Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Deacon

My youngest granddaughter celebrates her first birthday on August 20. A year ago on that date, I was at New Melleray Abbey in Iowa for my pre-ordination retreat. I left home feeling pretty good about the fact that my daughter was due to have her first child any day. Anne had things well in hand, so I left for Iowa with a sense of peace.

I arrived on a beautiful Sunday afternoon. I settled in for what would be my last official retreat before ordination. I had a déjà-vu experience that first evening, as I entered the dark monastery chapel after sunset. I reflected back to my first retreat at this abbey several years earlier. I was a new seminarian, and my head was filled that day with more than it could hold. I quickly realized how much I didn't know, and how difficult it would be to learn all that I needed to know, if I was to be ordained.

I sat there in the silence of that chapel and remembered how I felt four years earlier. I asked myself at that time what I was doing in this place. Did I really think I could be ordained a deacon? I smiled as the thoughts came rushing back to me. I asked some of those same questions again, in the darkness of the stone chapel.

I arose early on Monday morning. I could not get a cell phone signal inside the monastery, so I found myself in the parking lot with several other men, who were also trying to call home. I reached Anne, and the news was frightening. She told me that something might be wrong with the baby, and she was heading to the hospital with our daughter. On my way back into the building, I ran into our formation director. He had just received a voicemail saying that his wife was ill.

Our retreat master chose a reading from Luke, Chapter 12 to start our retreat meditation. It begins with Jesus saying these words to his disciples:

"Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the Kingdom."

Later that day, I learned that our formation director had to return home, because his wife was hospitalized. I later found out that his wife had cancer. I pondered this gospel message, as I asked God to take care of my daughter, the baby, my friend and his wife. I pondered what these words meant for a man who was months from ordination and still wondering if this plan of God's would be fulfilled in me.

I prayed as I poured over these words and reflected on fear in my life. I wrote the word "fear" down the side of my journal and made an acronym:

Faith
Extinguished
As a
Result

God was calling me to something new, and I was afraid. I was 300 miles from home, and I wasn't sure if my grandchild would be born healthy and well. Our retreat master reminded us that God has given us the Kingdom! We are children of the King, and God has promised so much to us, so we need not fear. Fear works against our faith. It paralyzes us and opens the door to all kinds of irrational thoughts and ideas. Fear is one of Satan's favorite weapons. I wanted to trust that God was in control, because I sure wasn't.

So what happens when we cast off fear and turn our hearts, minds and lives over to God in total surrender and trust? The answer is that we begin to live the Kingdom right here on earth! Fear is diminished when we realize that we must rely totally on our loving Father for everything that we have. Faith is a powerful gift. In St. Paul's letter to the Hebrews, faith is defined as the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen. My faith was tested, but, as usual, God had a lesson in mind.

On August 20, 2015, Emerson Rose was born healthy and well.

On December 5, 2015, I prostrated myself on the floor of the Cathedral and promised obedience to the Archbishop, as I was ordained a deacon.

On December 6, 2015, I baptized Emerson Rose as one of my first official acts as a newly ordained deacon.

As for my formation director, his wife is now cancer-free one year after her diagnosis. Praise God!

God is with us through the storms and the sunshine. So fear not, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the Kingdom! Let's live as children of the King, trusting God in our every need.

May God's Kingdom reign in our hearts,
Deacon Tim

New Preschool Program at Faithful Shepherd

Sign up now for Fall 2016!

We are excited to announce a new partnership with Lake Area Discovery Center to bring a NAEYC-accredited, Parent Aware preschool program (ages 3-5 years old) to Faithful Shepherd Catholic School, beginning in the Fall of 2016! Registration is now open.

Faithful Shepherd Catholic School Discovery Center is designed to meet children's individual needs and learning styles. We believe parents are the first and most important teachers, and we encourage parents to experience the center with their child. Faith is an important component of our curriculum. Lessons built on our Catholic faith are written into our curriculum and children participate in singing and worship.

For more information about the preschool program at Faithful Shepherd, visit www.fscsmn.org/discovery-center-preschool/.

ST. PETER'S COMMUNITY NEWS

Free Tours of the Historic Church

Have you ever wanted to hear more about the history of our parish? The Historic Church will be open for tours every Sunday from 12 noon to 2 p.m. now through Labor Day. You do not need a reservation and there is no fee for the tours. Feel free to stop in and learn about your community's very own historic site!

Eucharistic Adoration Coordinator Opening

After six years of generous service coordinating our Eucharistic Adoration with grace, dedication and love, George and Jane Vasiliou will be moving on to the next place God is leading them to share their many gifts. Although we are sad to see them leave this ministry, we are excited for whatever they will be applying themselves to in the future. Thank you George and Jane, for your time, your prayers and your commitment.

This also opens the door for whoever God is calling to this ministry now. The Vasiliou's will work with whomever comes forward. If you have a devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, organizational talents and a willingness to work with Fr. Steven and Lisa Amos in bringing the gift of Eucharistic Adoration to as many as possible here at St. Peter's, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org. Co-coordinators or teams are also welcome.

St. Peter's Fall Festival Sunday, October 2

There is a flyer in today's bulletin regarding sponsorship for the Fall Festival. We would greatly appreciate any type of donation, whether it be items for the silent auction and the country store, pies for the pork dinner, prayers or a monetary donation to help make this Fall Festival successful. Thank you in advance from the Fall Festival Committee for helping to make this the most successful and fun Fall Festival yet!

PASTORAL MINISTRY

Growing Through Loss

Grief Ministry Opportunities

St. Peter's is part of a coalition of local churches that presents Growing Through Loss, a program of support and information for persons who are experiencing grief. Small group facilitators are needed for this coming year. Training is provided.

If you are a good listener and wish to minister to those experiencing grief, this ministry may be for you. If you are interested in sharing your gifts in this wonderful ministry, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or amos@stpetersmendota.org for more information.

The Gift of Being Grand

The Gift of Being Grandparents

This program takes place at Mary, Mother of the Church, in Burnsville, on Saturday, August 27, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. with Anticipatory Mass at 4 p.m.

Learn about God's plan for grandparents and be equipped to pass on a Heritage of Faith. The conference will include presentations with Bishop Andrew Cozzens, Jeff Cavins, Judy Cozzens, Katherine Kersten and so much more.

The cost is $30 per person and $55 per couple. Register online or send in a registration form. Find all the details at www.CatholicGrandparenting.org. Questions? Contact Susanna Bolle at bolles@archspm.org or 651-291-4411.

St. Peter's Group Trip

The Thrivent Financial Collection of Religious Art in Minneapolis

Join Fr. Steven and Lisa Amos for our trip to The Thrivent Financial Collection of Religious Art in Minneapolis. This collection is unique among corporate art collections, with its focus on original works on paper and religious subject matter.

Begun in 1982, there are now more than 1,100 objects included in the collection, which range chronologically from a miniature illustration for a 13th-century medieval choir book to avant-garde lithographs and linocuts from the late 20th century. Comprised of eight centuries of art reflecting the Western Christian religious tradition, the collection presents an impressive range of exemplars of Western art history, from Albrecht Dürer to Rembrandt van Rijn and Pablo Picasso.

On Wednesday, September 7, we will depart in our coach bus from St. Peter's following the 9 a.m. Mass. We will have guided tours and time to explore. We will enjoy lunch together at Dan Kelly's Pub, just moments away in downtown Minneapolis.

Reservations are limited, so reserve your spot now by contacting Lisa Amos at amos@stpetersmendota.org or 651-905-4304. Cost is $40/person, which includes tour, lunch and bus. The reservation deadline is August 23rd. I look forward to seeing you then!

The Catholic Watchmen

Catholic Watchmen Night

The Catholic Watchmen is coming soon to our parish! The mission of the Catholic Watchmen is to respond to Bishop Cozzen's call for Catholic men to live up to their duty to be protectors, providers and leaders of their families. To accomplish this task, Catholic Watchmen learn and practice Seven Disciplines. Watch for more information to attend Monthly Catholic Watchmen Nights starting in September. Each Catholic Watchmen Night runs from 6:30-9:00 p.m. with a video presentation, social time and group discussion. We plan to provide food and beverage, as well as time for adoration and confession. Watch for more information over the summer! If you would like to be part of the parish vanguard or Core Team planning group, please contact the Catholic Watchmen Point Man at your parish, Jim Lodoen at 612-201-2910. To learn more about this initiative go to www.thecatholicwatchmen.com.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

Pope Francis asks us to "live this Year in the light of the Lord's words: 'Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.'" (cf. Lk 6:36) Participate throughout the year by making a pilgrimage to a Holy Door at the Cathedral of Saint Paul or Basilica of Saint Mary, regularly receiving the sacrament of Reconciliation, performing corporal and spiritual works of mercy, and participating in the #MercyWorks video challenge. Find additional ways to pray, learn and act at www.archspm.org/Mercy.

Adoration for the Sanctification of Priests

A beautiful prayer ministry opportunity awaits you at St. Mary's Chapel at the St. Paul Seminary, located on the University of St. Thomas Campus, 2115 Summit Ave., St. Paul. Adoration for the Sanctification of Priests is held each Thursday, September through May. Adorers commit to 1 hour shifts. The schedule coincides with the academic calendar for the University of St. Thomas. Two people are needed for each hour, with some hours being filled by three or four adorers. Adoration hours are 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. with a break between 11:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Mass is offered at 11:35 a.m. Please contact St. Peter's parishioner, Teresa Lodoen, at 952-707-0539 for further information or to sign up.
