Twenty First Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Music Director

As we begin to transition into the final few months of our meditations on mercy, in observance of this special Jubilee Year of Mercy, our attention will turn from what God's mercy has been and means to us to what God's mercy calls us to become -- merciful.

To this end, we will be looking at works of mercy, especially as traditionally called the "Corporal Works of Mercy" and the "Spiritual Works of Mercy."

By way of a refresher, here are the Corporal Works of Mercy:

Feed the hungry
Give drink to the thirsty
Clothe the naked
Harbour the harbourless (house the homeless)
Visit the sick
Ransom the captive
Bury the dead

Likewise, these are the Spiritual Works of Mercy:

Instruct the ignorant
Counsel the doubtful
Admonish the sinner
Bear wrongs patiently
Forgive offences willingly
Comfort the afflicted
Pray for the living and the dead

Many of us have been acquainted with both of these lists at some point. Hopefully, we have received a modicum of catechesis regarding what they contain. (If you've ever wondered what "catechesis" means, it refers to the act of teaching by word of mouth -- the passing on of Christian truths from person to person.) For example, what is actually meant by, "instruct the ignorant?" Let's be honest; we all have very clear ideas of what we'd like that to mean. However, before we get too far, I'd like to reshape how we think of these acts.

While it certainly is tempting to launch into specific discussion on any number of the works of mercy, that's not what I'm after in this article. Rather, I want to dispel the mistaken notion that the works of mercy are the works of the good, the holy or those for whom a relationship with God is reserved. Holiness, prayer, spiritual counseling, a living belief in God and personal relationship with God through Jesus are not reserved or set aside for a few. The invitation to know God personally and intimately is an open one.

Besides, the works of mercy are the marks of the faithful who are not yet perfected. They are the exercises of Christians who are yet growing. In short, all of the baptized are invited to take merciful practices as a form of spiritual fitness training, rather than as some proof of merit.

We hear in this week's Gospel that many will attempt to enter the kingdom, "but will not be strong enough (Luke 13:24)." Acting out of the mercy we have all received is part of striving "to enter through the narrow gate (ibid.)."

In the second reading, we are given a strong elixir for growth and spiritual progress. "So strengthen your drooping hands and your weak knees. Make straight paths for your feet, that what is lame may not be disjointed but healed (Hebrews 12:12-13)." Put into practice, then, the works of God's mercy; not because you already have mercy like God does, but because you wish to.

Music Ministry

I'd like to beg your indulgence as I/we continue to learn the fineries of our new sound equipment. Hopefully, you have noticed improvement over what we had been using.

Aso, I would like to extend a quick invitation, especially to those who play drums, guitar or perhaps bass guitar. If you would like to be a part of the music that accompanies and helps to form our prayer at Mass, please contact me at 651-905-4323 or ddunst@stpetersmendota.org. We do have a number of indispensable instrumental volunteers to whom I'm endlessly grateful. Unfortunately, we've only been able to put all the pieces together on very select occasions. I'd love to be able to have all of those components be part of each Mass every week. To do just that, we need more of our musically talented parishioners to place their gifts at the service of the community.

Sincere Sympathy

St. Peter's Parish extends its sympathy to the family and friends of Thomas McMenimen. We invite all to join us in praying that God may make him a sharer in eternal salvation.

Growing Through Loss takes place twice a year. Series run once a week for four weeks in the fall, and four weeks, with a fifth for a remembrance service, in the spring. Each session offers a presentation followed by small groups lead by facilitators. Training is provided.

If you are a good listener and wish to minister to those experiencing grief, this ministry may be for you. If you are interested in sharing your gifts in this wonderful ministry, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org for more information.

St. Peter's Group Trip

The Thrivent Financial Collection of Religious Art in Minneapolis

Join Fr. Steven and Lisa Amos for our trip to The Thrivent Financial Collection of Religious Art in Minneapolis. This collection is unique among corporate art collections, with its focus on original works on paper and religious subject matter.

Begun in 1982, there are now more than 1,100 objects included in the collection, which range chronologically from a miniature illustration for a 13th-century medieval choir book to avant-garde lithographs and linocuts from the late 20th century. Comprised of eight centuries of art reflecting the Western Christian religious tradition, the collection presents an impressive range of exemplars of Western art history, from Albrecht Dürer to Rembrandt van Rijn and Pablo Picasso.

On Wednesday, September 7, we will depart in our coach bus from St. Peter's following the 9 a.m. Mass. We will have guided tours and time to explore. We will enjoy lunch together at Dan Kelly's Pub, just moments away in downtown Minneapolis. Reservations are limited, so reserve your spot now by contacting Lisa Amos at lamos@stpetersmendota.org or 651-905-4304. Cost is $40/person, which includes tour, lunch and bus. The reservation deadline is August 23rd. We look forward to seeing you then!

28 Week Study of Genesis

Join us for this Study of the Book of Genesis on Thursdays at 7 p.m., from September 8 to May 11, 2017 at the Church of St. Joseph, 1154 Seminole Ave., in West St. Paul. The cost is $60. Scholarships are available.

The study guide was authored by Steve Ray, a well-known biblical scholar. The video lectures are delivered by Fr. Matthew Kauth. We will be meeting in the school library, a room that can accommodate a maximum of 20 adults. We will be taking breaks for Christmas, Easter and MEA.

We prefer that you register online at the parish website. Use this link to get to the registration form directly: <https://events.r20.constantcontact.com/register/eventReg?oeidk=a07eczsa5bfc04404a3>.

If you cannot register online, paper forms will be available at the Parish Center and online. Give your completed registration form and check to the parish secretary.

Natural Family Planning Classes

A series of Natural Family Planning (NFP) classes are available in your community or a community near you. This Church-approved method is scientific and marriage building. For a complete list of classes offered throughout the Archdiocese, please call (651)291-4489 or visit www.archspm.org/family.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

Pope Francis asks us to "live this Year in the light of the Lord's words: 'Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.'" (cf. Lk 6:36) Participate throughout the year by making a pilgrimage to a Holy Door at the Cathedral of Saint Paul or Basilica of Saint Mary, regularly receiving the sacrament of Reconciliation, performing corporal and spiritual works of mercy, and participating in the #MercyWorks video challenge. Find additional ways to pray, learn and act at www.archspm.org/Mercy.

Adoration for the Sanctification of Priests

A beautiful prayer ministry opportunity awaits you at St. Mary's Chapel at the St. Paul Seminary, located on the University of St. Thomas Campus, 2115 Summit Ave., St. Paul. Adoration for the Sanctification of Priests is held each Thursday, September through May. Adorers commit to 1 hour shifts. The schedule coincides with the academic calendar for the University of St. Thomas. Two people are needed for each hour, with some hours being filled by three or four adorers. Adoration hours are 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. with a break between 11:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Mass is offered at 11:35 a.m. Please contact St. Peter's parishioner, Teresa Lodoen, at 952-707-0539 for further information or to sign up.

The Catholic Watchmen

To accomplish this task, Catholic Watchmen learn and practice Seven Disciplines.

Monthly Catholic Watchmen Nights start this September. Each Catholic Watchmen Night runs from 6:30-9 p.m. with a video presentation, social time, group discussion with dinner and beverages, as well as time for adoration and confession. Our parish plans to have our first Catholic Watchmen Night on Thursday, September 22, in the sanctuary and Heritage Center.
