

August 24-August 31, 2014
Twenty-First and Twenty-Second
Sundays in Ordinary Time

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Youth Coordinator

Earlier this summer, I promised a summary of our Workcamp trip for 2014 would come later. Well, it's time . . . On Thursday night July 23rd, it began: a round trip journey of almost 3,000 miles for 21 teenagers and 4 adults from St. Peter's. Workcamp 2014 began slowly, with a 26 hour bus ride. After a day of sightseeing in Boston on Saturday, we headed into Maine on Sunday morning to begin camp.

Workcamp officially began on Sunday afternoon. After checking in, unpacking, and getting familiar with the facility and the staff, campers get to meet their "work crew." Your work crew is a group of 6 or 7 people that you have never met, who come from other churches around the country who are part of the camp. That night after meeting your crew, you receive your project for the week. For many, it is painting. For some, it is building a wheelchair ramp, a deck, roofing work, or some other type of repair.

Monday morning brings a lot of energy and anticipation. After a short morning program, 350 campers poured out of Noble High School (our home for the week) to descend on Southern York County and begin their projects. Unfortunately, a thunderstorm hit about 9:30 a.m. that day, lasting until after 1 p.m., and washed out the workday for many groups working outside.

Our theme for Workcamp 2014 was 'Repair: Be a Story of Transformation.' Each day had its own theme as well. For Monday, it was 'A Boy and His Lunch.' All day we looked at the story of the loaves and fishes, and asked ourselves "what do I have to offer to Jesus that he can multiply and use for others?" Tuesday's theme was 'From Howling to Hearing,' focusing on the story of a man possessed by a legion of demons. (Mark 5:1-20) Tuesday night's program was a powerful experience of examining our lives and trying to focus on hearing God's call and feeling his love in spite of all the noise (the howling) and the negative influences that are around us.

Wednesday brings the mid-point in our week, and the Workcamp tradition is that every group only works about half a day, and youth groups are able to spend the afternoon together having fun in the area. Our group went to York Beach for the afternoon, visiting the Nubble Lighthouse (the most photographed lighthouse in the world), eating some amazing ice cream (if you are ever there, you have to stop at Brown's Ice Cream), doing some shopping on the boardwalk, and swimming in the Atlantic. For dinner, we ate outside, right next to the rocks overlooking the ocean. I only wish we had been recording a video when about 7 of our teens tried to eat lobster in a shell for the first time.

Our theme for Wednesday was 'Grief, Anger and Hope.' Campers were encouraged to honestly confront the anger and grief that is present in their lives, including anger and frustrations they have at times with God. We focused on the story of Lazarus and his being raised from the dead by Jesus, looking at the story from the viewpoint of his sisters Mary and Martha.

Thursday and Friday are when you make the big push. Work crews realize there isn't much time left, and we have to really get moving to finish our projects. Thursday's theme of 'Getting to Jesus At Any Cost' focused on how hard Zacchaeus the tax collector had to work to get to Jesus. We were encouraged to examine our lives and recognize what roadblocks there are in our relationship with Jesus, and ask ourselves how hard we are willing to work to get around them so we can reach him. Friday's theme of 'Putting Faith Before Fear' wrapped up the week perfectly, pushing all of us to build on our relationship with Jesus, so that knowing his love will help remove the fear from our lives.

It rained some more on Thursday and Friday afternoon, so there were a number of crews who unfortunately weren't able to finish their projects (the co-sponsor will send volunteer crews out to each site to finish them after we've left). However every crew (there were 56 crews in all) at least got close to finishing. Friday night's program is a wonderful celebration of the week, when residents are invited to join us for prayer, worship, song, and even dancing. Crews say goodbye to each other, and tears are shed.

Saturday morning we piled back on the bus for our 26 hour return home. There was a little less energy this time, but more so than on the way out we were a family. 25 people, who along with over 300 others, put God first for a week, and had an amazing experience serving others and sharing their faith.

I am happy and proud to announce that Workcamp 2015 we will be traveling to Hastings, Michigan from July 17-27, 2015. Registration will begin at the end of September.

St. Peter's Fall Festival
Sunday, October 5,
11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Mass

There will only be one Mass on Sunday, October 5, at 10 a.m. Join us for Mass at 10:00 and then following Mass spend some time enjoying the Fall Festival!

Volunteers Needed

We are looking for volunteers to help with the Fall Festival; there are sign-up sheets available in the Gathering Space. This is a great opportunity for families to serve together. We are also looking for middle and high school age volunteers. Please consider donating a few hours to help make this year's Fall Festival a huge success!

Silent Auction

If you are interested in donating something new, tickets to sporting events, gift certificates, a theme basket or a service for the Silent Auction, please drop off at the parish office.

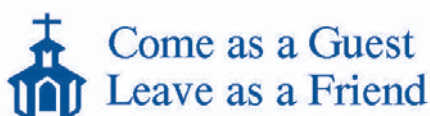

Raffle

This will be our main fundraiser for the year and will benefit the parish operations. There are still plenty of raffle tickets available to pick up in our Gathering Space and in the office. Ticket stubs and payment may be dropped off in the office or the Sunday collection basket.

Fr. Joseph Kavuma Ordination

St. Peter's congratulates Fr. Joseph M. Kavuma on his ordination into the priesthood! Fr. Kavuma was ordained in the Kampala Archdiocese of Uganda on August 9, 2014. Fr. Kavuma has kindly forwarded his contact information. He enjoyed his time with us in the summer of 2013 and has stayed in close touch with many here. Please feel free to offer him your well wishes and congratulations and keep him in your prayers.

Pastoral Ministry

Becoming Catholic (RCIA)

If you or someone you know has been thinking about becoming Catholic, you are invited to contact us to learn more about the process and have your questions answered. For more information or to schedule a private inquiry meeting to discuss your own faith development, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or email lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Sincere Sympathy

St. Peter's Parish extends its sympathy to the family and friends of Lloyd Cizek. We invite all to join us in praying that God may make him a sharer in eternal salvation.

Ministry Schedules

The liturgical ministry schedules are available for pick-up on the information counter in the Gathering Space. If you are unable to fill your scheduled time, please find a replacement from the list of volunteers.

We are in great need of ushers and altar servers at the 5 p.m. and 11 a.m. Masses. There is a minimal commitment of one hour—one or two times a month—and training will be provided. Ladies are also more than welcome to serve as ushers, this is not for men only! Please consider helping out in either of these ministries.

Ministry Fair

We will be holding our annual Ministry Fair on September 27/28. This is a great opportunity to see all of St. Peter's ministries in one area. Start thinking now on how you would like to become involved with St. Peter's. If you are the head of any one of our many ministries, you will be contacted soon about your table.

At the end of September we will also be mailing out our stewardship materials. This will be the time to make your Time, Talent and Treasure commitment to the parish.

Free Tours of the Historic Church

Have you ever wanted to hear more about the history of our parish? Our Historic Church will be open for FREE tours every Sunday from noon to 2 p.m. through Labor Day. Feel free to stop in and learn about your community's very own historic site!

Women's Bible Study

The Women's Bible Study will be doing a 10-week study called Entertaining Angels this fall and then a 15-week study called Angels Throughout the Ages in January. You can sign up for either one or both. We meet Tuesday mornings from 9:45-11:30. We'd love to have you join us! Feel free to Jennifer Vogel at 651-688-7427 or jennifervogel@comcast.net for more information or drop-in on a Tuesday to see what we are about.

About the Bulletin.....

This bulletin will cover the weekends of August 24 and August 31. Beginning September 7 we will be back to our regular weekly schedule.

All articles are due on Fridays, one full week before publication. If you have any questions, please call Darlene at 651-905-4302 or dolson@stpetersmendota.org.

Hearing and Vision Aids Available for Mass

If you find it hard to hear at Mass or your ability to participate is inhibited by difficulty reading the hymnal or worship aids, we can help with that. Please see one of our friendly ushers and let them know of your need. We have hearing devices and magnifiers available for you to use while you're here. Thank you.

New Prayer Chain Coordinator

Thank you, Mary LeClair, for volunteering to coordinate our prayer chain ministry! If you or your loved ones would like to request that our chain members pray for a special intention, or you are interested in joining this ministry, please email Mary at maryleclair62@gmail.com or call 651-452-4550.
