OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

From the Pastor's Desk

Now that the events surrounding the 28th World Youth Day in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil have ended, we can spend – oh – a couple of months analyzing them. How shall I begin? First I will say that I had assumed the media would ignore a religious event even of such a massive scale. I was pleasantly surprised that the coverage was as extensive and as positive as it was. Some people reading or watching may actually have received the authentic message Pope Francis wished to send!

As I sat with a group of priests in a hotel room in Wisconsin Dells around July 24, the Pope traveled by car through the streets of Rio de Janeiro. We priests sat staring at the television images of a chaotic scene. Those poor security officials! The car came to a halt because of traffic, and tremendous crowds surrounded the car and reached in through the open windows. Apparently the Pope was perfectly content with all of this, but it sure made me worry about his safety. The crowds, of course, were delighted. No special credentials were necessary for them to have a surprise encounter with the Pope – and that was important to them, we can assume, not because he is some kind of celebrity, but because he is the Vicar of Christ.

I have learned that a very important change had to be made because of heavy rains in the days preceding World Youth Day. You might recall that last time I wrote that people would travel to a site in a far part of the city that was being called the Campus Fidei (the “Field of Faith”), arriving for a prayer vigil with the Holy Father. They would stay there overnight until World Youth Day itself (Sunday, July 28), and Pope Francis would celebrate Mass there. Well, the rain brought crocodiles into the field that had been prepared, and because no one wanted crocodiles to be among those attending the Mass, the location was moved to Copacabana Beach. That location made it easier for city dwellers to attend, and so 2.3 million people worshiped God at the Mass celebrated by the Holy Father. What an assembly of humanity!

On the flight home, Pope Francis answered a question that has brought joy to many who oppose Church teaching on homosexuality. I think it is important for me to offer you the context of his response, which our nation's newspapers seem not to have had room to print. Msgr. Battista Ricca, who was director of the Domus Sanctae Marthae (the Vatican residence in which Pope Francis has chosen to live) and whom the Pope recently appointed to head the Institute for Works of Religion (commonly called the Vatican Bank), has been accused in the Italian press of having had a sexually immoral chapter in his life. A reporter on the flight from Brazil to Italy asked the Holy Father about the priest and about the wider issue of a “gay lobby” within the Vatican. Pope Francis responded in the words that have been selectively quoted. He was speaking about his decision to allow a repentant priest with a sinful past to continue on in his job. He said:

I think that when we encounter a gay person, we must make the distinction between the fact of a person being gay and the fact of a lobby, because lobbies are not good. They are bad. If a person is gay and seeks the Lord and has good will, who am I to judge that person? The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains this point beautifully but says, wait a moment, how does it say, it says, these persons must never be marginalized and “they must be integrated into society.” The problem is not that one has this tendency; no, we must be brothers, this is the first matter. There is another problem, another one: the problem is to form a lobby of those who have this tendency, a lobby of the greedy people, a lobby of politicians, a lobby of Masons, so many lobbies. This is the most serious problem for me.

I suspect we will be hearing more about this.

I would like to reprint the beginning of the wonderful talk Pope Francis gave to the bishops of Brazil. I hope to print more of it next time. He referred to the story of the dejected disciples who after Jesus is crucified leave Jerusalem and encounter the Risen Lord on the road to Emmaus:

Here we have to face the difficult mystery of those people who leave the Church, who, under the illusion of alternative ideas, now think that the Church – their Jerusalem – can no longer offer them anything meaningful and important. So they set off on the road alone, with their disappointment. Perhaps the Church appeared too weak, perhaps too distant from their needs, perhaps too poor to respond to their concerns, perhaps too cold, perhaps too caught up with itself, perhaps a prisoner of its own rigid formulas, perhaps the world seems to have made the Church a relic of the past, unfit for new questions; perhaps the Church could speak to people in their infancy but not to those come of age. It is a fact that nowadays there are many people like the two disciples of Emmaus; not only those looking for answers in the new religious groups that are sprouting up, but also those who already seem godless, both in theory and in practice.

Faced with this situation, what are we to do? We need a Church unafraid of going forth into their night. We need a Church capable of meeting them on their way. We need a Church capable of entering into their conversation. We need a Church able to dialogue with those disciples who, having left Jerusalem behind, are wandering aimlessly, alone, with their own disappointment, disillusioned by a Christianity now considered barren, fruitless soil, incapable of generating meaning.

~Fr. Joseph Gallatin

Celebrating the Assumption on August 15

On the Church's calendar, every day has a rank: weekday, optional memorial, obligatory memorial, feast, or solemnity. Some of the solemnities are so important that the faithful have an obligation to observe them as they would observe a Sunday. There are five holy days of obligation on the calendar in our Archdiocese: the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary (December 8), Christmas (December 25), Mary, Mother of God (January 1), the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (August 15), and All Saints (November 1).

Two of those days, December 8 (because it is our national feast day in the United States) and December 25 are holy days of obligation every year. On the other three solemnities, there is no obligation to come to Mass if the day falls on a Saturday or a Monday. Thursday, August 15, is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary and a holy day of obligation. The Vigil Mass will be at 5:00 PM in the Main Church on Wednesday, August 14, the eve of the feast day. Masses on Thursday, August 15, will be at 9:00 AM in the Main Church and at 7:00 PM in the Historic Church.

Eucharistic Adoration

Parishioners and friends are welcome for private prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in the Historic Church on Tuesdays after the 9 a.m. Mass

Promote Your Business!

Would you like to have your product seen by a large number of parishioners and visitors? The Fall Festival Committee is looking for vendors to advertise and sell their merchandise at our event on Sunday, October 6. Your name and business will also be included in a bulletin flyer in mid-September. The cost of a space is $15 for parishioners, $25 for non-parishioners. If you are interested, please contact Sara Rogers at 651-905-4308 or srogers@stpetersmendota.org.

Uganda Mission Thank You

Dear Fr. Gallatin and the Parishioners of St. Peters,

I write to you today with immense gratitude. I have been given the results of the latest fundraiser for the children of Uganda. As I reflect back on all that we have been able to do over these last six years for the children, I am overwhelmed. I hope you know what your generosity has meant to these children. As a child, I had the benefit of kind sponsors who provided me with an education. It has made all the difference in my life. And that is what you are doing for each of these children...providing them with a chance to have a better life and to give them the opportunity to help others because of the education you have helped them obtain.

There are no words but I thank you on behalf of the children from my heart. With your kind and generous donations, you are playing a part in forwarding God's plan. It is truly wonderful and I thank you again!

God Bless you all, and know that I hold you all in prayer!

With Sincere Gratitude,
Fr. Lawrence K. Kimbowa

Dear Parishioners,

The members of the Ugandan Mission Team of St. Peter's want to express our sincere gratitude to you for your support and generosity during our recent efforts at the pig roast on July 21. The donations of silent auction and raffle items, along with the strong bidding, as well as the free will donations for the meal resulted in our raising over $11,000 for the educational needs of young children in Uganda. As with all funds and donations we receive, 100% goes directly to the schools, therefore, these funds alone will support at least 30 students for this calendar year. Our thanks also go to the many individuals who helped the team with this effort, including members of the Council of Catholic Women, the Men's Club, the staff and family members of the team. To our pastor Fr. Gallatin and our Deacon Joseph Kavuma, we are sincerely grateful.

Our Annual Fall Festival is Coming Soon!

Our Fall Festival will be on Sunday, October 6, this year! It takes a lot of work, and we need people to give their time and talent to help make it a success. You can sign up for a variety of opportunities, such as running games for kids, selling food or tickets, as well as many other options. This is a great chance to help out your parish while having fun and meeting new friends! To sign up online, go to our parish website and under the Community menu, choose "Fall Festival" and follow the link there. Otherwise, contact Sara Rogers at 651-905-4308 or srogers@stpetersmendota.org.

We are also interested in donations of prizes (such as candy, small stuffed animals, or money to buy prizes) for various games at the festival, as well as bottles of any non-alcoholic drinks, such as pop, juice, or water. If you are able to help us out with these items, please drop them off at the parish office. Thank you for your generosity!

St. Peter's Library

St. Peter's is in the process of bringing back a church library in what is currently Conference Room II. Many of the books that we carried in our former library are either out of date or have been donated. We are in the need of some new or gently used books, articles, videos or magazines that are appropriate for a Catholic Church library. If you have any books that you would be willing to donate, bring them to the church office. Please note that all resources will be reviewed for appropriateness prior to being placed on our shelves. If you are interested in assisting with the library project, contact either Sara Rogers or Mary Jubenville in the parish office at 651-452-4550.

St. Peter's Reaches Out

School is just around the corner! School supplies are on sale! Please consider buying extras for children of families who can't purchase them. We will donate them to MORE's Multicultural School for Empowerment as we have done in the past. Students need pencils, pens, magic markers, notebooks, lined paper, crayons, rulers, etc. Your contributions are well-received by the staff at MORE. Boxes for the school supplies are located in the Main Church coat room or the office entrance. Deadline for bringing in supplies will be Sunday, September 8.

Neighbors Thank You

Our sincere thank you for the generous donation of 87 pounds of food you made to us during June.

Thanks neighbor!

Many of your neighbors will benefit from these gifts from your heart.

Sincerely,
