Reflections from our Pastoral Associate

This weekend's Gospel from Mark is a favorite of mine. It is deceptively simple. Like most of Mark's gospel, it is clean, straightforward, and without embellishment. At one time or another we have all heard a homily or read some theologians reflection on the story of Jesus as a fisher of men. Usually those reflections expand on the seemingly obvious message of obedience. He calls to Simon-Peter and his brother, Andrew. They literally drop what they are doing and follow, leaving behind all that they hold dear.

Although I don't disagree that their unquestioning obedience is admirable, and I absolutely agree that it is essential to follow Christ at all cost, the deeper and much more profound message in this passage has to do with why they follow.

The lesson we can take from the gospel today is one of love. This story is about the essence of what it means to be a Christian. It is not that we follow a set of rules or study to achieve scholarly and academic understanding of Scripture. To be a Christian is to follow an inspiring person. Jesus inspires us, so we follow him. It is the characteristic that defines all Christians.

When Jesus begins calling together his disciples, he doesn't set out for the nearest school of theological study. He doesn't seek out the most educated or learned of men. He finds the simple fishermen. And they drop everything and follow him because he impressed them. They follow him for love, not because he has all the answers or for what they can gain from him.

In fact, there is not a single doctor of theology among the apostles. There are five fishermen (Simon-Peter, Andrew, James the Elder, John, and Philip), a revolutionary (Simon the Zealot), a missionary (Bartholomew), a tax collector (Matthew), and four others whose occupations were not even worth mentioning (Thomas, James the Younger, Thaddeus, and Judas). Jesus chooses to surround himself with those he loves, even when society tells him he should despise those very same people.

As human beings, we are not moved so much by principles and theories as we are by other human beings. When others whom we love exhibit great ideals we strive to meet those ideals, as if our becoming better is a gift to them. We do our best out of love for someone or loyalty to someone. In this way we are no different than Simon-Peter and Andrew. We sacrifice many things for those whom we love; those who make our hearts swell with gladness in their presence. We act out of great love for our families, great friends, and as Christians, for our God.

The word "love" is repeated over 500 times in the Bible. Obedience is mentioned only about 200 times. God sent Jesus to us out of love, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish, but have eternal life" John 3:16. It makes perfect sense, then, that when Jesus begins calling his disciples to him, they respond out of love. After the death and resurrection of Jesus, John writes to the Christian community and clarifies that knowledge of God and love for one another are inseparable, "If we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us." 1 John 4:12

Just as Jesus faced the demands of a culture that loathed the very things he sought to achieve, so we are often faced with a world that demands more of our time for individual and secular pursuits. The definition of success in our daily lives is often at odds with what inspires us in the person of Jesus Christ. I don't doubt that the other fishermen in the boat with Simon-Peter and Andrew thought them fools when they cast down their nets. I'm certain they commented to one another about the utter stupidity of the risk they perceived their friends to be taking. But Simon-Peter and Andrew knew better. They knew love. Love they followed. We can read today's gospel and hear Jesus commanding and fishermen obeying. Or, even better, we can hear Jesus inviting and Simon-Peter and Andrew accepting.

Prayerful study of the Gospels and what they say about Jesus teaches us that our faith is not an academic exercise but a matter of falling in love with and following an inspiring person. As Christians we are not just believers in a collection of teachings and obligations, but followers of an impressive, entirely loveable, inspiring individual, Jesus Christ.

Retreat Opportunity for Women

Come join other women from St. Peter's for a Women's Retreat the weekend of February 28-March 2, 2014 at the Christ the King Retreat Center in Buffalo, Minnesota. It's a great way to grow in your relationship with God, and a fantastic way to begin the Lenten Season. The retreat begins on Friday, February 28, at 7 p.m. and concludes on Sunday, March 2, at 12:45 p.m. The retreat will be conducted by the staff at Christ the King Retreat Center. The theme of the retreat is: "Blessed are the Peacemakers!"

Full details about the retreat and online registration are at www.kingshouse.com. Please call parishioners Paula Kraus (651) 454-6757 or Trish Reimann (651) 456-0077 if you have any questions.

Hope to see you there!

Women's Retreat at St. Joseph's in West St. Paul

God has a Unique and Exciting plan for each of us, but how do we uncover that plan? Come to "In His Spirit" Women's Retreat February 21-22 at the Church of St. Joseph in West St. Paul to find out! Fr. Cory Rohlfing of St. Jude of the Lakes will be guiding this retreat. The retreat will run on Friday, February 21, 5-10 p.m. and Saturday, February 22, 7:30 a.m.-9 p.m. Cost is $75. Registration forms are available on their website: www.churchofstjoseph.org.

Aluminum Can Collection

Don't forget to save your aluminum cans to donate to Workcamp. Just drop them off anytime in the green trailer in the lower parking lot. All cans donated benefit Workcamp directly, and we have an organization that matches all our can funds, so your cans are actually worth double. Last year, we made over $2,500 from can donations! Thank you for your support!

2014 Catholic Services Appeal Begins

"Seek first the Kingdom of God." Matthew 6:24-34

The 2014 Catholic Services Appeal (CSA) is underway. Many of our parishioners will soon receive or have already received a mailing from the newly established Catholic Services Appeal Foundation requesting your support of the 2014 Catholic Services Appeal. Please respond generously.

The Appeal funds services that no one parish or individual can do alone and these services must go on despite these troubled times in our Archdiocese. It is important to know that contributions to the Catholic Services Appeal will be used for the benefit of designated ministries of the Appeal and for no other purposes. Please visit the new Catholic Services Appeal Foundation website at csafspm.org for more information.

When you give to the Catholic Services Appeal you provide food and shelter, education, spiritual support, and sacraments to individuals who are in need, disabled, imprisoned, hospitalized, or in nursing homes. You support low-income seniors, pregnant mothers, refugees, and immigrants. You support seminarians preparing for the priesthood, make the annual Archdiocesan Youth Day happen, and help fund the Rediscover: evangelization and catechesis initiative. You help our 65,000 brothers and sisters at the mission parish of Jesucristo Resucitado in Venezuela.

This year, the theme of the Appeal is: "Seek first the Kingdom of God." Funds given to the Catholic Services Appeal help to share the message of salvation not only in our parish but throughout our local Church and beyond. Commit to helping the CSA supported ministries. Then, please contemplate God's gifts to you and reflect on your gratitude for these gifts. Your financial support for the work of our parish and vital ministries throughout this local Church is one way to express this gratitude. Please note that when our parish reaches its goal, 25% of all funds received will be returned for use in our parish.

Today is Commitment Sunday

Today all parish families were asked to bring their Commitment Card to Mass. During Mass, as a parish community, we offer God our gifts of time, talent, and treasure. Our goal is to be a Stewardship Parish—a community who is noticeably committed to prayer, parish ministry, and generous financial support. All three are equally important. May God bless you as you make your commitments.

Cana Dinner—A Celebration of Marriage

Our fourth annual Cana Dinner will be held on Saturday, February 8, beginning with 5 p.m. Mass. An elegant evening is planned to celebrate the Sacrament of Marriage and all people—married or not—are invited to attend. The cost is $25 per attendee which includes dinner, two drink tickets, and entertainment. Reservations and payment will be taken after Masses on January 25/26, and February 1/2 in the Gathering Space. Remember to invite your family and friends!

If you plan to attend, you are encouraged to bring along a photo or another small piece of memorabilia from your wedding to place at your table. We hope you will share it, as well as a few wedding stories, with others!

We are also looking for a volunteer who has some talent at photography and would be willing to take a few photos of the evening, as well as individual photos for those attending the dinner. Please contact Gail Barta at 651-454-9552 if you are interested in offering your talent that evening.

New Parishioner Registration

Interested in joining the parish? New parishioner registration will be held after all Masses the first weekend of each month in the Gathering Space. You can also register by contacting Sara Rogers at 651-905-4308 or clicking on the “Community/Join St. Peter’s” link on the parish website.

Minute Memo from Ms. Shimshock

Happy Catholic Schools Week! Catholic Schools around the nation celebrate this week the excitement, joy and the successes of being part of such great schools. As Catholic Schools we are able to let our lights shine as beacons of hope for others each and every day. Our students shine when their words and actions mirror those of Jesus. Our Faithful Shepherd community shines when we reach out to others locally, nationally and globally. We are so lucky to be a part of a community that has as its mission to be ambassadors of our faith.

In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.
