Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty

O God our Creator, from your provident hand we have received our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.
You have called us as your people and given us
the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God, and your Son, Jesus Christ.
Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit,
you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world,
bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society.

We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty.
Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened;
give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, so that, with every trial withstood and every danger overcome—for the sake of our children, our grandchildren, and all who come after us—
this great land will always be "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Reflections from our Business Manager

Last weekend the parishioners of St Peter's were informed of the departure of Fr. Gallatin. While it is nice to finally have an answer after many months of waiting, we are still in a time of transition. It is another time of change here in the parish. When our new priest arrives it will be the fourth priest this parish has seen in the past eight and a half years. That is a lot of change for one parish!

I myself am going through big changes this summer (besides work changes). Some of you may know that I am mother of two boys. My oldest, John has taken a job working at Yosemite National Park this summer and will not be home. Andy is my six foot five "baby." He has left for the summer to attend boot camp at Fort Benning in Georgia. I am, for this summer at least, an empty nester.

At this time of summer the graduation parties are starting to wind down and it won't be long before we start to see the back to school sales popping up in stores. I do apologize for bringing this up already. Kindergarteners will be eagerly waiting to start their days at school, teens will be preparing for high school and our recent graduates will be preparing for college or jobs.

On July 4th we will be celebrating the birthday of our country. Our country is young by many standards, only 238 years old. It has seen its ups and down, times of war and times of peace, financial prosperity and recessions. We have gone through times of great celebration such as the first man on the moon and tragic loss as the attacks on 9-11. On the 4th many of us will attend parades, picnics, fireworks and wave our flags. It will hopefully be a day of joy and laughter.

How are any of these topics related? What, you may ask, does any of this have to do with this week's readings or Gospel? The one thing each of these situations has in common is change. Change, it has been said is one of the constants in life and it can be life altering and frightening. It can be a time of great growth, stress, uncertainty, confusion and joy.

After Jesus' death and latter his ascension into heaven the apostles faced a time of great change. The one who they followed, believed in and loved was taken from them. They were alone. They were facing an uncertain and probably most frightening future. Would they be persecuted, would they be able to reach out to their followers and teach them about Jesus and his love? Would they be able to fulfill the great responsibility that was placed upon their very human shoulders?

Peter is asked by Jesus who the Son of Man is; he replies "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." It is this insight that allows Peter to become the rock upon which the Church is built. It is this knowledge and faith that allows him that great honor of holding the keys to the kingdom.

Peter's answer to Jesus and his call to be the keeper of the keys can provide each of us the strength and grace to make it through times of change. It is this support that can buoy us up in our toughest time. For if we have the knowledge and faith in the greatness and wisdom and caring of Jesus Christ we can shoulder great uncertainty. I'm not saying this will always be easy but knowing that God is behind us, supporting us and loving us we will have a much better chance of crossing through the rough waters in life.

One of my favorite poems is Footprints in the Sand. I'm sure most of you know it. It is the one where the man looks back upon his life as footprints in the sand. Through his life journey he sees two sets of footsteps, his and God's. At certain times, times of great struggle, there are only one set. He asks God why he was abandoned at those times and learns that is when God carried him.

Maybe if we have that faith in God, try to give up the control that so many of us need to have, have the insight that Peter had we would weather the times of change with less stress and heartache. If we truly put our faith in God and are open to him and his way, we may actually grow and become a better person as we face each uncertainty.

Think of the great responsibility our founding fathers faced. Do they break away from their home country, do they risk the lives of many of their neighbors even their own lives, face an uncertain future? They must have spent a lot of time in prayer on this. Perhaps that is why we see on our coins "In God We Trust."

Perhaps as we going through another round of changes at St. Peter's we can face it with trust and faith in our Lord. We can take some time and spend it in prayer for peaceful transition. We can strive to have that faith in God and to know that this is not an end but a new beginning. Sure it will be tough to get to another priest but maybe we can recognize that this is all in God's plan and trust in him.

St. Peter's Community News

I hope that each of you will find peace and comfort in times of change in your life. May you face change with the knowledge that the Lord our God is with you. Have a Happy 4th of July, enjoy your summer and stay safe.

Weekly Contribution Summary

Contribution totals were not available when the bulletin was printed.

Peter's Pence Collection

Be A Witness of Charity

In the second collection today we are supporting the Holy Father in his charitable works. The Peter's Pence Collection is taken up worldwide to support the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. This is an opportunity to join with our Holy Father, Pope Francis, and be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be generous in today's collection.

Sincere Sympathy

St. Peter's Parish extends its sympathy to the family and friends of Rodger Wolfram. We invite all to join us in praying that God may make him a sharer in eternal salvation.

Pastoral Ministry

Grief Ministry Opportunities

St. Peter's is part of a coalition of local churches that presents Growing Through Loss, a program of support and information for persons who are experiencing grief due to the death of a loved one, broken relationship, job loss, loss of health, etc. Small group facilitators are needed for this coming year. Growing Through Loss takes place twice a year. Series run once a week for four weeks in the fall, and four weeks, with a fifth for a remembrance service, in the spring. Each session offers a presentation followed by small groups lead by facilitators. Training is provided. If you are a good listener and wish to minister to those experiencing grief, this ministry may be for you.

Additionally, St. Peter's is currently in need of a second representative on the planning committee. This would require eight evening committee meetings a year and attendance at one or more evenings of the speaker series, depending on the responsibilities chosen by the representative. We strive to have two active representatives from St. Peter's.

If either (or both) of these ministry opportunities appeal to you, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org for more information.

Neighbors Thank You

Our sincere thank you for the generous donation of 211 pounds of food you made to us during May.

Bishop Cozzens Announcement Regarding Fr. Gallatin

On the weekend of June 21 & 22, Bishop Cozzens celebrated all three Masses. While here, Bishop Cozzens announced to our parish that Fr. Gallatin will not be returning as pastor of St. Peter's. The audio of the bishop's announcement, his homily, and written statements from both the Archdiocese and Fr. Gallatin can be found on our parish website. In this time of transition, our continued prayers for all those affected by recent events within our parish and our local church are incredibly important. May God continue to watch over us and fill our hearts with only the desire to see His will be done.

Free Tours of the Historic Church

Have you ever wanted to hear more about the history of our parish? Our Historic Church will be open for FREE tours every Sunday from noon to 2 p.m. through Labor Day. Feel free to stop in and learn about your community's very own historic site!

Strange, but true

John Adams was a close friend of Thomas Jefferson. After Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence, John Adams led the fight in Congress for its adoption.

They were among its signers on July 4, 1776. John Adams and Thomas Jefferson both died on the same day, July 4, 1826—exactly fifty years after the Declaration was signed.

Fourth of July Mass and Office Hours

Mass will be celebrated at 9 a.m. in the Historic Church on July 4th. The parish office will be closed in observance of the holiday. Enjoy your holiday!

Our Annual Parish Directory

The annual parish directory will be available in the fall for all registered parishioners. This is not the kind of directory that includes photos. It will include last name, head of household and spouse, address, and phone number. If you have an unlisted number and would like it listed in this directory, or if you request other changes; i.e., no name, phone number, address, etc., please contact Darlene Olson at 651-905-4302 or dolson@stpetersmendota.org.
