Reflections from our Music Director

First off, I would be entirely remiss to fail in wishing a very restful and happy Mother's Day to all who are called as mothers of any kind. Women offer the Church, and indeed the world, a grace and beauty, a strength with gentleness that is worthy of reflection in this Jubilee Year of Mercy. A mother's intercession resonates for me, especially as we celebrate the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary in this month of May, and her role in the story of our salvation.

However, as today we recall the Ascension, there is something else upon which I want to focus. Many weeks, the second reading is sort of out of step with the first reading and Gospel, which are normally paired. Very often, I find the "epistle" to be the most inspiring of the scriptures we hear each week. In this case, though, it is not only inspiring, but really theologically relevant to the feast we observe today.

As the reading begins, we are told that as Christ ascends, he has entered, unlike any faith tradition or ritual worship, into the actual sanctuary of the Father – He is in the very presence of God offering himself on our behalf perpetually, though not repeatedly, to cleanse us of sin.

That, by way of summary, is the first of two paragraphs, and we ought to take a bit of a deep breath unpacking it. The short of it, though, is that Christ is himself the embodiment of mercy. Jesus, both God and man, in the presence of eternal, almighty God is a scene that echoes for us with the weight of Christmas and Easter. This portion of the Scripture explains how mercy becomes a possibility for humankind.

The next part is what I find more interesting, as it paints a picture of how we now stand in relation to God.

Because of who Jesus is and what he did (though he does it once eternally, not once in time – he is divine, after all), it says, "we have confidence of entrance." Beyond this, we are offered instruction on the way we ought to proceed in prayer: approaching God in sincerity of heart, and clinging to faith because he, our God, is trustworthy. In a word, humility is the proper response, not fear.

This is the difference between sinful humanity before and after a personal, vital relationship with Jesus takes hold.

Those who come to God apart from His mercy made sure through Baptism do so as though trembling, seeking undeserved goods from the One who offers all good things. We who have been "washed in pure water" (the purification of the water is what takes place when Jesus is baptized in the Jordan and that which we commemorate at the Easter Vigil) ought to draw near to God with knowledge of both our unworthiness and our forgiveness. We needn't tremble, but, as an invited guest to a feast beyond our rank, come justified to receive choice blessings from the Author of Truth and Beauty.

This is the sense of the second song at Communion this week, so perhaps you will hearken back to that moment this week, having received the Lord sacramentally, you can become aware of his welcome, his embrace, the eyes of Divine Love upon you, and in your own spirit you bow in the presence of such glories.

Neighbors

Those who come to the Neighbors, Inc. food shelf are grateful for anything they are given. It is often the last chance to get food after other sources have run out.

If you would like to contribute to our local food shelf, please consider bringing any nonperishable food in to our donations bins, which can be found in the Gathering Space and upstairs by the door to the parish offices.

Some items that are most appreciated by those who rarely get "comfort food" are peanut butter, pancake mix and syrup. Thank you for any way you can help!

Hearing and Vision Aids

If you find it hard to hear at Mass or your ability to participate is inhibited by difficulty reading the hymnal or worship aids, we can help with that. Please see one of our friendly ushers and let them know of your need. We have hearing devices and magnifiers available for you to use while you're here. Thank you.

St. Peter's Group Trip

Grotto of the Redemption in West Bend, Iowa

Join Father Steven and Lisa Amos for our next trip to The Grotto of the Redemption in West Bend, Iowa. The Grotto has been referred to by reviewers and critics as an "eighth wonder of the world" and described as a "miracle in stone." It was placed on the National Register of Historical Places in 2001. Each of nine separate grottos portrays a scene in the life of Christ. The largest man-made grotto in the world, the Grotto of the Redemption contains the largest collection of precious stones and gems found anywhere in one location.

On Thursday, June 9, we will depart in our coach bus from St. Peter's at 8 a.m. Father Steven will begin our day with thoughts on the rosary and, upon our arrival, celebrate Mass with us in the Saints Peter and Paul Church at the Grotto. We will take a break for lunch at a nearby restaurant and return to the Grotto for tours and exploration. We will leave West Bend at approximately 3 p.m. for our 6:30 p.m. arrival back at St. Peter's.

Reservations are limited, so reserve your spot now by contacting Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org. The cost is $65 per person, which includes the tour, lunch and bus. Reservation deadline is May 30. Parishioners will receive priority reservations until the deadline has passed or all seats are taken. ALL reservations must be paid in advance by the registration deadline and are non-refundable. We look forward to seeing you there!

Legislators are considering a refundable tax credit to expand educational options for low-income families. We need to let our elected officials know TODAY just how important expanding school choice is to Minnesota.
