Second Sunday of LentMARCH 12, 2017

One of the great blessings in my week is the occasional opportunity to assist at daily Mass at St. Peter's. These rare opportunities typically occur on holidays, such as the most recent occasion of President's Day.

I arrived at Church, took some time in prayer and then went to the sacristy to vest for Mass. Soon after my arrival, I was greeted by the infectious smile of Father Sebastian, who greeted me with his usual humor. "Good Morning, Cardinal." On this day, Father Sebastian was accompanied by Bishop George Dodo, a visiting bishop from Nigeria. Needless to say, I was surprised and humbled to have the opportunity to serve beside such holy men.

In his homily, Bishop Dodo recounted an attack that happened several years ago, when his church in Nigeria was bombed by the Boko Haram. The bishop sustained injuries, and others died as a result of this violent act.

I will never forget how it felt standing at the altar next to Bishop Dodo and Father Sebastian. Here was the Church in all its glory, the Church of St. Peter in Mendota Heights, flanked by the Church in Nigeria. It was a beautiful blessing to raise the chalice at the end of the prayer of consecration, and feel the powerful presence of Christ in that moment and the unity of our Church around the world.

This Sunday, we read the story of the transfiguration, where Jesus takes Peter, James and John up on the mountain and reveals his Divinity to them. They are joined on the summit by Moses and Elijah, and soon the voice of the Father is heard. "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." It is hard to imagine the overwhelming joy, as they witnessed this miraculous manifestation. This was truly a mountain-top experience unlike any other!

Have you ever had one?

I am speaking, of course, of a "mountain-top" experience. It might have been a moment in prayer where you heard the Lord speak to you, and your heart was overcome by His love. Maybe it was a miraculous event in your life that forever changed you. Perhaps you have experienced that "mountain-top" moment during the Mass, when we experience a foretaste of the heavenly liturgy. Our loving God gives us these special moments of grace and blessing as a glimpse of what eternal life will be like one day.

For most of us, this earthly journey has many more valleys than mountain tops. Like the beloved disciples, we try to follow Jesus in our daily lives. We pray and we get distracted. Perhaps we intend to pray, something gets in the way and we don't get to our prayer. We struggle with the temptations of this world, despite our deep desire to love and serve the Lord.

There was something very significant and moving about what happened in our historic church on February 20, 2017. On an otherwise ordinary day, a diocesan priest from Africa brought a bishop from Nigeria to celebrate Mass with us. The bishop shared a painful story of religious persecution with those who were present. It was a story from a world away, and yet, there he was in our midst, a shepherd whose church was bombed by a militant group opposing Christianity. In the midst of the chaos, an 11 year old boy was about to be the latest victim, as he walked out of the church and into the angry crowd that pelted him with rocks and sticks. The brave bishop risked his own life to save that young boy.

As we, the Diaconate, the Presbyterate and the Episcopate, stood together at the altar, the fullness of holy orders was present before our community. I thought of the transfiguration experience when the Old Testament prophets Moses and Elijah joined Jesus and his disciples on God's holy mountain. And in case there was any doubt of the wonder of this moment, the Father spoke the blessing of beloved-ness upon this enclave of holy men. Here on this holy mountain was the fullness of God's providential plan, as the givers of the old law were joined by the One who would teach a new law of love.

Jesus has the power to transfigure us if we let Him. Jesus wants to take away our sin and make us dazzlingly white with the brightness of his Light shining through our hearts. As we journey through this Lenten season, let's be grateful for both the "mountain-top" experiences, as well as our moments down in the dark valley. Jesus is with us through all of these moments. And let us today take a moment to pray for the persecuted church, both here and around the world.

Blessings on your Lenten Journey,

Deacon Tim

Those taking advantage of the dispensation, however, are exhorted to undertake a work of charity, an exercise of piety or an act of comparable penance on some other occasion during the Second Week of Lent."

PERPETUAL ADORATION IS COMING TO ST. PETER'S

"Come and spend some quality time with Me!" These are the words that Jesus calls out to all of us. As many of you have heard, Fr. Steven recently made an announcement that St. Peter's will institute Perpetual Adoration in the near future. What Perpetual Adoration means is that 24 hours per day, 7 days a week, Jesus can be "visited" in the Blessed Sacrament, encased in a Monstrance where He is fully present in Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. On any day, at any time, you can come to St. Peter's Adoration Chapel to experience the full presence of Jesus and spend quality time with Him, which He longs for.

There are currently approximately 43 Perpetual Adoration Chapels in the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis. It was St. John Paul II's hope that one day all Catholic parishes, all over the world, would have a Perpetual Adoration Chapel. We have put together a team of parishioners to create a process that will establish a strong and vibrant Adoration program. We hope that all parishioners will be part of this wonderful opportunity to experience the love of Jesus in this special way.

In the upcoming months, there will be group meetings to learn about Perpetual Adoration, the benefits to our parish and to individuals, how to get involved, and how we will give glory and praise to Jesus.

For more information you may contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org or Mark Mischke at 651-481-6900.

PASTORAL MINISTRY

FOLLOWING JESUS

In the gospel today, Jesus received heavenly consolation and encouragement before entering into the trials of his suffering and death, which became divine consolation and support for the disciples, as well. If you are presently facing any trials or hardships in your life, look to heaven for divine consolation, which the Holy Spirit can give in many forms to fortify and strengthen you. "Come Holy Spirit, come to my side."

LENT SPEAKER SERIES 2017

Living by the Power of the Holy Spirit Through Faith, Hope and Love

St. Peter's will continue to hold the Lenten Speaker Series on Tuesday, March 14, and 28, in Heritage Center, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., beginning with the speaker and ending with refreshments and fellowship.

Among the gifts given to us in our baptism by the Holy Spirit are three powerful virtues: Faith, Hope and Love. Come and join us as we set out to deepen our understanding of how to live by these virtues and lean on them in moments of doubt and fear, weakness and discouragement. Everyone is welcome. We invite you to bring a friend!

Remaining topics and speakers are:

March 14: The Gift of Love with Fr. Andrew Jaspers

March 28: The Gift of Hope with Elizabeth Kelly

Childcare will be provided for children ages 6 months to 11 years. Registration for the childcare is REQUIRED in advance one week prior to attendance.

I AM BELOVED

You are invited to spend a morning of retreat reflecting on what it means to believe that you are a beloved daughter or son of God. It is important to embrace wholeheartedly the truth of your beloved-ness. One of the first and most important steps to discipleship is acceptance of the Divine love that is unconditionally ours. Only then can we begin to explore how Christ invites us to respond to His love.

Choose from 2 dates! Wednesday, March 22, OR Saturday, March 25, 9:30 a.m. to 1p.m.

All participants must register by Friday, March 17. Please contact our parish office at 651-452-4550 or Lisa Amos at 651-905-4303 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org to register.

Childcare (for ages 6 months to 11 years) is available for SATURDAY session ONLY, with advance registration by Wednesday, March 15. We will begin our retreat in the Main Church with Adoration. FREE WILL donations will be gratefully accepted. A light soup lunch will be served.

It is a wonderful resource for all of Minnesota's food shelves. Neighbors, Inc. is grateful for everyone's donations and appreciates how carefully people have shopped for items needed throughout the year.

Our parish's goal for this year's campaign is to collect 4,500 pounds/dollars for Neighbors, Inc. Special grocery bags were distributed last weekend. Please consider filling these bags with your food donations and returning them to St. Peter's by April 2.

Financial donations are also accepted. Each dollar donated is the equivalent to one pound of food. You may place your monetary donation in the collection basket at Mass. Please mark envelopes clearly. Make checks payable to Neighbors, Inc. and note "Church of St. Peter" on the check's memo line. You may also donate at www.neighborsmn.org/donate-neighbors.
