

July 13-July 20, 2014
Fifteenth/Sixteenth Sundays
in Ordinary Time

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Director of Music

While we know this season by the unfortunate phrase, “Ordinary Time,” the Gospels offer us anything but an ordinary glimpse of Christ’s relationship with his disciples. If only we had the wisdom to perceive and seize the opportunity this “ordinary” season affords us.

These two weeks include not only parables, Jesus’ principle method of teaching the crowds, but an intimate and patient explanation of these stories. At their request, Jesus begins to make plain to them the meanings of select parables, or scenarios and stories that illustrate the nature of the kingdom of God.

I’ll concentrate here on the two explanations the Lord gives. First, in the parable of the sower, we learn that the Gospel is not received by all as it is intended. Some of us never receive the word. Some are exposed to it, but due to circumstances in life, coincidental events or personal priorities, the Word is forgotten, and the chance for faith to grow is lost.

Others of us receive the Good News with enthusiasm, but again, other factors intervene, and while we were eager to learn of it initially, and perhaps even began to apply it, our hearts were not ready to change in the ways the Gospel invariably demands.

Still others are in such a state as to be ready, willing, and able to receive knowledge of the Good News. Most often, I think, this readiness for the Gospel implies some circumstances we would universally see as unfortunate. Usually, we are poor, broken, or in pain when the Light breaks through.

Second, Jesus gives us a lesson about the nature of communities, and most generally, the human community. Unfortunately, there are people who, under whatever motivation, act as enemies and opponents to the kingdom. This message is alarming, and it ought to be. While we hope and believe the best about those around us, some, perhaps many, set back the work of the Gospel. Even more disturbing is what this says about our churches.

Strangely, this combination of lessons is applicable for the current time in our parish. Fortunately, it speaks not to the darkness in which we find ourselves, but to our power to overcome it.

This is a critical time for this community to pray. We must pray for the next pastor, but principally for all parishioners. Many find the situation to be unfair, from both sides of the argument. Some would see it as a time to flee. Others may have their faith shaken or choose to mistrust the decisions made by those that seek to safeguard the faithful.

However, these Gospels are for the hurt and those thirsting for healing, because prayer in this instance is not important in the sense that we want God to resolve our insecurities by his own means. Rather, it is merely the act and devotion to prayer that is indispensable, because by our prayer we ourselves change.

When we approach God in prayer, our own walls are breached, our own misguidedness is mitigated, and the Holy Spirit enters in and enriches the soil of our hearts. When we pray that God speedily give us a new pastor, we ourselves become more receptive.

If we beg God for a remedy to the confusion that has wounded us personally, or the parish at large, we can be sure that He will cut away the thorns and brambles in our own hearts that make us lose sight of the Good News.

By asking God to remove those people or influences in this local church that have caused us pain throughout these many months, rest assured that the impediments He will remove are those in our own understanding that make us harden toward the Word of God.

What then will come of us?

What remains is good ground, pregnant with spiritual nutrients and ready to receive Christ in his fullness. What is left are stalks of wheat, bountiful and ready for harvesting, thriving in spite of negativity and adversity.

When we in our hearts are truly prepared for Jesus’ coming, whatever may pass will be to the glory of the kingdom, and bring about good for those who love him.

David Dunst
Director of Music

Goodbye and Good Luck to Father Gallatin

Members of our community are hosting a reception at the Lost Spur Country Club—2750 Sibley Memorial Highway, Eagan—on Sunday, July 20, from 3 to 5:30 p.m. for those who would like to say goodbye to Father Gallatin. Light refreshments will be served and there is no need to RSVP if you plan to attend.

Parish Pastoral Council Members

We would like to thank the three members of the Parish Pastoral Council whose terms just ended: Ann Hoey, Kelly Garrett, and Yvonne Houle-Gillard. Our new members are Anne Hallgren, Paul Hirsch, and Maria Schwartz. We are grateful to them and to all who expressed their willingness to serve! Our first meeting will be on Tuesday, September 16.

Fall Festival Raffle

Fall Festival raffle tickets are now available for pick up. This year our goal is for parishioners to sell tickets to their family, friends, neighbors, co-workers, etc. This will not only help market the Fall Festival, but will generate revenue outside of our parish. We are asking each family to pick up a packet of 10 raffle tickets (or more) to sell to their family and friends. Raffle tickets will be available for pick up in the Gathering Space following each of the weekend Masses.

St. Peter's Fall Festival
Sunday, October 5,
11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Parish Bulletin Summer Schedule

Due to a slower time during the summer months, we are publishing the parish bulletin biweekly until August 31. Following are the dates of publication:

July 13 and 20 (published July 13)
July 27 and August 3 (published July 27)
August 10 and 17 (published August 10)
August 24 and 31 (published August 24)

Bulletin articles are due on Fridays the week before publication. If you have any questions, please call Darlene at 651-905-4302, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday or email dolson@stpetersmendota.org.

Pastoral Ministry

Novena for a Rebirth of Chastity and Purity

Join the Marriage, Family, and Life Office in praying the novena for chastity and purity in the world. The novena begins on Friday, July 18, and is completed on the feast of Saints Joachim and Anne. Copies of the novena are available in the Gathering Space of the Main Church and in the Historic Church.

Prayer Chain

Thank you, Peggy Markee, for so many years of dedicated service as our prayer chain coordinator. We are currently looking for someone to take over this very important ministry. Interested candidates should have internet access and a willingness to work with email communication. This is an excellent ministry for those with limited time as it is done from home. Time commitment is typically less than one hour a week. If you would like to volunteer or learn more, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Eucharistic Adoration

Parishioners and friends are welcome for private prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in the Historic Church on Tuesdays
after the 9 a.m. Mass until 6 p.m.

Matthew 26:40-41—Jesus said to Peter:

“Could you not watch
 with me one hour?
 Watch and pray.”

For more information please contact Jane Vasiliou at 651-454-5292 or jvasiliou@comcast.net

Free Tours of the Historic Church

Have you ever wanted to hear more about the history of our parish? Our Historic Church will be open for FREE tours every Sunday from noon to 2 p.m. through Labor Day. Feel free to stop in and learn about your community's very own historic site!

Our Annual Parish Directory

The annual parish directory will be available in the fall for all registered parishioners. This is not the kind of directory that includes photos. It will include last name, head of household and spouse, address, and phone number. If you have an unlisted number and would like it listed in this directory, or if you request other changes; i.e., no name, phone number, address, etc., please contact Darlene Olson at 651-905-4302 or dolson@stpetersmendota.org.

Center for Mission Thank You

Dear St. Peter's Parishioners,

I am writing to thank you for the donation of $5,316 for welcoming and supporting the missionary group that came to your parish recently under the Missionary Cooperation Plan of the Archdiocese of St. Paul/Minneapolis. Each year we participate in this face-to-face encounter with the efforts of one missionary organization so that we might personally share in the story of the Good News of Christ being proclaimed in one part of the world. Your effort continues the tradition going back to St. Paul who gathered assistance for the Church in Jerusalem as an act of communion and encouragement within the Body of Christ.

May our Missionary God continue to strengthen you in living out your own call to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Peace,
 Deacon Mickey Friesen, D.Min.
 Director

Hearing and Vision Aids Available for Mass

If you find it hard to hear at Mass or your ability to participate is inhibited by difficulty reading the hymnal or worship aids, we can help with that. Please see one of our friendly ushers and let them know of your need. We have hearing devices and magnifiers available for you to use while you're here. Thank you.
