Reflections from our Pastor

My dear Friends,

In a beautiful Advent homily St. Bernard, a 12th century Cistercian monk, speaks of three comings of Christ. Normally in Advent we speak of two: Christ's first coming by his birth through Mary, and the second final coming at the end of time. But St. Bernard mentions a third coming that lies in between the personal coming of Jesus into each one of our lives. Our Lord referred to this when He said: "If anyone keeps my word, the Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our abode with him." So, while Advent is a time of hope-filled waiting, it is also a time to appreciate more deeply what Christ's intimate and personal presence means for us now.

Here's where Mary plays a very important role in our life, the great Apostle of Advent, for she more than anyone else, teaches us how to live this time of "in between." Using our Christian memory, we go back over two thousand years, recalling that in the few weeks leading up to Christmas this young woman, probably no more than 14 years old is walking the streets of Nazareth, and growing quietly within her, in the silence of her simple, ordinary life, is the little Christ child. While all that Mary did each day was forming the body of Christ within her, Christ was growing within her in another way: in the growth of her likeness to him. As Christ was taking on her physical likeness and traits, she, through the total offering of herself to him in faith and love, was taking on more and more His spiritual likeness.

And because of her consent to this transformation, even before his birth, Christ was able to walk the streets of Nazareth through Mary, radiating his presence and life in her attitudes, her virtues, her loving service to Joseph and others. Jesus could use her eyes, which she offered to him, to gaze with compassion on the world He came to save; He could use her voice to speak words of comfort and hope to her neighbors; He could use her hands to reach out and touch the untouchables she encountered in the streets and market place.

As we await the second coming of Christ, our life now is about this intimate, ongoing growth of Christ within us, so that his presence and life may radiate through us and give hope to those who do not yet have this hope. Our growing into the likeness of Christ is God's work in us, until, as St. Paul says, it is brought to completion. This process of daily growth helps us understand the presence in Advent of John the Baptist and his message of repentance. Growth in Christ will always entail the ongoing confession and removal of sin, the willingness to change, to be converted.

Though the message of repentance is unpopular, feared and rejected by the proud and worldly minded, it is a message full of hope and promise for those who welcome it. Repentance means that, with God, there is always the possibility of becoming more today than I was yesterday, that God will never give up on me, even though I may want to give up on myself. God does not only see what I am now, but sees what I will become by His grace. Because Christ is with us now as our Merciful Savior, our life can know new beginnings and fresh starts.

At every Mass we imitate Mary, surrendering and offering ourselves completely to God, so that as we receive the bread and wine, changed into the body and blood of Christ, we too might be changed more into the likeness of Christ, who is our hope and the only true hope of the world.

I want to end with a beautiful example of the importance of this transformation in Christ from Madeliene Delbrel, a French lay woman of the 20th century, taken from her work, "We the Ordinary People of the Street":

"Lord, let the thick skin that covers me not be a hindrance to you. Pass through it. My eyes, my hands, my mouth are Yours. This sad lady in front of me: here is my mouth for You to smile at her. This child so pale he's almost gray: here are my eyes for You to gaze at him. This man so tired, so weary: here is my body so that You may give him my seat, and here is my voice so that You may say softly to him, "please sit down." This smug young man, so dull, so hard: here is my heart, that You may love him more strongly than he has ever been loved before."

May God, who has begun such a mighty, wonderful work in us, bring it to completion, making us ready for the day of Christ's return in Glory.

God love you,

Fr. Steven

Advent Speaker Series

During Advent, we look to Mary as our model of faith and trust in God's plan for His beloved people. St. Peter's welcomes acclaimed speaker and author, Elizabeth Kelly, who will join Fr. Steven to present a series of talks focused on how the mysteries of Advent touch our lives for the purpose of awakening, fostering, and strengthening our hope. All are welcome. Light refreshments will be available following each evening's talk. For further information, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org. Our series continues on Wednesdays, December 9 and 16, 6:30-7:30 p.m., Heritage Center.

December 9: Be it Done Unto Me: What Mary and the Annunciation Teach us about a Receptive Heart.

Cultivating a heart that is willing and ready to receive the graces of heaven can be a difficult task. Do you find yourself too focused on giving gifts and forget to receive them sometimes? The Annunciation is one of heaven's perfect examples of receptivity. Tonight we will enter into that sacred moment that changed all of human history and ask the Blessed Mother to show us how to become more receptive to Jesus.

December 16: Mary, Model of Hope.

Fr. Steven explores how, with prayer, in hope, and with Mary as our model of faith, we can draw ever closer to God through Jesus Christ in special ways this season.

Gently Used Jackets Needed

Winter is coming and many of us are shopping for new warm outerwear. We can help you make room in your closet. There is a collection box for gently used jackets, hats, and mittens in the coat room. Collected items will be delivered to the Listening House, a sanctuary from the streets in St. Paul, where practical assistance, counsel and a friendly ear are offered to people who are homeless, disadvantaged or lonely.

Holy Hour and Rosary for Our Archdiocese

Sunday, December 13, 1-2 p.m., Main Church

As we wait with hope for the assignment of a new archbishop for our archdiocese, coming together as a community to pray is increasingly important.

Please join others for an hour of Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, which will begin with the rosary. We will pray together for healing for all of those who have been hurt in any way by the events of the recent past and to pray for the future of our local church, its current leadership, and its eventual new archbishop.

FORWARD IN PRAISE OF GOD'S GOODNESS

Vol. 9

December 5-6, 2015

OVER $1,241,000 FROM 267 FAMILIES!!
OUR GOAL IS $1.5 MILLION
HAVE YOU MADE YOUR PLEDGE YET?!

How Can I Make My Pledge To The Campaign?

We are asking each parishioner to consider making a gift of or $75 a month over a period of three years. This amounts to a little over $3 a day. We realize that not everyone can make the same size gift, but everyone can make the same size sacrifice. Pledges and gifts in all amounts are gratefully accepted. Together we can continue the best and reach our goal.

- You may fill out a blank pledge card in the pew and place it in the offertory basket.
- If you happen to be driving or walking by the church you can drop off your pledge card in the parish office.
- A volunteer may contact you with additional information regarding the campaign or you can leave your pledge card with a campaign volunteer located in the main entrance of the church.
- If you take a pledge card home you may also mail your pledge card to the parish office using the envelope provided.
- You may also call the parish office at (651) 452-4550 with any additional questions regarding the campaign.

$3,000	$300	$900	$225	$75

Thank you to the parishioners listed on this sheet who have made their pledge of sacrifice to our Capital Campaign. Our campaign is making progress; however we can only meet our goal through the participation of the entire parish. This listing is up to date as of Monday, November 30, at 11:00 a.m.

We also extend our gratitude to all parishioners who have made sacrifices throughout the history of our parish, including the contributors of our previous capital campaigns.

THANK YOU!

"My life is tied to the liturgy and the Eucharist," says Precious Blood Sister Ann Hipp, 95, who entered religious life in 1937. "It's part of who we are as a community." As a teacher for 50 years, she shared this love of the Eucharist with her students. At age 70, Sister Ann traded in her chalk for a sewing needle and today still helps craft altar cloths and vestments.

Retirement Fund for Religious

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

www.retiredreligious.org

Like Sister Ann, tens of thousands of senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have dedicated their lives to sharing their faith. Generations of Catholics recall with gratitude their work in Catholic schools, hospitals, and social service agencies. Yet years of ministering for little or no pay came at a price, and now their religious communities lack adequate savings for retirement and eldercare.

Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps provide prescription medications, nursing care, and more. Please be generous.

Over 93 percent of donations aid senior religious.

To give at your parish: Make your check payable to your parish. (Put RFR on the memo line.)

To donate by mail: Make your check payable to Retirement Fund for Religious. Please do not mail cash.

Please check with your employer about matching gifts.
