution, throws our sins over His shoulder. He forgets them; He annihilates them; they shall never reappear.

If you are still looking for a good book to nourish your heart during Lent, I would highly recommend I Believe in Love. Check out our Resource Center for this and other books.

God love you,

Fr. Steven

Parish Penance Service

Individual Confessions.

Be Among the First We Tell

We don't know who. We don't when. But we do know who we'll tell first...you! Follow The Catholic Spirit for the best coverage when our new archbishop is named. Go to www.TheCatholicSpirit.com/NewAbp and sign up to choose how you want to hear the news.

Religious Education/ Faith Formation (RE/FF)

Grade 2 Classes

First Eucharist Mini Retreat

Saturday, March 12 is the Mini Retreat for all students in the First Communion Program. Students need to be at church by 9 a.m. Parents will return at 11:30 a.m. for a rehearsal, pot luck lunch and banner making. Please contact Kathy Raible at 651-905-4311 if you have any questions.

Uganda with Love

Kid's Change for Kids-To Uganda with Love

During Lent, we are asked to give alms. To encourage our youth and children to follow this Lenten practice, St. Peter's is sponsoring a child in Uganda. Please have children and youth bring in money that they have earned to help support this child. They may bring the money to their religion class and put it in the can located on their teacher's desk. All proceeds go to support the child we sponsor in Uganda. We will continue to collect money through Lent.

Random Acts of Kindness

Random Acts of Kindness Cross

The Random Acts of Kindness Cross is in the Gathering Space by the elevator. Each time you perform a random act of kindness—an act you perform because of a “desire to connect, to lend a helping hand and/or to extend yourself out into the world”—please put a tissue paper flower into the cross. By Easter we will have a blooming cross of kindness!

Youth Group No Longer Collecting Cans

Workcamp Can Trailer Update

Due to the decrease in aluminum prices, the money raised from the can trailer has been in decline for the past few years. Because of this, the can trailer has been retired, and we will no longer be accepting cans for recycling at St. Peter's. Please do not leave cans where the trailer used to be. Thank you for your support of the trailer throughout the years and for your continued support of Workcamp! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Elizabeth McCanna at emccanna@stpetersmendota.org.

Pastoral Ministry

Neighbors, Inc.

Some of the clients who come to Neighbors, Inc. are transitioning out of homelessness. They are residents of Northern Dakota County. Many are the working poor. They have chosen to give up their homes in order to keep their cars and pay for health care plans and other bills. They have lived in their cars, showered at truck stops, and carried fresh water in gallon jugs in their cars. Some have lived secretly in storage shelters.

With the help of many community services and volunteers, they are moving into their first home in months, sometimes years. Their courage, gratitude, and joy are inspiring. Your donations to Neighbors, Inc. provide them with household goods and food to make this possible. One shopper was excited to receive a bottle of hair conditioner. She said it had been over a year since she had used a conditioner. She had been cutting her own hair for longer than that. Another shopper hugged a box of pancake mix and said he was going to his new home to make his first home cooked meal in over two years. Your donations to Neighbors, Inc. do make a difference. Neighbors, Inc. thanks you for your generosity.

In a world where there is so much wealth and so many resources to feed everyone, it is unfathomable that there are so many hungry children . . .

Poverty today is a cry.

Pope Francis

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

If you, or someone you know, has been thinking about becoming Catholic, we would very much like to hear from you! To begin, we'd like to get to know you, help you to learn more about the process and have your questions answered. We look forward to helping those baptized in other Christian traditions, the unbaptized and anyone who may already have made their First Communion as a child, but has not received the sacrament of Confirmation. For more information or to schedule a private inquiry meeting to discuss your own faith journey, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or email lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Dear St. Peter Parish Community,
This year's annual appeal for retired religious coincided with the beginning of the Jubilee Year of Mercy. One of the works of mercy is to visit the sick. St. Peter parishioners visited the retired religious with a generous contribution of $3,958.17. Thank you for sharing in the care of our retired religious. May God bless you for your generosity.

Tickets are required, but are FREE at [www.sps theatre.org](http://www.sps theatre.org) OR join us for the Sunday afternoon show.
