

May 25, 2014
Sixth Sunday of Easter

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Pastoral Associate

The history of Memorial Day is a long one and, like so many other holidays we mark, its beginnings are just mysterious enough to lend some romance to the celebration. Although not declared a national holiday by federal law until 1967, it's widely believed that this day, originally called "Decoration Day" has been observed in our country since the Civil War.

This solemn day is very different from its November counterpart, Veterans Day. Veterans Day is the day we show our gratitude to all those who serve or have served. Although it is often misunderstood as a day to remember all of our dead, Memorial Day is meant to honor those men and women who have sacrificed their lives and who died while on active military duty. It seems fitting that the tradition of marking this day in cemeteries continues.

At St. Peter's, a parish so richly steeped in tradition, it is especially important that we respect and even embrace this custom. Every Memorial Day, our weekday Mass is moved to 10 a.m. so that we may accommodate the Memorial Day service in our cemetery following Mass. We are joined by the Mendota VFW's Honor Guard. Just as early Decoration Day ceremonies did, we have a service that combines our religious faith and the military honors our fallen soldiers deserve. Also in keeping with past practices, we have an opportunity to share in a meal with one another, provided by the VFW at their hall in Mendota.

I am not so naïve to forget that for many people Memorial Day also marks the beginning of summer. The first 3-day weekend of our much anticipated, and sorely needed, summer season. For many of you, this is the first chance to get to your lake cabin and start getting it ready for family and friends. For some, including the Amos's this year, it's the last weekend before high school graduation and the pressure is on to get our graduate—and ourselves—ready for ceremonies, family visits, and perhaps a big party. For the parents of our 10th graders, it's the weekend before Confirmation and many preparations are on the list. I would not presume to suggest that we forgo all of those necessary items. The soldiers we remember died because they believed in a country that afforded us the freedom to celebrate one another, to raise our children how we see fit, because they believed in the inherent beauty and dignity of every human person.

Amidst the business of everyday life, especially that particular business of the three-day weekend, I would suggest, however, that we carve out just a couple hours to observe why it is we are fortunate enough to have this weekend. The men and women who fought and sacrificed so that we might have it surely deserve a couple hours of our Monday. Our family has always been incredibly moved by the services taking place in our community. The one here at St. Peter's is no exception. It is important to Joe and I that we teach the kids where their freedom comes from. We want them to know how incredibly lucky they are to have been born in a country that values freedom and respect so much that people have been willing to die for it.

Sadly, many of the graves of our military dead are neglected and in disrepair. Perhaps you might pick up a few flowers and a small American Flag on your next trip to buy groceries and walk through a nearby cemetery on Monday. Find a grave or two that look like they could use your help. Many fallen soldiers' graves designate their sacrifice in some way.

If you fly an American Flag at your home or workplace, use this as an opportunity to refresh your understanding of flag etiquette. On Memorial Day, the flag is properly raised quickly to full staff, and then lowered to half mast until noon, when it is again raised to full staff. Add prayers of gratitude to your family prayers this weekend. We can offer thanksgiving to God for sending us such strong, brave protectors. We can offer our prayers for their souls.

Artificial red poppies have been a symbol of our thanks since 1915 when a woman named Moina Michael began making and selling them to raise money for the widows and orphans of soldiers who died in France and Belgium. By the 1920s, they were worn to honor those who had died and continue to be a way for us to offer our thanks for the lives given by caring for those loved ones they left behind. We can make an effort to carry a few dollars so that we can buy one or two from the veterans we see selling them. We can wear them proudly and gratefully.

Please consider coming out on Monday morning. Pray with us at 10 a.m. in the Historic Church, or join us in the cemetery following Mass. Maybe you will be inspired to attend both. Bring the kids if you have them. There's plenty of room at the cemetery for them to spread out. We hope to hear their special "kid at Mass" noises that remind us that life goes on with joy and hope. This Memorial Day, let us remember.

*"Rest, comrades, rest and sleep!
The thoughts of men shall be
As sentinels to keep
Your rest from danger free.*

*Your silent tents of green
We deck with fragrant flowers;
Yours has the suffering been,
The memory shall be ours."*

(Excerpt, Henry Wordsworth Longfellow's Decoration Day)

Youth Ministry

The Workcamp Car Wash is coming on Sunday June 8! Just park your car in the lower lot during the 9 or 11 a.m. Masses and we'll wash it for you before Mass is over! Free will donations will be accepted.

Remember that you can always continue to support Workcamp by dropping off all your empty aluminum cans in our green can trailer in the lower parking lot. Please remember we can only accept aluminum cans: not plastic, glass, metal, etc... We have an organization that matches all of our funds from the can trailer, so your cans always count double!!

You can also donate empty printer ink cartridges and old cell phones to Workcamp. Just look for the donation box in the coat room.

Fr. Kevin's 40th Ordination Anniversary

This year, former St. Peter's pastor, Fr. Kevin Clinton, will mark 40 years in the priesthood. Fr. Kevin served over 17 years in our community, so it is only fitting that we celebrate his ordination anniversary in some way. On June 14, Fr. Kevin will be with us to celebrate the 5 p.m.

Mass and a reception will follow in Heritage Center. All parishioners are warmly invited to stay for light refreshments and offer their anniversary well wishes to Fr. Kevin.

Annual Giving

Weekly Contribution Summary:

The weekly contribution summary was not available this week at the time the bulletin was printed. Two weeks of information will be published next weekend.

Attention: Business Owners, Professions and Self Employed

Liturgical Publications Inc (LPi), our directory publisher, will have Tim Browne, our directory representative, visiting our parish next week to service our directory. We would like to thank our present advertisers for renewing their ad and thereby continuing their support of our parish. For those interested in placing a new ad, this is your opportunity.

Our directory is a primary way we use to communicate with you. Through our arrangement with the Liturgical Publications Inc, the parish does not pay for the directory printing, which saves us thousands of dollars every year. Our directory is supported through the generosity of the advertisers—many of whom are our own parishioners or members of our local community. During these difficult economic times, please support our advertisers with your patronage. Tell the business owner that you appreciate their support of our parish through their advertising in the directory. This is one small way we can work within our own community to weather these challenging times. A strong and vibrant directory is good for our community and a strong business community is good for our parish.

As an added bonus, LPi has recently formed an advertisers buying group of 100,000+ businesses called LPi Family. Advertisers now can save more than the cost of an ad in buying group savings. Membership in the LPi Family buying group is FREE to all of our advertisers. To learn more about how LPi Family can reward you for being our advertiser please check out their website at www.4LPi.com/family.

To obtain information about advertising for the new publication year, please contact the parish office or call Tim Browne directly @ 1-800-678-4574 ext 4050. Keep in mind our advertising sponsors make the directory possible.

Neighbors Food Shelf

May is our month to stock Neighbors Food Shelf. Each of the member parishes in this area is assigned to a month. Although we collect and deliver food to them all year, May is the time when they especially depend on us. Your donations of nonperishable items are very welcome and can be dropped off in the appropriately marked boxes at the office entrance or the coat room in the Gathering Space.

If you write out a check, make it payable to Neighbors Inc. and we will forward the monies to them. Thank you!

Our Annual Parish Directory

The annual parish directory will be available in the fall for all registered parishioners. This is not the kind of directory that includes photos. It will include last name, head of household and spouse, address, and phone number. If you have an unlisted number and would like it listed in this directory, or if you request other changes; i.e., no name, phone number, address, etc., please contact Darlene Olson at 651-905-4302 or dolson@stpetersmendota.org.

Historic Church Memorial Fund

May we suggest a gift to the Historic Church Memorial Fund as a gift to remember someone special, living or deceased. Cards are available on the Information Counter in the Gathering Space and the parish office.

Church of St. Peter cemetery lots

In 1984, our cemetery was recognized as a historic site. We want our parishioners to know that lots and columbarium niches are available at this time. If you want any further information, please call the parish office at 651-452-4550.

Memorial Day Mass will be celebrated on Monday, May 26, at 10 a.m. in the Historic Church. You are invited to come to St. Peter's Cemetery between 11 a.m. and noon for a flag-raising ceremony by the VFW.

The parish office will be closed on Monday, May 26, in observance of Memorial Day. Enjoy your holiday weekend!

Minute Memo from Ms. Shimshock

The definition of wonder reads: to be filled with awe; to marvel. I marvel when I look back at how far we have come from last year at this time. I marvel at the people God has put in our path over this last year, the things we have accomplished and the trials we endured as a community. I am in awe of the wonderful community that we are and am reminded of His help in achieving these milestones.

*Remember the wonders he has done.
1 Chronicle 16:12*

It is hard to believe that we have nearly completed another school year at Faithful Shepherd. Looking back at our three big objectives around Fiscal Responsibility, Communication and Curriculum and Instruction, we have made great gains. Our new Enrollment Marketing Coordinator in conjunction with our marketing committee have worked feverishly to get our name into the community with attendance at many outside events this year. Our increased presence has also been felt at our three parishes where the work has included updating bulletin boards with our new branding, engaging the parish preschools and a general increase in FSCS presence at the weekend Masses. Fiscally, both the development and finance committee have worked hard to achieve our $250,000 fundraising goal. We are almost there! From the curriculum and instruction goal we have evaluated our English Language Arts targets, implemented a new anti-bullying curriculum in grades 3-5 to coordinate with our middle school curriculum, implemented STEAM classes into our middle school along with being in our second year implementation of Chromebooks in our middle school. Thank you from all of us at Faithful Shepherd for your support this year.

From the Suggestion Box

- Q: The pulpit should be moved from center field fence to second base. Then we could hear the sermon.
- A: Thank you for writing this in such a light-hearted manner for a serious problem. You did put a smile on our faces when we received it.

Assuming that the real issue is in hearing and understanding the priest during his homily; you have touched upon a problem that we have heard more than once. The volume of a speaker really depends upon a number of items including the speakers tone, their ability to project, the actually sound of their voices and even how far they stand from the microphone. Quite simply put some people are just easier to hear and understand than others.

While we can certainly suggest effective speaking methods for the lectors and priests it is unfortunately impossible to dictate exactly how one will speak. If anyone finds that they are not able to hear clearly from where they are sitting, sometimes just moving to another area in the church will help. We also have hearing devices that are available from the ushers if the problem continues. In the mean time we will do our best to enforce how important it is for all lectors and priests to speak clearly and we will adjust the volume of our sound system if need be.

On another note, this prompted the research of why the altar and ambo are placed in the locations they are. According to our Dedication Brochure from when the church was built the following was given as an explanation for their location:

“The proximity of the altar and ambo to each other is a fitting reminder of the close relationship between the Word of God and the Eucharist. Both the Bread of Life and the Word of Life nourish and feed all those who come to worship.”
