Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Deacon

As I write this article, our family is preparing to head up to the great north for our annual family vacation. I hope you are able to enjoy some quality time during these beautiful days of summer that God has given us to enjoy.

Packing for a trip is both an art and a science. The science is in figuring out ahead of time what you will need, and the art is getting your items organized so they will be accessible and in good condition upon arrival.

I always over-pack. It doesn't matter how far I am traveling, I will manage to fill that bag full of all the things I think I might need for my trip. I always start with the necessities, but I somehow manage to add more items along the way. This results in an over-full bag. I am always a little ashamed when I return from the trip and see how many things I thought I needed, but really didn't.

In Luke's gospel this weekend, Jesus sends the seventy two out to the towns to proclaim the Kingdom of God. Jesus doesn't leave it to them to figure out the packing for this journey but rather gives them specific instructions:

"Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way."

Jesus is telling His followers to pack light for their spiritual journey. But why?

Jesus is all about mission. He came to do the will of the Father. Jesus is sending His followers out, not to take a vacation, but to be about this important mission. The packing instructions he gives are clear, simple and focused on the work they are being sent to do. Jesus does not want His followers to be encumbered by too many possessions. These would only weigh them down and cause them to lose focus on the mission at hand. In this gospel, Jesus offers very practical advice for His followers and for us - pack light!

Each of us is on a spiritual journey. God is calling us, challenging us, blessing us, healing us and sometimes chastising us throughout our lifetime. All of God's actions in our lives are designed to bring us into closer union with Him. With all of the noise around us in our world, it can be challenging for us to hear God's voice. Many of us (myself included) are accustomed to being "dialed in" to something electronic. Whether it is our cell phones, iPads, laptops, music, videos, or movies, we are all challenged to break free of the electronic devices and just settle in with the Lord. Jesus is calling us to consider these packing instructions for our own lives. They are particularly important when speaking of our spiritual journey and the specific work God has for us to do in our earthly life.

Anne and I recently had some good friends over for an evening. We made a conscious decision to keep the evening simple, so the focus would be on our conversation and not on preparing a fancy meal. We opted to do a wine and cheese evening. I picked up a few simple cheeses, some crackers and bread, and a nice bottle of wine. As we expected, we had a great evening of wonderful conversation with our dear friends. The simplicity of the food allowed us to just enjoy each other's company. As we were saying our goodbyes, our friends remarked about how much they enjoyed the simple offering of wine and cheese.

Jesus invites us to come to Him just as we are. He knows our wounds, our hurts, our struggles, and he also knows the beauty inside each of us. Jesus wants to be that honored guest at our wine and cheese party, or our peanut butter and jelly sandwich party! Jesus knows exactly what we need. Like the thoughtful guest, he brings just what is needed to make our time together a success. When we start trying to complicate things, we lose focus and we leave Jesus sitting at our table with no one to talk to. Jesus is calling us into a beautiful relationship with Him. When we set down the heavy bag of worldly cares and distractions, we are able to enter into the space where he waits for us.

This weekend we celebrate the gift of freedom. It is a time to relax in God's creation and remember the price that was paid for the freedom we enjoy. Whether it is a simple picnic at the park or a day spent at the lake, my hope is that we will each take a moment to thank our Creator for His goodness. These summer days are precious. We see God's rich beauty in Technicolor splendor. May it inspire wonder, awe and a newfound sense of the love that surrounds us.

God Bless You!

Deacon Tim

ST. PETER'S COMMUNITY NEWS

Neighbors, Inc.

I hope your summer is off to a good start. We've been seeing lots of things growing in our garden here at Neighbors, and have already harvested a few radishes, greens, and turnips. We've also gotten some early harvests from some of you. The summer is looking very promising if this keeps up! Please keep us in mind when your garden starts to overflow this summer.

neighbors, inc.

If you care about getting folks fresh garden produce, but you're not a green thumb, consider adopting a shift for Neighbors at the farmer's markets in South Saint Paul or West Saint Paul. You can check out the schedule and sign yourself up at www.volunteerspot.com/login/entry/10688068060100. We are looking for friendly folks to offer ice water and Neighbors information to folks visiting the market, and to collect donations of fresh produce from the shoppers and farmers.

Another way to help fight hunger this summer is to serve breakfast or lunch to kids in a local school. Volunteers in the summer meal program do light food preparation, serve food, greet students, and clean up, all under the direction of skilled cafeteria staff. It's fun and easy, and you can make a difference with just a few hours at your convenience. Sign up at www.volunteerspot.com/login/entry/146331682010. Contact Scott Andrews if you have any questions at scott@neighborsmn.org.

Most Needed Items

However, if you would like to register as a parishioner, please contact Anne O'Keefe at 651-905-4308 or aokeefe@stpetersmendota.org, or stop by the table after Mass during the first weekend in August.

Feed the Hungry at Feed My Starving Children in Eagan

During this Year of Mercy, we are called to show mercy by performing corporal and spiritual works of mercy. We invite you to join us to Feed the Hungry at a meal packing event at Feed My Starving Children (FMSC) on Wednesday, July 13, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. FMSC is located at 990 Lone Oak Road (just east of Lexington), Suite 136 in Eagan.

Space can be limited, so if you are interested in joining us in this, or future food packing events, please contact Paul or Peggy Hirsch at 651-431-1832 or at phirsch651@aol.com.

In April, FMSC ministry members came together with others in the community to assemble 12,700 meals; that's enough to feed 37 kids for a full year!

Hearing and Vision Aids

If you find it hard to hear at Mass, or your ability to participate is inhibited by difficulty reading the hymnal or worship aids, we can help with that. Please see one of our friendly ushers and let them know of your need. We have hearing devices and magnifiers available for you to use while you're here. Thank you.

Catechetical Institute

Continue to Learn and Live the Catholic Faith.

Come discover the plan that will transform your work, your marriage, your family, your community...
your life!

This fall, the Archbishop Harry J. Flynn Catechetical Institute will begin another two-year course at The Saint Paul Seminary campus. This course is taught by some of the best instructors in the Twin Cities, such as Bishop Andrew Cozzens, Jeff Cavins, Deacon Joe Michalak, Fr. John Klockeman, Dr. Bill Stevenson, Dr. Todd Flanders, Christina Smith and more. The program follows the four pillars of the Catechism of the Catholic Church and will make sense of all things Catholic, deepen your faith, and lay out the roadmap to heaven.

The classes are divided into four eleven-week modules and meet on Monday evenings, from 7 to 9 p.m, with two Saturday morning formative sessions per module. Applications are now being accepted through July 15, for the class beginning in September. For more information and an application to become part of the Class of St. Teresa of Calcutta, call (651)962-5028 or visit www.CIstudent.com.

The Catholic Watchmen

The Catholic Watchmen is coming to our parish.

The Catholic Watchmen is coming soon to our parish! To accomplish this task, Catholic Watchmen learn and practice 7 Disciplines.

Watch for more information to attend Monthly Catholic Watchmen Nights starting in September. Each Catholic Watchmen Night runs from 6:30-9:00 p.m. with a video presentation, social time and group discussion, with plans to provide food and beverage, as well as time for adoration and confession. Watch for more information over the summer! If you would like to be part of the parish vanguard or Core Team planning group, please contact the Catholic Watchmen Point Man at your parish, Jim Lodoen (612-201-2910). Lk 6:36) Participate throughout the year by making a pilgrimage to a Holy Door at the Cathedral of Saint Paul or Basilica of Saint Mary, regularly receiving the sacrament of Reconciliation, performing corporal and spiritual works of mercy, and participating in the #MercyWorks video challenge. Find additional ways to pray, learn and act at www.archspm.org/Mercy.

Sacraments for the Homebound

Many in our community wish they were able to join us for Mass but are unable to do so. If you or a loved one has mobility limitations, or if declining health makes it difficult to participate in the sacramental life of the Church, please contact our pastoral associate to learn of the ways we can help. Often many go without, simply because we are not made aware of their needs. To add yourself or someone you love to our outreach ministry, or to hear about the many opportunities we offer, contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.
