in Ordinary Time

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Director of Music/Liturgy

As I mentioned in the last bulletin, there are some simple philosophies that I try to stick to in guiding our music ministry. This time, I'll share some of those, and some of my motivations.

To begin with, I'll acknowledge the "elephant in the room" in liturgical music—there is no pleasing everyone, all the time. The fact is that music, like all art, is only subjectively appreciated. That is to say, "beauty is in the eye of the beholder."

This has manifested itself in very distinct ways since the Second Vatican Council sought to enable worshippers to enter fully, actively, and consciously into the Mass. Boiled down, there are two extremes to which people gravitate: music should cling to the old, and conversely music should forsake the old in favor of forms that reflect the Church community of today.

Neither of these camps were too pleased with the most recent document guiding music in the dioceses of the United States. "Sing to the Lord—Music in Divine Worship" (STTL), published by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in 2007, did little to resolve the tensions that exist within the church music community and among churchgoers. For clarification, the document does not carry the weight of Church authority, but draws extensively from the most important documents that do. Therefore, I would argue guidance was the intent of the document, not directive.

Of course, this is where the discussion gets spicy. The crux of the conflict is this: Gregorian Chant is very important, but its use is subject also to the ritual, spiritual, and pastoral needs of the community. Whereas contemporary tunes and settings were developed specifically for congregational participation, chant existed before the Vatican Council's call for full, conscious and active participation was made explicit in Sacrosanctum Concilium (SC), the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy.

In the words of that same Constitution, paragraph 116, "Other things being equal, [chant] should be given pride of place in liturgical services." The problem is that in the wake of the Council (Vatican II), very few of the "other things" were equal. For example, other places in that document and in "Sing to the Lord," the Church affirms her support of new expressions and their necessity. The Church had already begun to put into use new, easily sung songs in English, and the Latin chants were quickly out of vogue.

I once heard a pastor say, "Virtus in medio stat", which means "virtue stands in the middle." I take pains to make this a hallmark of my spiritual life, my theological understanding and my philosophy of ministry.

Therefore, rather than siding with one musical camp or the other, I attempt to include selections from many styles, eras, and instruments each week. I attempt, on balance, to include the organ, piano, and guitar every week because they represent the widest cross-section of the Church's strongest instrumental accompaniment.

As an aside, the human voice is the principal instrument of liturgical worship. This means that the most important musical element is the singing of the faithful, no matter the accompaniment or lack thereof. (STTL, para. 86)

On the other hand, I also attempt to include a traditional hymn or two, something from what I would refer to as the "contemporary" repertoire, as well as what I would call a "modern" song. These are not accurately named categories, but generally, when people speak of "contemporary" music, they're making a stylistic distinction, not a temporal one.

I, as a music director, and we, as a community, have room to grow in terms of keeping chant a part of our sung vocabulary. This is something I believe is important and I enjoy it as a form of sacred music. Still, while the treasure of chant is on my mind, finding the best way to incorporate it in a way that is authentic, effective, and relevant in our culture is elusive.

At any rate, I feel greatly blessed to be able to serve you each week, and look forward to amplifying the ways we already sing together in ways that speak to who we are and what we are celebrating. As we continue to grow and deepen spiritually, the Holy Spirit will open in our midst willing hearts to serve in the choir, as cantors, as instrumentalists, as well as avenues of song and sung prayer that lead us together, as a family, closer to the heart of our God and Father with Jesus our Savior, Brother, Shepherd and King.

Finally, I want to share the happy news of the birth of our son, Alexander Joseph Dunst, on July 22. Many thanks to all those who were praying for us in the days surrounding his birth.

Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

This year, August 15, the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, falls on a Saturday. Under normal circumstances this celebration would carry the obligation to attend Mass. In this case, however, the obligation is “abrogated” or temporarily set aside. Nonetheless, we will celebrate this elevated feast with a 9 a.m. Mass on Saturday, August 15, in the Historic Church.

Natural and Human Ecology: A Panel Discussion on Laudato Si'

The encyclical Laudato Si', On care for our common home, was released earlier this summer, June 18, and continues to be a hot topic of discussion for Catholics and non-Catholics alike.

Through Laudato Si', Pope Francis is speaking as a pastor to Catholics around the world, and all people of good will, offering moral considerations rooted in foundational Catholic teachings about care for others and care for God's creation.

What are the moral considerations? What do they look like applied to daily life? How might they change how we consider Creation, both human and natural? What sort of good could they foster in our communities?

Join the Catholic bishops of Minnesota, along with Minnesota Catholic Conference and Catholic Rural Life, to delve into some of the encyclical's themes and consider ways in which Minnesota Catholics can put them into practice within our families, parishes, and broader communities.

Adoration and Rosary for our Archdiocese

As we wait with hope for the assignment of a new archbishop for our archdiocese, coming together as a community to pray is increasingly important. On Saturday, August 15, we invite you to join us from 6:30-7:30 p.m. in the Main Church. We will have an hour of Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, which will begin with the rosary. We will pray together for healing for all of those who have been hurt in any way by the events of the recent past and pray for the future of our local church, its current leadership, and its eventual new archbishop. Contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org with questions.

Anointing of the Sick on First Fridays

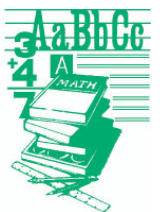

Beginning in September, the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be available immediately following Mass on the first Friday of every month. If you or a loved one is in need of the sacrament, please join us. If you have questions about whether the sacrament is appropriate for your circumstances, please see below or contact either Fr. Steven or Lisa Amos at 651-452-4550.

Who should be anointed? The Church teaches that the sick person will be saved by their personal faith in Christ and the faith of the Church, which looks back to the death and resurrection of Jesus, the source of the sacrament's power, and looks ahead to the future kingdom that is pledged in the sacraments. Great care and concern should be taken to see that those whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age receive this sacrament. A sick person may be anointed before surgery whenever a serious illness is the reason for the surgery. Elderly people may also be anointed if they have become notably weakened, even though no serious illness is present.

School is Just Around the Corner!

School supplies are on sale! Please consider buying extras for children of families who can't purchase them. We will donate them to MORE's Multicultural School for Empowerment as we have done in the past. Students need pencils, pens, magic markers, notebooks, lined paper, crayons, rulers, etc.

A complete list of items needed are posted on the collection boxes. Your contributions are well-received by the staff at MORE. Boxes for the school supplies are located in the Main Church coat room or the office entrance. Deadline for bringing in supplies will be Sunday, September 6.

Thank you for your support!
