

Church of ST. PETER MENDOTA

February 8, 2015
Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Community Life Coordinator

We should be so proud of our parish! For the first time in a long time, our parish budget is in the black. Our parishioners have supported their parish community with financial gifts, giving us the ability to put more back into our many events and ministries.

But regardless of the state of our finances, this thought struck me: Jesus is always here. He is always waiting for us, to love us and welcome us, to hold us in our joy and our suffering. Whether we are able to give thousands of dollars to the church or absolutely nothing, we are welcome in His home and His family.

In today's second reading, St. Paul talks of how he "offer[s] the gospel free of charge" (1 Cor 9:18). While it shouldn't be all that shocking, if we look at the world around us, it really is amazing. God is here with us, 24/7, in the Eucharist. What else can we get for free that is worth so much? Our faith has no requirement of a monetary commitment. Don't get me wrong, it's highly encouraged that we give what we're able and what we're called to give, but beyond that there is no requirement.

As the staff connection for new parishioners, I have been asked if there is a fee to join our parish. I have also been asked if there is ever a monthly giving requirement. I know that there are churches around that require a certain level of monthly giving to receive a funeral; there is nothing like that within the Catholic Church. In fact, you can ask to have a funeral in a Catholic Church even if you have not attended for years, let alone donated money. And there never will be a set financial obligation.

One of the comments that gets to me most often when people speak harshly against the Church is the claim that we have a lot of money and it should all be given to the poor. While giving to those in need, all over the world, is certainly one of the highest priorities of our Church, the beauty in some of the inspired works of art and architecture in this world are priceless. Would you like to see the Pietà, one of the best-known sculptures in the world, be in a museum run by a government or another organization? Or would you rather keep it in St. Peter's Basilica, where anyone and everyone can see it for free? The poorest of the poor, the homeless, the destitute, are all welcome there, as well as in our many awe-inspiring cathedrals, basilicas, and other churches around the world. That yearning we feel as we look up at the ceiling of St. Paul's Cathedral or look at a beautiful sunset is just the beginning of beauty—a small glimpse at the beauty of Heaven, the beauty of God. And there's no charge to experience it. How wonderful is that?

The true blessing of all of this beauty is that it can be inspiring; it can bring us closer to God Himself. It draws us in so we can be overwhelmed by His greatness. So for someone who is suffering, has fallen away from his or her faith, or is out on the streets, God's beauty can conquer their hearts and help them be open to His mercy and love. And again—it's free.

Jesus also didn't require payment while He spent His time on earth. He doesn't pay attention to whether we are rich or poor; He accepts us, loves us, and heals us where we are.

"Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed. Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, 'Everyone is looking for you.' He told them, 'Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come.'"

Mark 1:35-38

If we want to show others the beauty of love and the beauty of our Church, we should enter into prayer as Jesus does in the Gospel above. Prayer will give us the strength to evangelize to others, whether it's through friendship, through financial support, or through beauty. There are so many ways we can bring, for free, the love of Christ to others. I challenge you to find one today.

Sara Rogers

Cana Dinner A Celebration of Marriage

Our fifth annual Cana Dinner will be held on Valentine's Day, Saturday, February 14, beginning with 5 p.m. Mass. An elegant evening is planned to celebrate the Sacrament of Marriage and all married couples, widowed, and single people are invited to attend. The cost is $25 per attendee which includes dinner, two drink tickets, and a presentation on the Sacrament of Marriage by our very own Fr. Steven Hoffman. Reservations and payment will be taken after Masses this weekend in the Gathering Space. Remember to invite your family and friends! We look forward to seeing you there.

Religious Education/ Faith Formation (RE/FF)

Reminder: there are no Religious Education classes this Wednesday, February 11.

Sunday School and Children's Liturgy of the Word will not be held on Sunday, February 15.

Confirmation

Registration for Confirmation is open for all parishioners currently in 9th grade. You can register by logging on to our parish website, or go to www.spyministry.org. If you have any questions, please contact Ed Overell at 651-905-4312. Orientation for new confirmation candidates and their parents is Sunday, February 22, from 10:15-11:45 in the Ravoux Room.

Join the Choir

The choir is beginning preparation for the Holy Week celebrations, the Lenten season, and beyond. Now is a great time to join! Rehearsals are weekly on Wednesday nights, at 7 p.m. and end by 8:30 p.m.. If you have questions, feel free to ask any choir member or contact David at ddunst@stpetersmendota.org.

Parish Library

The parish library, which is located within the Ravoux Room, is slowly taking shape. The books are now in some semblance of order; there is a table with chairs and two chairs by the windows for quiet reading.

However, we are still in need of additional books and videos, particularly for children. If you have any that you would be willing to donate, please bring them to the parish office. Religious videos such as Veggie Tales, children's Bible stories, and religious story books would be greatly appreciated. Our greatest need is for children's resources, but could always use more teen and adult resources as well.

We are also looking for an individual who could arrange our books in good order. If you have the time, desire or knowledge on how to do this, we could use your help. Please contact Mary Jubenville in the parish office at 651-905-4307.

Pastoral Ministry

St. Peter's Group Trip

Our next group outing will be on Thursday, March 19, 9:30 a.m.-1 p.m. We will be traveling to St. Paul for a tour of the Landmark Center, where we will be given a tour by a costumed guide and learn about the history of the former Federal Courthouse, prohibition, and the gangsters of St. Paul in the 1930s. Following our tour, we'll have lunch together at St. Paul Grille before returning to St. Peter's. These trips are a great time of fellowship, but spaces fill more quickly each time we go! The cost of the trip is $38/person, which includes lunch. Reservations are required in advance. To make yours, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org, or stop by the parish office. Reservations must be made by Tuesday, March 10, but space is limited so don't wait. Details are available in the Gathering Space.

Sincere Sympathy

St. Peter's Parish extends its sympathy to the families and friends of Arlean Mertensotto, Duane Hitz, and Fred Sharpe. We invite all to join us in praying that God may make them sharers in eternal salvation.

Enrich and Deepen Lent Experience: A Series with Fr. Steven

This Lent, you are invited to enter more fully into the spiritual experience of Lent by attending a three-part series presented by our own Fr. Steven: "Entering More Deeply into the Heart of the Father with Jesus." Childcare will be available upon advance registration.

Sundays, March 8, 15, and 22

2-4 p.m., Heritage Center

By His life and teaching, Jesus not only reveals the Father's merciful heart, but more wonderfully still, through the gift of the sacrament of confession and our Lenten observances of prayer, fasting and almsgiving, Jesus takes us more deeply into the Father's heart, that inexhaustible source of His life and strength, of His love, joy, and peace.

Session 1, March 8: Confession

Session 2, March 15: Prayer

Session 3, March 22: Fasting

and Almsgiving

Sessions may be enjoyed as a three-part series or individually. There is no need to preregister for the talks, but it is required by Tuesday, March 3, to ensure adequate care is available. Questions and childcare registrations may be directed to Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Mid-Winter Music Ministries Concert at St. John Neumann

A Mass for Healing, Reconciliation, and Hope

Thursday, February 26
7 p.m.

All are invited to the Church of Saint Paul in Ham Lake for a special Mass with Bishop Lee Piché to pray for healing and reconciliation in our Church and our community from the wounds of childhood sexual abuse. May the light of Christ's reconciling love show us the way out of this darkness and lead us to hope and healing.
