Third Sunday of LentMarch 4, 2018

Oftentimes, I find inspiration in very strange places -- at least, I assume they are strange places. I don't often hear of such ruminations on similar trivialities. Still, I suppose it is a blessing to have such oddball musings from time to time.

All the snow of the past week certainly made way for a strenuous weekend. However, all the great experiences of faith in my life went hand-in-hand with a sense of being physically spent. Having just exhausted myself at the end of a long day, I guess I was primed for a tiny revelation.

I found it a strange comfort that, as I shoveled my driveway at 11:30 last Saturday night, (because the Mass must go on in the morning, and I have a responsibility to be there), that I could find the concrete under all that snow. It made me think, "there's God."

Of course that isn't to say that my driveway is divine, but that, under the layers and mounds of my circumstances and problems, a strong foundation remains.

We could see things in numerous ways in this situation, but I think way too many of us see God in the shovel, which absolves us from trusting or believing in Him when the snow is gone. Before I go on, I'll confess that this metaphor is highly limited, so I will try to confine my thoughts, and refrain from attempting to extend this image beyond its utility.

It is tempting, I admit, to see God as the one who fixes our earthly predicaments, but such a point of view merely limits God's role, and confines God to that of, at best, a helper -- far short of what we really need. Our brokenness, our inability is more radical than handling the trials and tribulations of this life. In fact, we are capable of handling those obstacles. It is the two inches of ice that encrust and insulate our souls that are the greater issue.

When we find trouble in this life, mere deliverance is simply too small a task for God, especially when our existence is at stake. God would not have sent the Eternal Word for our earthly comfort. We wouldn't need a savior if that were so. Rather, it's our stubbornness towards the love of God that renders us immobile, that traps us in the driveway.

Many of us can honestly contend that we've never, or only long ago, felt the love of God. Perhaps, though, it's less that God isn't so forthcoming with His love, and more that we look for it in the wrong places. Make it your project this Lent to seek God in new places, apart from where we look most often. And be honest with God about it in prayer. Tell Him you are looking for Him, open to catching a glimpse of Him in the small, the unexpected, the trivial or even that which we take for granted, overlook and dismiss.

Even though there's a foot of snow, the wind is blowing, and there's a layer of ice that you can't pry off, the driveway is there for you, to support you, to be your way through. God doesn't vanish because there are unnumbered obstacles, but as a rule, He doesn't clear away the obstacles.

YOUTH NEWS AND FAITH FORMATION

FAITH FORMATION

Wednesday, March 7

Reconciliation Services for Grades 2 – 8

Grades 2 – 8 will participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation during their regular class times. Students will meet in the Gathering Space and go to the Main Church together, as a class.

Parents and family are welcome to join us and participate in the Sacrament as well.

Saturday, March 10

The First Communion Mini-Retreat is for all students in the First Communion Program. Students need to be at church by 9 a.m. Parents will return at 11:30 for a rehearsal, pot luck lunch and banner making. If you have any questions, please contact Kathy Raible at 651-905-4311.

KIDS' CHANGE FOR KIDS: TO UGANDA WITH LOVE

During Lent, we are asked to give alms. In order to encourage our youth and children to follow this Lenten practice, we are sponsoring a child in Uganda. Please have children and youth bring in money that they have earned to help support this child. They may bring the money to their religion class and put it in the can located on the teacher's desk. All proceeds go to support this child. We will continue to collect money throughout the Lenten season.

RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS

The Random Acts of Kindness Cross is in the Gathering Space by the elevator. Each time you perform a random act of kindness - an act you perform because of a "desire to connect, to lend a helping hand and/or to extend ourselves out into the world"—please put a tissue paper flower into the cross. By Easter, we will have a blooming cross of kindness!

BOOK GROUPS

Small faith groups are a wonderful way to form relationships of support and encouragement with others who share your love of Jesus. Book study groups are a terrific way to start. If you have thought about gathering friends in your home or local venues, but don't know where to begin, we can help! Fr. Steven has put together a spiritual reading book study guide, and we can recommend books. The titles by Fr. Jacques Philippe in our resource center are just right for this type of study. For further book suggestions or a copy of the reading guide, contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

PASTORAL MINISTRY

FOLLOWING JESUS

In the Gospel for this Sunday, we are reminded that, besides a physical thirst, we all have a deep spiritual thirst. Jesus is very much aware of this thirst in our hearts and reveals that he is the only one who can quench it. The purpose of our Lenten fasting and abstinence is to become more aware of this inner spiritual thirst for God. Psalm 63 gives words to this thirst: "Oh God, you are my God. For you I long; for you my soul is thirsting." Let's accompany our fasting with these words, as we follow Jesus during these forty days.

EASTER FLOWERS

We are now accepting donations for Easter flowers in memory or honor of a loved one. If you would like to make a donation, please pick up an envelope on the information counter in the Gathering Space. Fill out the information and drop it off at the parish office or return it through the Sunday collections by Monday, March 26. All names will be listed in a flyer in our Easter bulletin.

MINNESOTA FOOD SHARE MARCH CAMPAIGN

The face of hunger is not what some people might expect. Many people seeking food assistance have jobs, raise families, work toward education and are active in their communities. Unfortunately, they also have to make difficult trade-offs to get enough food for their families.

Find out how much God has given you and from it take what you need. The remainder is needed by others.

~ Saint Augustine

Special grocery bags will be distributed for you to take home after Mass today and again on March 10 and 11. Please consider filling these bags with your food donations and returning them to St. Peter's by April 8. Monetary donations are also encouraged. Each dollar donated is the equivalent to one pound of food. You may place your monetary donation in the collection basket at Mass. Address the envelope to Neighbors, Inc. and write "Church of St. Peter" on the check's memo line.

ADORATION CHAPEL

During Lent, prayer, fasting and almsgiving are wonderful spiritual practices that can help us grow closer to Christ. Often, we may wonder how we are to know whether they are working? These are just a few of the ways we can evaluate our efforts. First, anytime we try to do God's will, we grow closer and more in tune with Him, whether we realize it or not. We have to trust Him and not rely on feelings, because sometimes feelings betray us or are inaccurate, but He never will. Secondly, the discernment gained in our Perpetual Adoration Chapel, during quiet time in front of the Blessed Sacrament, may help us to get in touch on a deeper level with Jesus. This is where we may get a sense that we are doing the right things and are on the right path. Lastly, we can give of ourselves. When we offer our time, talent and treasures back to the Lord for His purposes, it's a pretty safe bet that we are growing closer to Christ.

The chapel is closed for Masses. If you need a sub for your hour, please refer to our substitute roster to cover your hour in advance. Contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or at lamos@stpetersmendota.org to sign up for an hour of adoration. We still need adorers at the following hours:

Early Morning		Daytime		Evening
Monday	2 to 3 am	Sunday	2 to 3 pm	Sunday	5 to 6 pm
Wednesday	1 to 2 am	Sunday	4 to 5 pm	Friday	7 to 8 pm

JESUS APPROACHES: WOMEN'S SCRIPTURE STUDY

Join local author and speaker, Liz Kelly, in an 8-week study based on her new book: Jesus Approaches, What Today's Woman Can Learn about Healing, Freedom and Joy from the Women of the New Testament. By immersing ourselves in the stories of Jesus and the New Testament women, we will grow in confidence and skill in praying with scripture and in making the Gospel story our own. Strengthen the tether between your heart and the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and join us this Spring. Register early as space is limited, and we do sell out.

Here is the link to the Women's Scripture Study event page, which is now online: http://rediscover.archspm.org/rediscover_events/womens-scripture-study-jesus-approaches/.

CONNECTING WITH OTHERS TO BUILD COMMUNITY.

ATTENTION ALL ST. PETER'S PANCAKE PEOPLE!

Pancakes are one of the best-loved foods throughout the globe. In good times or in bad, they have the remarkable ability to bring people together. In the past few years, the parishioners at the Church of St. Peter have come to be known as the St. Peter's Pancake People because of the large quantities of pancake mix and syrup they donate to the food shelf at Neighbors, Inc.

A woman who had been living in her car for almost two years came to Neighbors, Inc. for help. Her courage, gratitude, and joy were inspiring. She worked full time and yet she was homeless. She had chosen to give up her home in order to keep her car, maintain her health care plan, and pay her other bills. She told the remarkable story of how she had survived by living in her car, showering at truck stops, and storing fresh water in gallon jugs in her car. At one point she had secretly lived in a storage shed.

With the help of many community services and volunteers, she was moving into her first home in almost two years, a worn out trailer in a local trailer court. The trailer was dirty and in need of repair. Neighbors, Inc. provided her with a few cooking and eating utensils along with some linens and cleaning supplies. They gave her an old electric skillet because her new home had no stove or oven. When given a box of pancake mix, she hugged it and cried. "The first thing I am going to do when I move into my new home is to cook up these pancakes," she said. "It will be the first home cooked meal I have had in two years!"

Your donation of pancake mix and syrup is doing more than just feeding the hungry. You are sending the message to those who need us saying they have not been forgotten and they are valuable members of our community. You are connecting with others to build community.
