First
SUNDAY OF Lent

From the Pastor's Desk

On Monday I was awakened long before the sun came up by a phone call from a friend who had seen on the news that Pope Benedict had read a letter announcing his resignation. I guessed it might have been the imagination of some reporter and went back to sleep. But when I awakened in the morning I felt certain that the phone call had been accurate. I sat up and prayed for a little bit before letting my feet hit the floor, and felt convinced that everything was going to be just fine. A long perusal of various websites confirmed the news. For the first time since 1415, a pope had resigned.

On Monday, February 11, Pope Benedict assembled the cardinals who were in Rome for a consistory at which he announced the canonizations of Antonio Primaldo and Companions, Laura di Santa Caterina da Siena Montoya y Upegui, and Maria Guadalupe Garcia Zavala. They will be canonized on May 12. Then he announced something else:

Dear Brothers,

I have convoked you to this Consistory, not only for the three canonizations, but also to communicate to you a decision of great importance for the life of the Church. After having repeatedly examined my conscience before God, I have come to the certainty that my strengths, due to an advanced age, are no longer suited to an adequate exercise of the Petrine ministry. I am well aware that this ministry, due to its essential spiritual nature, must be carried out not only with words and deeds, but no less with prayer and suffering. However, in today's world, subject to so many rapid changes and shaken by questions of deep relevance for the life of faith, in order to govern the bark of Saint Peter and proclaim the Gospel, both strength of mind and body are necessary, strength which in the last few months, has deteriorated in me to the extent that I have had to recognize my incapacity to adequately fulfill the ministry entrusted to me. For this reason, and well aware of the seriousness of this act, with full freedom I declare that I renounce the ministry of Bishop of Rome, Successor of Saint Peter, entrusted to me by the Cardinals on 19 April 2005, in such a way, that as from 28 February 2013, at 20:00 hours, the See of Rome, the See of Saint Peter, will be vacant and a Conclave to elect the new Supreme Pontiff will have to be convoked by those whose competence it is.

Dear Brothers, I thank you most sincerely for all the love and work with which you have supported me in my ministry and I ask pardon for all my defects. And now, let us entrust the Holy Church to the care of Our Supreme Pastor, Our Lord Jesus Christ, and implore his holy Mother Mary, so that she may assist the Cardinal Fathers with her maternal solicitude, in electing a new Supreme Pontiff. With regard to myself, I wish to also devotedly serve the Holy Church of God in the future through a life dedicated to prayer.

Since no one seems to know quite how to react to this news, reporters have spent days revealing to us "how this will affect Minnesotans." Although you don't need me to expound on my feelings, I do want to say that I give thanks to God for the pontificate of Pope Benedict, and for the great humility he has shown in stepping down from the Chair of St. Peter. Not quite 86 years old, he perceived his own flagging strength was no longer adequate for leading the Church and decided to act boldly and do what had not been done since the last papal resignation almost 600 years ago. I believe Pope Benedict is forging a modern-day process his successors will have available to them to spare them the enormous weight of the ministry of St. Peter for the rest of their lives. Perhaps resignation will not be chosen frequently in the future, but Pope Benedict's precedent makes it clear that popes of our era can actually do what Church law has long held possible.

I imagine there will be many reflections on all that the gentle and holy man we have come to know as Pope Benedict has given the Church and the world. We can enjoy these memories without yet having to mourn him, and when his successor is elected we will know that the retired pope (will we again refer to him as Cardinal Ratzinger?) will be praying for the whole Church. He intends to move into rooms in a monastery of cloistered nuns within Vatican City, where, as he announced, he will live "a life dedicated to prayer."

The last phase of Pope Benedict's life will begin at 8:00 PM Rome time on Thursday, February 28, when, as he put it, "the See of Rome, the See of St. Peter will be vacant." It will be the beginning of a period called the Sede Vacante, or "vacant see." The term conveys the idea of an empty chair. Almost all officials of the Roman Curia (the machinery that runs the Vatican) will lose their offices at that moment. On a date that as of this writing hasn't been revealed, the conclave will begin. The current rules call for a conclave to be delayed until 15 to 20 days after the Sede Vacante begins, but that could be waived by Pope Benedict while he is still pope so that the Church will not be without a pope for very long. At any rate, the 117 cardinals who are under the age of 80 will enter the conclave and amid much prayer will elect a new Supreme Pontiff, most likely in only a few days. Let us all pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Religious Education/ Faith Formation (RE/FF)

Kids' Change for Kids

The children of St. Peter's have adopted a child from Uganda. All children are asked to bring in money that they have earned and place it in one of the cans marked KIDS' CHANGE FOR KIDS. The cans are in every classroom. Please talk to your child about the importance of helping those less fortunate—it will make a difference in their lives. Thank you!

Random Acts of Kindness

The Random Acts of Kindness cross is in the Gathering Space by the elevator. Each time you perform a random act of kindness—an act you perform because of a “desire to connect, to lend a helping hand and/or to extend ourselves out into the world”—please put a tissue paper flower into the cross. By Easter we will have a blooming cross of kindness!

St. Peter's Group Trip— American Swedish Institute

Join us for another fun trip on Wednesday, March 13. We will be going to the American Swedish Institute in Minneapolis for a tour and lunch. The bus will depart after the 9:00 weekday Mass and return at approximately 1:30 p.m. We will have a private guided tour before the museum opens, plenty of time for exploration on our own and shopping in their amazing gift shop, then enjoy a catered lunch in a private room. The cost of the trip is $35/person or $60/couple. Registration is required before March 5. For further information, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Lenten Alms

Pour yourself out for the hungry
give and gather

This year alms collected at St. Peter's throughout Lent will be donated to the Pour Yourself Out fund drive for the Eagan & Lakeville Resources Center. This organization, deeply rooted in the Gospel, serves families in Dakota County with dignity and respect. They provide healthy, fresh food support to over 1,000 of our neighbors each month. For every $1 you contribute, they can provide $10 in food for one of your neighbors, co-workers or friends. If you have questions regarding the hunger ministry they provide, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Caring Hearts for the Homeless Supply Drive

Just a friendly reminder to please donate to the Caring Hearts Supply Drive for Homeless People... We need your help!

Non-prescription medications, hygiene supplies and cotton socks are just a few items that will be collected for the homeless. Supplies must be dropped off in the Coat Room by Sunday, February 24. Please see the shopping lists on the counter in the Gathering Space for a complete shopping list and drop-off location or call Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304.

Monetary donations are especially welcome. Please make checks payable to the “HealthEast Foundation Homeless Project.”

We want to especially thank the children and their families participating in the drive through our Religious Education programs.

Thank you for giving from your heart!

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Opportunities for Spiritual Formation

St. Peter's pastoral ministry is very pleased to be able to offer you two terrific opportunities to grow in faith this Lent. Both talks will feature Dr. Jacquelyne M. Witter, a much sought after speaker on matters of spirituality and faith. She is a retreat leader, presenter, facilitator, and spiritual director. She has presented at parish, regional, diocesan and national retreats and conferences and teaches at the undergraduate and graduate levels at the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul and St. John's University in Collegeville. To register for either—or both—of these exciting presentations or for further information, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org. Both events are to be held in Heritage Center.

Growing in Grace and Wisdom: The Spirituality of Aging February 27, 10 a.m.-Noon

$15/person or $12/person for groups of 4 or more

‘Getting old is not for the faint-hearted,’ but growing older can be a profound source of grace as one lives into becoming and being an elder. We will explore the changes, challenges and choices of aging that invite elders to recognize and receive the grace and blessings of this significant part of the journey of life.

From Good to Great: The Grace of Ordinary Holiness March 10, 4-6 p.m.

$12/person before March 8, $15/person at the door

Do you know anyone who is holy? Do you think it's possible or desirable for real people in real life? One person answered this question by saying, “I think I can be good, but I doubt I will ever be holy—that's for special people who don't have to deal with all the things I do.” But Christ calls each of us to holiness, regardless of the circumstances of our life. And Christ gives each of us the grace to be holy! Holiness leads to happiness as we become the people Christ created us to be. Come and see what that means—for real people leading real lives.
