From the Pastor's Desk

I must admit that last week I was so interested in the news stories around the end of the pontificate of Benedict XVI that I built up unreasonable expectations of a speedy start to the conclave. I am writing on Tuesday, and the date for the beginning of the conclave to elect a new pope has not yet been announced. I don't recall feeling impatient during the last papal transition. Eight years ago when it became clear the pope was dying, there were radio and television updates about the condition of Pope John Paul II several times every hour. A great outpouring of love for him took place after his death, and the funeral captured the world's attention. There was much interest about the conclave to elect the new pope, and then I rejoiced that it was Cardinal Ratzinger who was elected Bishop of Rome. April 2005 was a wonderful month to be a Catholic! There was so much drama that I don't recall that it seemed we were waiting a long time. But now we only pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and we watch video clips of Pope Benedict flying away in a helicopter.

Life continues in the Church. Even when we have to say goodbye to one pope, Christ sends us someone else as his vicar. These things remind us about what it means to be a member of the Catholic Church. We are a part of something much bigger than ourselves. We are not a congregational church, whose horizons would be limited to our own neighborhood. Without a doubt, the experience most people have of the Church is their own parish community – this is very natural. But when our attention is drawn by events that take in the whole worldwide sweep of the Catholic Church, our perspective widens. We see again that the Church is not “just us” in this particular parish. The Church is not a human institution. She is a divine institution – made up of us poor human beings who so often go astray. But we are guided by the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit is probably the most difficult Person of the Holy Trinity to grasp, and so it is no wonder that a lot of Catholics forget that he even exists. Yet every time we make the sign of the Cross we invoke his name, so we could use those times as chance to remember him and to seek to get in touch with him. I would like to quote extensively from the Catechism of the Catholic Church and from a meditation book in order to convey some truths about the Holy Spirit.

The Trinity is a mystery of faith in the strict sense, one of the ‘mysteries that are hidden in God, which can never be known unless they are revealed by God.’ To be sure, God has left traces of his Trinitarian being in his work of creation and in his Revelation throughout the Old Testament. But his inmost Being as Holy Trinity is a mystery that is inaccessible to reason alone or even to Israel's faith before the Incarnation of God's Son and the sending of the Holy Spirit (CCC 237).

When Jesus was still with his disciples, he told them that he would send “another Advocate,” and that advocate is the Holy Spirit. It is he who guides us and teaches us. He was with the Father and the Son at the very beginning of all things, but he was not revealed until he descended upon Mary and the apostles at Pentecost. It was only at that time that the mystery of the Trinity was revealed in its fullness. The Catechism teaches that it is only by the Holy Spirit that we can call Jesus “Lord:”

This knowledge of faith is possible only in the Holy Spirit: to be in touch with Christ, we must first have been touched by the Holy Spirit. He comes to meet us and kindles faith in us. By virtue of our Baptism, the first sacrament of the faith, the Holy Spirit in the Church communicates to us, intimately and personally, the life that originates in the Father and is offered to us in the Son (CCC 683).

The second volume of a meditation series called In Conversation With God offers us some insights about the indwelling of the Holy Trinity:

We should learn to become better and better friends of God who is dwelling within us. Through this divine presence, our soul becomes a miniature heaven. Reflection on that thought can help us enormously. At Baptism the three persons of the most Blessed Trinity came into our souls: they want to be closer to us throughout our lives than the closest of friends ... we should recall his presence within us in the midst of our daily activity, when we're going from place to place, to thank him, to ask him for help, to atone for the sins we commit against him every day” (In Conversation With God, vol. II, p. 472).

So God actually dwells in each person who is baptized: God the Father, God the Son (who has been named Jesus since he became incarnate in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary), and God the Holy Spirit. How good it would be to remember that fact whenever we pray, and when we consider how the cardinals need to discern who the Holy Spirit has chosen to be the next pope.

Grade 2 First Eucharist Program

Grade 2 classes will not meet on Wednesday, March 13, because the students had been here on Saturday for the mini-retreat. Grade 2 will resume classes on March 20. Please contact Kathy Raible at 651-905-4311 if you have any questions.

Kids' Change for Kids

The children of St. Peter's have adopted a child from Uganda. All children are asked to bring in money that they have earned and place it in one of the cans marked KIDS' CHANGE FOR KIDS.

The cans are in every classroom. Please talk to your child about the importance of helping those less fortunate—it will make a difference in their lives. Thank you!

Random Acts of Kindness

The Random Acts of Kindness cross is in the Gathering Space by the elevator. Each time you perform a random act of kindness—an act you perform because of a “desire to connect, to lend a helping hand and/or to extend ourselves out into the world”—please put a tissue paper flower into the cross. By Easter we will have a blooming cross of kindness!

Lenten Alms

This year alms collected at St. Peter's throughout Lent will be donated to the Pour Yourself Out fund drive for the Eagan & Lakeville Resources Center. This organization, deeply rooted in the Gospel, serves families in Dakota County with dignity and respect. They provide healthy, fresh food support to over 1,000 of our neighbors each month. For every $1 you contribute, they can provide $10 in food for one of your neighbors, co-workers or friends. If you have questions regarding the hunger ministry they provide, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Council of Catholic Women (CCW) Board Meeting

The Council of Catholic Women Board will meet on Wednesday, March 13, 1:30 p.m. in Conference Room I. All women of the parish are invited to attend.

The Seven Pillars of Catholic Spirituality

Do you wish you were challenged to become the best-version-of-yourself?

Looking for inspiration to live life to the fullest or encouragement to act purposefully in the world?

Do you desire deeper conversation with the Creator of the universe?

You may have read about it, you may even have heard the CD. Now you have an opportunity to watch author and speaker Matthew Kelly talk about The Seven Pillars of Catholic Spirituality. Join others for a video presentation of this life-changing keynote and take advantage of a chance to discuss its impact in your own faith. Registration is not required and there is plenty of room so bring a friend or neighbor who may be looking for encouragement. For more information, please contact Lisa Amos, 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org

2013 Catholic Services Appeal

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to thank you for your responsiveness to the needs of our Archdiocese. In gifts pledged or given in full, we have now surpassed our goal of $52,531 for the Catholic Services Appeal! It took only three weeks for us to reach this amount, which is really encouraging. In fact, St. Peter's is one of only three parishes in the whole Archdiocese to have achieved our goal so early. Once the Archdiocese receives donations from our parishioners in excess of $52,531, the parish will get back 25% of the funds collected. The further your gifts takes us beyond our goal, the more we will receive in rebates. Last year we received almost $20,000 back from the Catholic Services Appeal to use for the operations of the parish.

Once again, thank you for your generosity!
Fr. Joseph Gallatin

Easter Flowers

We are now accepting donations for Easter flowers in memory or honor of a loved one. If you would like to make a donation, pick up an envelope on the information counter or in the parish office and return through Sunday collections or in the parish office by Wednesday, March 20. All names will be listed in our Easter bulletin.

Liturgical Ministry Postcards

A postcard and/or email has been sent out to all liturgical ministers requesting availability dates and preferred ministries. Please return to the parish office, email or call in your requests by Sunday, March 17. If you have not received a postcard but would like to be scheduled, please contact Sara Rogers at 651-905-4308 or srogers@stpetersmendota.org.

The May 4 through September 1 schedules will be available and distributed in mid April. If you have not yet indicated your availability for these months, or no longer are interested in serving in your ministry, please contact Sara Rogers at the phone number or email address above and indicate the dates you are NOT available during this time period. The deadline for indicating unavailable dates is Sunday, March 17. Thank you!

Happy St. Patrick's Day

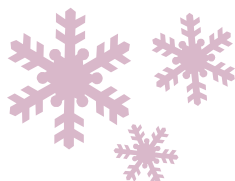

The Council of Catholic Women and St. Peter's Men's Club is sponsoring an Irish dinner in Heritage Center on Sunday, March 17, after the 11:00 Mass. Come join us for a corned beef and cabbage dinner with all the trimmings, as well as dessert and Irish beverages. We will have a limerick contest and a raffle.

The cost is $15 per person—ages 10 and over—and family packages are available for $30 with children under 10. Sign up after Mass on March 9/10. Your paid reservation is your ticket.

Global Solidarity Sunday This Weekend

March 10 is designated Global Solidarity Sunday in the Archdiocese when we will offer special prayers and support to our brothers and sisters all over the world. On this Sunday, a special outreach collection will be taken for four global priorities of the U.S. Catholic Bishops that includes Africa, Latin America, Central and Eastern Europe, as well as many humanitarian activities of Catholic Relief Services. Please be as generous as you are able and support the gifts and talents of your brothers and sisters overseas. Thank you.

March is Minnesota FoodShare Month

Minnesota FoodShare is an annual campaign in March to help replenish supplies for Minnesota's food shelves. During the month of March Neighbors Food Shelf records and reports its receipts by weighing the pounds of food donated and counting the dollars contributed. These totals are reported to the Minnesota FoodShare office to determine proportional allocations. All dollars and food donated to our food shelf stays at Neighbors. A donation of cash or food to Neighbors Food Shelf goes directly to families in our area.

Again this year Neighbors has the opportunity to maximize your donation through a challenge grant from the Feinstein Foundation. The Feinstein Foundation supports food shelves by providing funds to agencies based on how much money raised during the month of March. Thank you for your support!

How's Your Prayer Life?

Could be better?

Thought so...join us as we learn how to pray!

The Archbishop Harry J. Flynn Catechetical Institute's Learn & Live Series will present an evening event on Praying the Liturgy of the Hours, a systematic approach of daily praying with the Church. The talk will be on Wednesday, March 20, from 7 to 9 p.m. at Holy Spirit Catholic Church in St. Paul. Practical step-by-step instruction will be provided by Catechetical Institute instructor and Director of the Institute for Diaconate Formation, Deacon Joseph Michalak.

This Learn & Live event is FREE and all are welcome to attend. Liturgy of the Hours—it's like scheduling a day with God from morning to night.

Please register at LearnandLive2.Eventbrite.com or by calling Patty at 651-962-6891.
