OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

PRAYER CHAIN REQUESTS

Peggy Markee 952-322-6479

E-mail: pmarkee@frontier.com

From the Pastor's Desk

Last summer the bishops of the United States declared the first “Fortnight for Freedom.” This is a 14-day period of prayer and sacrifice leading up to and including Independence Day. The idea behind this time of prayer is that we would ask God to protect our religious liberty, which in the present age seems vulnerable for a variety of reasons.

People will often speak about the separation of church and state. You might be quite familiar with the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, which reads: “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.” In one sweeping amendment (the first one listed in the Bill of rights), the Constitutional Convention stated for the record that the government they were creating would have no right whatsoever to abridge the freedom of speech, the freedom of the press, the freedom of peaceful assembly, or the freedom to petition the government. But before listing those four freedoms, the members of the Constitutional Convention mentioned religion.

The First Amendment says that Congress may not establish a religion. That means no federal religion would be permitted. Most of the colonists in the fledgling U.S. were well acquainted with established religions, such as the Church of England. Congress would not be allowed to establish any religion in the future, and it has not. (State legislatures were not considered prohibited from establishing an official religion; Massachusetts recognized Congregationalism as a state religion for years, as I have heard many times.) In the next part of the same clause, the amendment declared that Congress cannot prohibit the free exercise of religion, and that is the matter at hand.

By the time you read this, the Freedom Forum planned by the Archdiocese and held at our parish on Saturday, June 22 will already have concluded. It was called to address topics such as, “What is religious freedom?” “What is the difference between freedom to worship and freedom to practice religion?” “Why is there a separation of church and state?” “How do we publically live our faith?” These are important matters, as from time to time President Obama has referred to “freedom of worship” instead of “freedom of religion.” I certainly hope that at no point will our freedom to go to church and worship behind closed doors be threatened. But we have to understand that practicing our faith means much more than what we do within the walls of a church. It means making our beliefs part of our daily lives.

Last month, Archbishop Nienstedt wrote to us priests to ask us to participate in the Fortnight for Freedom events. He prefaced this with these words: “As you are aware, last year the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) issued a mandate under the Affordable Care Act that requires all employer health plans to provide free of charge contraceptives, sterilizations and abortion-inducing drugs, regardless of any moral or religious objections. Our struggle for religious liberty has taken on a new urgency. This mandate will be enforced against nonprofit Catholic schools and universities, charities, and health care institutions beginning August 1. This has very serious implications for the Church’s ability to exercise her mission and ministry.”

A Mass will be celebrated at the Cathedral on June 29, followed by a holy hour for religious freedom. I hope you will check the Catholic Spirit newspaper for details. On that Saturday and Sunday, parishioners will be invited to participate in a postcard campaign called “Project Life and Liberty.” If you wish, you will be able to take a sheet of three perforated postcards and address one to each of your U.S. senators and to your representative in the U.S. House of Representatives to express your concern about the HHS mandate. I hope you will consider taking part in these opportunities associated with the Fortnight for Freedom.

Having written about the Constitution, I should also mention the Declaration of Independence, which was signed on July 4, 1776, giving us, among many other things, the date of our best known national holiday. The Declaration’s last lines might not be so well known as its opening lines, so I would like to reprint them here. After listing the grievances the colonists had against the King of Great Britain, the Declaration says the following:

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these united Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States, that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. — And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

Fr. Joseph Gallatin

Franciscan Brothers of Peace Speaker on June 29 and 30

Br. Conrad Richardson, fbp, a member of the Franciscan Brothers of Peace in St. Paul, which was founded by the late Br. Michael Gaworski, fbp who was raised in the Church of St. Peter, will be speaking on behalf of his religious community and the Center for Mission of the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis during the Masses on June 29 and 30. Br. Conrad will share with us the important work that the brothers are involved in; proclaiming the Gospel of Life, caring for the poor, homeless, international victims of torture and immigrant families. A second collection will be taken that will support mission-sending organizations like the Franciscan Brothers of Peace. Checks can be made payable to the Center for Mission. Please be generous.

Thank you to all who came for the Anointing of the Sick service on Sunday, June 9. We had a wonderful turnout and 29 people were anointed. The luncheon that followed was also well attended. Thank you, also, to the members of our pastoral visitation and hospitality volunteers who helped make this a wonderful event.

If you or your loved ones would like to receive the Sacrament of the Sick, please contact Lisa Amos or Fr. Gallatin through the parish office.

Eagle Scout Project Thank You!

My Eagle project was completed here at St. Peter's on June 6, 2013, thanks to many volunteers and generous donors from our parish. My project involved upgrading the property viewed from the back of the church looking towards the river; we cleared several trailer loads of buckthorn, placed down tarp, spread 25 yards of mulch, planted 5 new lilac bushes and installed a bird feeder statue of St. Francis.

Again, I would not have been able to do this without the generous donations that many of you happily gave me. I hope you all agree that the project has improved our church grounds. I had a great time organizing this and I look forward to helping out St. Peter's Parish again when needed.

Thank you all again!
Sincerely,

Billy Sullivan

Uganda Mission Update

It's less than a month away! The Uganda Mission's major fundraising event—the pig roast, raffle and silent auction—will take place on Sunday, July 21, in St. Peter's Heritage Center from Noon to 3 p.m.

Ralph Dumond, chair of the mission team at St. Peter's, will begin roasting a pig on Saturday evening, July 20, and will be stoking the fire hourly all during the night. Other team members will prepare additional items so that everyone attending this event will have a delicious meal. For those who prefer another white meat, roast turkey will also be available that day. A freewill donation is asked of those who partake in the meal.

In addition to the pig roast, a silent auction begins on the weekend of July 13 and 14 and concludes at the end of the pig roast at 3 p.m. on Sunday, July 21.

100% of all monies received from the freewill donation at the pig roast and from the purchase of silent auction items will go towards the education of children in Uganda. Team members cover the costs of food for the dinner, and the team is especially dependent on parishioners to donate items to the silent auction. If you have something that might be of interest in the silent auction, please contact Frank or Joan Pilney (651-214-7621 or 651-454-1568) or Tom or Mary O'Neill (651-402-3433 or 651-454-5128). All donations are tax deductible.
