Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Pastor

My dear friends,

Deacon Tim and I recently came across a priest who has a wonderful gift for speaking about prayer and other aspects of our Christian life. His name is Fr. Francis Valerio, and I want to share with you just a few excerpts from a reflection he wrote on prayer, emphasizing the importance of listening and openness. I'm sure you will find this very helpful for your own life.

Listening

Listening is one of the most intimate actions we can offer to another person. Listening is loving. Listening says: "You are valuable, your voice, your thoughts, your feelings matter... you are worth my time and sacrifice, worth receiving all that's in your heart and on your mind." God honors my entire self and desires to see and listen to me (Song of Songs / Solomon 2:14). We are created for relationship and the only way relationships grow is when there is mutual honoring and reverence. In relational prayer, after I have shared the thoughts of my heart, it's time to listen to God's heart speak to me. To only share my thoughts with God, without listening to His, is not honoring. It's dumping. One of the greatest causes of loneliness today is the absence of mutual, honored listening. Listening is loving...and where there is love, the Holy Spirit moves.

Where there is safety - our hearts open to Love

We desire to be known, but sometimes our shame and pride tempt us to fear Love...to fear Love's gaze...to fear vulnerability. What will God do? How will Love respond if all of me is really seen and known? Jesus is not ashamed of the messiness of my humanity. On the Cross Jesus has chosen to be vulnerable to me first. There He has already embraced all of my wounds, hurts, pains and sin. God understands me. Jesus continues to invite us out of our fear-based shame and pride into greater vulnerability. In this vulnerability of being known we will know God's presence (and mercy), the gift of peace and hope (Matthew 11:28; Psalm 139; John 4:29; 1 Peter 5:7). Without this vulnerability our fears will always have some control over us. Most of us have to learn how to be loved by God's kind of love...this is where we grow in trusting Jesus.

Where my heart feels safe, it will open to Love. Where my heart does not feel safe it will close and wall off to others. When God becomes my safety I am free to be open and vulnerable. A good question to ask myself In Relational Prayer, if I stay with whom I feel safe, my heart will open more to God's Love (1John4:18). In that openness I will be able to receive more Truth from God, which will encourage me into greater intimacy with the entire Trinity, step by step. In this relationship we find our hope, belonging, value, freedom, peace, and purpose.

Be not ashamed: our greatest struggles can lead us to freedom

It's helpful to ask Holy Spirit for greater awareness in where I struggle the most, where I am most tempted, where I react instead of respond to others, where I tend to control and manipulate to feel safe or to get my way. Where I struggle the most is where God wants to help me the most. Where I struggle the most is where I need the most Love and Truth. Jesus came for those who admit they need a doctor, not for those who trust in themselves, in their own intellects, their own goodness (Luke5:31-32/ Rom:21-16/Titus3:5/John15:5). God is not ashamed of me or mad at me because of my weakness, sin or past. God is already present in the messiest places within me, waiting for me there. Will I meet Him there and let the Lord help me, embrace me, heal me, forgive me, restore me by His Grace? (Romans 5:6-11/ Colossians 2:13-15).

Jesus bless you,

Fr. Steven

Thank you George and Jane, for your time, your prayers and your commitment.

This also opens the door for whoever God is calling to this ministry now. The Vasiliou's will work with whomever comes forward. Steven and Lisa Amos in bringing the gift of Eucharistic Adoration to as many as possible here at St. Peter's, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org. St. Peter's Group Trip

The Thrivent Financial Collection of Religious Art in Minneapolis

Join Fr. Steven and Lisa Amos for our trip to The Thrivent Financial Collection of Religious Art in Minneapolis. This collection is unique among corporate art collections, with its focus on original works on paper and religious subject matter.

Begun in 1982, there are now more than 1,100 objects included in the collection, which range chronologically from a miniature illustration for a 13th-century medieval choir book to avant-garde lithographs and linocuts from the late 20th century. Comprised of eight centuries of art reflecting the Western Christian religious tradition, the collection presents an impressive range of exemplars of Western art history, from Albrecht Dürer to Rembrandt van Rijn and Pablo Picasso.

On Wednesday, September 7, we will depart in our coach bus from St. Peter's following the 9 a.m. Mass. We will have guided tours and time to explore. We will enjoy lunch together at Dan Kelly's Pub, just moments away in downtown Minneapolis. Reservations are limited, so reserve your spot now by contacting Lisa Amos at lamos@stpetersmendota.org or 651-905-4304. Cost is $40/person, which includes tour, lunch and bus. The reservation deadline is August 23rd. We look forward to seeing you then!
