

Church of ST. PETER MENDOTA

January 18, 2015
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Pastoral Associate

Names are important. As human persons we seem to know this intrinsically. Expectant parents spend a great deal of effort choosing names for their children. Throughout our lives, our friends, family, and our own personalities, often change those names. What we are called—and what we call one another—is dynamic and has an impact on us and, in many ways, the paths our lives eventually take.

This weekend, we hear two very powerful Scripture readings about naming. First, Samuel, a young serving boy sleeping in the Temple, hears God calling him by name. At first he's confused and goes to Eli, believing that it's he who called. Finally, Eli tells the boy that his Lord is calling and that he should answer God if he hears his name again. Samuel, hearing the Lord again, responds gladly to his name and grows up a favored servant of God.

Next, we hear the story of the naming of Peter by Jesus. This is significant because he approaches Jesus as Simon, son of John. Until now, he's lived his life in what we can only assume is typical of a man of his station in those days. After being introduced to Jesus, the Messiah, he is renamed by Christ for a new life with new purpose.

So then, what must this mean for us, who may not hear a booming voice from the heavens calling our name, who can't expect to be taken by the hand to meet the person of Christ on earth? It means everything. God, Creator of all things, creating in love always, has known us, and named us, before we were even in our mother's womb.

*You formed my inmost being;
you knit me in my mother's womb.
I praise you, so wonderfully you made me;
wonderful are your works!
My very self you knew;
my bones were not hidden from you,
When I was being made in secret,
fashioned as in the depths of the earth.
Your eyes foresaw my actions;
in your book all are written down;
my days were shaped, before one came to be.
(Psalm 139:13-16)*

Again and again in Scripture we see realizations and revelations of God's forming us in the womb and his love for us even then. Jeremiah 1:4-5, Job 31:15, and Isaiah 49:1-5 are but a few examples of the testimony of the prophets to the love of God before and during our earthly lives.

This great and early love for the human person is one of many reasons we mark with sadness the anniversary of the Supreme Court decision in Roe vs. Wade, which legalized abortion. On January 22 people will gather from all over the state for prayer and protest in St. Paul. The day begins at the Cathedral of St. Paul with a prayer service and then those who are able march from there to the steps of the State Capital. God who knew us and created us, who loves us, loves and creates those unborn whose lives are at risk so early in their precious lives. If you can be there, I would encourage you to give it a try. It's a moving and touching experience. If you are unable to be there, you may consider praying for those who will be gathered, for our government leaders, and for the dignity of all human life.

Here at St. Peter's we are making available to you an opportunity to pray before the Blessed Sacrament on the morning of January 22. Following our 9 a.m. Mass, Adoration will take place until midday. Beginning at 11:45 a.m. we will pray together a rosary for the respect of life at all its stages, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. If you can, please join us.

Although on January 22 we remember specifically those who are never born, it's important to remember that to God, all life is precious. In a culture that increasingly devalues life, we need to take care to protect all life. An end to euthanasia, to capital punishment, to gross disregard for the poverty and homelessness that steals lives through starvation, disease, and lack of shelter, must be sought in addition to an end to abortion. Systematic murder of God's beloved, in any form, wounds our humanity. Because of God's tremendous love for every one of us, and because the Lord has named each of us before knitting us in our mothers' wombs, we must also love and protect one another, his beloved children.

Pastoral Associate

Neighbors, Inc.

Thanks neighbor!

The working poor are some of the hardest working people in our community. During that VERY cold January of 2014, a mother of an infant daughter came to Neighbors, Inc. and with great enthusiasm announced she had finally been able to get her car fixed and come to Neighbors, Inc. for food support. For the entire month of January, she walked and carried her 19-month-old daughter to daycare and then proceeded to walk another two miles to get to her place of employment. She then repeated her journey in reverse at the end of each work day. When asked how she kept her baby warm during her journey she said, "Oh, I came up with all sorts of creative ideas. I wrapped her up and then covered her inside my own coat and just kept walking." Such a happy, resourceful, and determined mother! She is a blessing and inspiration to all of us!

Neighbors, Inc., and your neighbors
thank you for your generosity.

Catholic Relief Services Collection

Catholic Relief Services has asked that a special collection be taken up to provide support for those affected by the Ebola outbreak in West Africa. Our parish will have the collection this weekend. These funds will be used by Catholic Relief Services and other various partners to meet the most urgent needs facing people in West Africa who have been exposed to the disease. The efforts made by Catholic Relief Services and the United States Council of Catholic Bishops have been aimed at reducing the mortality rate, improving access to health services, maintaining the food supply, and increasing security in affected areas.

2015 Catholic Services Appeal “Be Imitators of Christ”

The 2015 Catholic Services Appeal (CSA) is underway. Many of our parishioners have already received a mailing from the newly established Catholic Services Appeal Foundation requesting your support of the Catholic Services Appeal. Please respond generously.

The Appeal funds services that no one parish or individual can support alone. These services must go on despite these troubled times in our archdiocese. It is important to know that contributions to the Catholic Services Appeal will be used for the benefit of designated ministries of the Appeal. Please visit the new Catholic Services Appeal Foundation website at csafspm.org for more information .

When you give to the Catholic Services Appeal, you provide food and shelter, education, spiritual support, and sacraments to individuals who are in need, disabled, imprisoned, hospitalized, or in nursing homes. You help give nearly 2,500 students access to a life-changing Catholic school education their families could not otherwise afford. You support seminarians preparing for the priesthood, make the annual Archdiocesan Youth Day happen, and help fund the evangelization and catechesis initiatives. You help our 65,000 brothers and sisters at the mission parish of Jesucristo Resucitado in Venezuela. You help support Latino ministry for our Spanish speaking brothers and sisters at 23 local parishes. And, when our parish reaches its goal, 25% of all funds received will be returned for use to support ministries in our parish.

This year the theme of the Appeal is: “Be Imitators of Christ.” Your gift to the Catholic Services Appeal will help to share His message of salvation not only in our parish but throughout our local Church and beyond. Commit to helping the CSA supported ministries. Then, please contemplate God’s gifts to you and reflect on your gratitude for these gifts. Your financial support for the work of our parish and vital ministries throughout this local Church is one way to express this gratitude. Thank you.
