Sixth Sunday of Easter

Reflections from our Pastor

My dear friends,

In keeping with the month of May, I thought it may be helpful to reflect together on the role of Mary in our Christian life. How important it is for us to know our faith with regard to Mary, for our protestant brothers and sisters are very concerned about us on this point. Many of them think, for example, that we worship Mary, that we place her on an equal footing with God, with her son Jesus Christ. They wrongly think that our relationship with her diminishes Christ's role as the sole mediator between God and man. Asking Mary to pray for us, or any of the Saints, is for them the same as saying that Christ's work of redemption was not sufficient to save us. If we did in fact believe these things, we would be in error. But thankfully the problem is not our faith, but rather misconceptions about our faith that circulate in our culture. If only those who accuse us of heresy would carefully read our catechism or any of the official documents of the Church, how quickly they would find out for themselves what we truly believe, and how misinformed they are.

Personally, I have never found Mary to be a hindrance to my faith in Christ—if anything, it has only helped and enhanced it. Mary has never put herself forward in such a way that she distracted me from her Son. When I became Catholic at the age of 21, to welcome Mary as my Mother was as right and natural as putting butter on bread. Later on, I learned that this was actually what Jesus himself wanted me to do, revealing His wish upon the Cross when He gave Mary to John, and John to Mary. “Woman, behold your son; John, behold your Mother.” Just as John welcomed Mary into his heart and home, Jesus asks us to do the same.

As for honoring Mary, I do not see the problem. God asks me to love and honor my earthly mother, a mother whom I will also love and honor when she goes to heaven. This is what God asks us all to do in the fourth commandment. If this be the case with my own mother, why would I not especially love and honor the Mother of God, who bore in her womb Jesus, the Son of God? Inspired by the Holy Spirit, Mary said herself that “all generations will call (her) blessed.” (Lk 1:48) By the very fact that she bears the title “Mother of God,” she deserves this special honor. Her cousin Elizabeth felt this great honor when she said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. How is it granted to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me?” (Lk 1:42-43)

Perhaps some have issue with the notion of “consecration to Mary,” which we find in the writings of certain Saints. I, too, struggled with this concept for a time, for the word “consecration” seemed a bit too strong, a word that should only be used for one's relationship to God. But as with other misunderstandings, it's often a matter of knowing how a certain word is being used and how it is understood in a given context. A priest I met while living in Texas helped me with this by saying that what is meant by “consecration to Mary” is really about accepting Mary's maternal love and allowing it to influence our lives. Anyone who has done this will find that, by drawing near to Mary, she will draw you near to God. “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord . . . Holy is His name.” (Lk 1:47, 49)

Among all our Catholic practices, the one that really makes the hair stand up on the necks of some people is our praying to Mary. But here, too, it is a matter of understanding this practice correctly. When we pray to Mary, we are well aware that she is not God. We do not see her as a fourth person of the Blessed Trinity, and we are not putting her in God's place. When we ask Mary to pray for us, we are simply living out another beautiful teaching, the Communion of Saints. St. Paul exemplified this beautifully throughout his life, often telling the first Christian communities that he was praying for them. Paul would also ask them to pray for him and his mission. (1Th 1:2 / 2Th 1:11) We, too, ask for each others' prayers. If we do this with each other, why would we not also ask those who are most fully alive with God in the Kingdom of heaven, those perfectly united to God's will, who love as God loves? Because of a special privilege granted to her by God, Mary is rightly hailed as the greatest among the Saints in this Blessed Communion. It is through her loving intercession that she often exercises her unique maternity over us, leading us to her Son, helping us to know and do the will of God and encouraging us on the way of salvation. “Do whatever He tells you.” (Jn 2:5)

Let us not be dissuaded by those who disagree with our love and devotion to Mary. Let us pray for them, that they, too, may discover the gift of Mary within God's design and plan of salvation, that they may know the blessing of her motherhood. “Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death.”

God love you,

Fr. Steven

St. Peter's Group Trip

Grotto of the Redemption in West Bend, Iowa

Join Father Steven and Lisa Amos for our next trip to The Grotto of the Redemption in West Bend, Iowa. The Grotto has been referred to by reviewers and critics as an "eighth wonder of the world" and described as a "miracle in stone." It was placed on the National Register of Historical Places in 2001. Each of nine separate grottos portrays a scene in the life of Christ. The largest man-made grotto in the world, the Grotto of the Redemption contains the largest collection of precious stones and gems found anywhere in one location.

On Thursday, June 9, we will depart in our coach bus from St. Peter's at 8 a.m. Father Steven will begin our day with thoughts on the rosary and, upon our arrival, celebrate Mass with us in the Saints Peter and Paul Church at the Grotto. We will take a break for lunch at a nearby restaurant and return to the Grotto for tours and exploration. We will leave West Bend at approximately 3 p.m. for our 6:30 p.m. arrival back at St. Peter's.

Reservations are limited, so reserve your spot now by contacting Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org. The cost is $65 per person, which includes the tour, lunch and bus. Reservation deadline is May 30. Parishioners will receive priority reservations until the deadline has passed or all seats are taken. ALL reservations must be paid in advance by the registration deadline and are non-refundable. We look forward to seeing you there!

Heritage Center Rental Information

The Church of St. Peter has one of the most beautiful fellowship spaces in the Archdiocese, and we are often times asked if it is available for rent. We do rent space in our buildings, but it is important to note that we are very careful and selective in who we rent to and when we rent our buildings. The following is taken from our Heritage Center Rental Packet. "The campus of the Church of St. Peter exists to assist in our parish mission of serving as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. Our church buildings are designed for worship and to forward the Kingdom of God. Therefore, we are selective in their general use and the rental of the buildings and grounds."

It continues on to say "The worship, sacramental, education, pastoral, social and administrative work of the parish collectively takes precedence over other uses." We are consistently using our spaces for our own ministries such as education, meetings, speakers and hospitality. Outside of our own use, we will rent to the Archdiocese, Catholic schools and other religious institutions for meetings, retreats and special events. Our buildings are available for rent by parishioners for personal use.

It is important to remember that we are a Catholic Church and are here first and foremost for worship, to educate and to celebrate as the followers of Jesus Christ. Therefore, certain activities that are not consistent with our mission and the best interests of the Church will be prohibited. All users of our spaces are asked to provide information on their event, and in certain circumstances, they may be denied use of our buildings.

If there are any questions on our policies, or if you are interested in renting Heritage Center or other spaces on our campus, please contact Mary in the parish office at 651-905-4307.

Volunteer Opportunities

Co-Chair for all activities

The role of co-chair is a great way to become involved in our Fall Festival. Each "event" has an experienced volunteer (chairperson) to plan and set up the event. The co-chair learns the ins and outs of that event during the planning months prior to the Festival, and by the day of the Festival, can run the event. Each chair takes a 2-hour shift, allowing both to enjoy the other Festival events.

Chair person for the Country Store

We are re-introducing the Country Store this year!

Our goal is to have parishioners and /or friends and family of parishioners, donate baked goods and crafts to sell at the store. We are looking for a person or group of people to make the Country Store a success!

General Volunteers

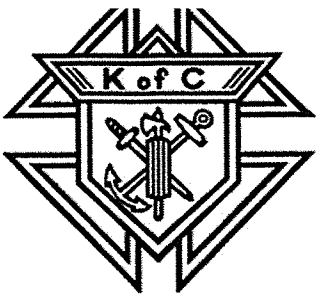

One hour of volunteering on the day of the Fall Festival leaves you with three hours to attend all the other activities!

We always need volunteers for the set-up and the clean-up as well!

If you have questions or are interested in volunteering,
contact Gail Barta at 651-454-9552

Consider being a business sponsor for this wonderful parish event. We will display the name of your business on various boards throughout our parish leading up to and on the day of the event. For Sponsorship information, Contact Anne O'Keefe at 651-905-4308 or aokeefe@stpetersmendota.org
