Fourth Sunday of AdventDECEMBER 24, 2017

This year the Fourth Sunday of Advent happens to fall on Christmas Eve. Because of this, the liturgical calendar challenges us a little bit. It asks just a little more from us. Some of us will attend Mass twice on December 24th! Does it matter if we only attend one Mass this weekend? The answer is that it matters very much. It matters because of what Advent is, and who Jesus is and who we are; not because of some rule about Mass attendance. That is important but not the whole picture.

Advent is not simply a few weeks leading up to Christmas. In many ways, Advent is a season that stands on its own, just as Christmas is a season that does so. These weeks of expectation and preparation ready us for the very presence of Jesus. We could replace “Santa” with “Jesus” whenever we ask or hear eager questions like “When will [Jesus] be here?”, or whispers of “I think I hear [Him].” An element of expectation comes with the story of Santa Claus that has a nearly irresistible sense of childish delight. And, when he’s finally arrived, all of that built up anticipation—all the anxious hours of waiting, all the uncertainties and anxieties — explode in the delighted shout, “He came!”

To some degree, that’s what the Advent season is all about. Then again, it’s so much more than that. Not only are we waiting for the coming of Christ in a manger in Bethlehem on a night long ago, we also long for him to come to us in our lives today and look forward to His Second Coming. Somehow, we need to recapture that same sense of eager expectation, if we’re going to appreciate what it was like to live on the verge of the New Testament. God poured out some amazing promises on his people throughout the Old Testament: a new king, a new sacrifice, a new spirit, a new heart, a new covenant, a new creation. For centuries, God’s people consistently heard God’s promises, hoping that he had not abandoned them, yet fearing that he had done just that.

For us who live on this side of that first Christmas, it’s sometimes easy to forget all the years of waiting and uncertainty, because we also live on this side of Easter. We are witness to the promises kept, the Word made flesh, and Redeemer Resurrected. Advent reminds us that the waiting was not in vain. God kept his promises. He always does. We can take some time this season to remember God’s faithfulness to his waiting people. Advent calls us to wait faithfully in our own time. Just like God’s people in the Old Testament, we are waiting for the coming of the Messiah. And just like them, we often struggle with the waiting. With carols playing the day after Halloween in stores, and cute shopping day countdowns to “the big day” on Facebook, we are susceptible to a “hurry up” attitude that tempts us to short-change ourselves. Advent reminds us that we are supposed to be waiting. We begin Mass the First Sunday of Advent with this opening prayer, “Keep us alert, we pray, O Lord our God, as we await the advent of Christ your Son, so that, when he comes and knocks, he may find us in watchful prayer and exultant in his praise.” In a distracted world, this is easy to forget. Advent offers respite. Advent helps us remember that we’re waiting for something more important than a new [insert your Christmas list here] on Christmas morning.

By reminding us of the past, Advent calls us to be faithful “waiters” in the present and perhaps, even more importantly, after Christmas. “He is coming! Don’t lose hope! He will come again!” Finally, the Advent season means to draw our eyes toward the future and the final coming of Jesus Christ. As we turn the page from the Old Testament to the New Testament, we pass through a time of anxious waiting, arriving at the birth of the Messiah and the beginning of the time of fulfillment. But, as central as Christmas is to the Christian story, it points toward something more — that time when the Messiah will come in all his glory, establishing his Kingdom and redeeming his people forever — the time when hope becomes reality, when promise becomes present, when not yet becomes now, the time when all of God’s people will join together in one delighted shout, “He came!”

You will read this with just a few very short hours left of the Advent season. I urge you not to waste it or hasten to get to Christmas. Give yourself just a little more time of anticipation. Let yourself feel the uncertainties of those who wait. Allow yourself to long for the one who is still coming. Take some time this season to hope. Let Advent draw your vision toward the future. Just as before, God will be faithful. He has promised. The Messiah is coming. And when he comes, all of God’s promises will be fulfilled. Waiting is not easy, but it’s part of our story. May God bless you. I wish you the most blessed of Advents - still.

FAITHFUL SHEPHERD NEWS

More than 75 Faithful Shepherd students and their families collectively volunteered 30 hours of their time last weekend ringing the bell for the Salvation Army at the Cub Foods in Eagan. An average shift of kettle donations helps the Salvation Army provide a night of shelter and three nutritional meals for a person in need. Thank you to all that participated in this Advent season project!

CHRISTMAS SEASON HISTORIC CHURCH OPEN HOUSE

What would it have been like back in 1853 at the Historic Church on Christmas? One could imagine how cold it must have been coming up the steps from Mendota for Midnight Mass or riding in on horse and buggy. How special it must have been to have had Mass in the newly built church.

Though it is 164 years later and we have heat, electricity and all the comforts of our day, the Historic Church looks as it did when it was first built. The Historic Church decorated for Christmas is quite a sight, especially at night. Stop by our "open house" on Thursday, January 4, anytime between 5 and 7 p.m. to step back in time and imagine how that first Christmas must have been in the Old Church. We will have our volunteer tour guides on hand to answer any questions, a trio of carolers singing Christmas songs and homemade cookies, mulled cider and hot cocoa for treats. We look forward to seeing you!

ALPHA RETURNS TO ST. PETER'S IN FEBRUARY

Alpha is returning to St. Peter's on Monday, February 19. In a recent homily, Deacon Tim asked the question, "Have you met Jesus?" Alpha is a place to meet Jesus and to explore the basics of the Christian faith. It will take place on Mondays, February 19 through May 14, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., in Heritage Center. Alpha consists of a meal, a talk and small group discussion. It is an open, informal and honest space to explore and discuss life's big questions together; it is designed to create and/or deepen a personal relationship with Jesus and create fellowship. One recent participant commented: "Great sharing with fellow participants!" Another said, "I really entered into a relationship with the Holy Spirit." Sign-ups will begin mid-January. Watch for more information in upcoming bulletins. In the meantime, mark your calendars and plan to join us! Space is limited. If you have any questions, please contact Laurie Reding at 612-419-1709 or lreding1@aol.com.

PASTORAL MINISTRY

FOLLOWING JESUS

Our Blessed Mother models how each of us is called to accept God's plan for us, to be obedient to God's will and to conform our will to His. Mary's "Yes" echoes through the darkness of a fallen world and leads us to the peace of the manger.

ROSARY MAKER MINISTRY COMING TO ST. PETER

Thanks to a dedicated parishioner, we are starting a rosary makers group. Members will gather in the Ravoux Room on the first Tuesday of each month from 6:30 to 8 p.m., beginning January 2. The cord rosaries you make will be sent to missions or used for local and national needs.

The core group we join recently sent 400 to shelters in Houston, Texas after the flooding, 500 hundred were sent to Mexico and Fr. Lawrence was able to take 600 back to Uganda after his visit this past fall.

There is great demand, and your help is needed in order for us to keep up. Leaders will teach you how to make the rosaries and supply all materials.

Come and see if this ministry is right for you! For more information, please call Mary Ellen at 651-457-1764.

GROWING THROUGH LOSS

St. Peter's is an active member of a coalition of local churches that presents Growing Through Loss, a program of support and information for persons who are experiencing grief due to the death of a loved one, broken relationship, job loss, loss of health, etc. Small group facilitators are needed for this coming year.

Growing Through Loss Series takes place twice a year. Each series runs once a week for four weeks in the fall; and four weeks, with a fifth for a remembrance service, in the spring. Each session offers a presentation, followed by small groups lead by facilitators. Training is provided. If you are a good listener and wish to minister to those experiencing grief, this ministry may be for you. St. Peter's has always been very well represented, and many parishioners serve as facilitators. If you are interested in learning more or applying for this ministry, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or at lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

CHAPEL OF THE NATIVITY ADORATION CHAPEL

When you look at God in the Blessed Sacrament in the Chapel of the Nativity, what do you see? Do you see Hope? Do you see Mercy? Do you see Love? Do you see Creativity? Do you see your Neighbor? Do you see your Enemy? Do you see your Spouse? Do you see your Family? Do you see your Job, your Home, your Hobbies? Do you see your Gifts, Skills and Talents?

It's all there in Christ! The opportunity to experience the Risen Lord in Adoration is a special gift, a special time to be with the Lord. The next time you visit Jesus, look for the possibilities. Nothing can stump Jesus and nothing will confuse Him. He is there with you, to help you each day, to help make sense out of the senseless. God bless you all!

The chapel is closed for Masses. Christmas hours are now posted outside the chapel. If you will need a substitute for your hour, please refer to our substitute roster to cover your hour in advance.

Please contact Lisa Amos to sign up at 651-905-4304 or at lamos@stpetersmendota.org. We still especially need adorers at the following hours:
