The Most Holy Trinity

From the Pastor's Desk

I have terrific news! The Saint Paul Seminary has asked St. Peter's to host one of the transitional deacons this summer. Two weeks ago I was able to tell you that much, but now I can introduce the Rev. Mr. Joseph Kavuma, who is studying in St. Paul and who will be ordained to serve as a priest in the Archdiocese of Kampala in Uganda. It is a wonderful coincidence that the seminary staff assigned him to our parish without knowing that St. Peter's has a connection to a parish in another part of Uganda. Deacon Joseph attended college seminary in his own country, and has already been at the Saint Paul Seminary for three academic years. On May 4 he was ordained to the diaconate, and he will serve our parish as a deacon from June 4 through August 15 while continuing to live in the seminary residence, which is about 15 minutes away.

You will have a chance to meet Deacon Joseph personally once he arrives, and you will see him whenever you come to Mass. He will always assist liturgically as deacon, and will preach every other Sunday and on two weekdays each week. I am sure that Deacon Joseph will happily accept invitations to the homes of St. Peter's parishioners if you would be kind enough to invite him. Please do keep that in mind as we welcome him to our parish.

This month I passed the 20-year mark since my graduation from the University of Notre Dame. I haven't been back to my alma mater since my 10-year reunion, so I really want to go back now. The reunion is next weekend, so I will miss the Sunday Masses here on June 2 and its vigil. In fact, I am going to extend my trip by a day and so I will be away from Friday, May 31 until late on Monday, June 3. I hope I remember my way around campus!

Next Sunday (when I will be in Indiana) is the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, a feast often called Corpus Christi. It is an important day for Catholics, as we celebrate in a heightened way the wonder of the Eucharist as the Body and Blood of Jesus. One way in which we do that is through Eucharistic processions. Every year since 1997, a procession has been held in either St. Paul or Minneapolis. This year on Corpus Christi the procession will begin at the Little Sisters of the Poor Holy Family Residence at 330 South Exchange Street and will go up the hill to the Cathedral of St. Paul. The procession will begin at 2:00, and at the conclusion of the procession, a special Holy Hour in honor of the Year of Faith will take place in the Cathedral, a Holy Hour called for by the Holy See as a way to commemorate this great Year of Faith. You are warmly invited to attend! To walk behind the Eucharist carried in procession is to give expression to our love for God. It is an act of exuberance for our faith, and we can all use opportunities to show a little of that, especially on Corpus Christi.

We have come to Memorial Day weekend. Many of us associate Memorial Day with the beginning of summer—a happy time that might well lead people to forget the reason for its existence. It is a day for honoring people who have died. But whom do we honor? Which people who have died? All Souls Day on November 2 is a day of prayer for all the dead. I once thought Memorial Day was pretty much the same. While it certainly is a good thing to remember all who have died, that is not the purpose of Memorial Day.

This is what the website (<http://www.va.gov/opa/speceven/memday/history.asp>) of the United States Department of Veterans Affairs says about Memorial Day:

“Three years after the Civil War ended, on May 5, 1868, the head of an organization of Union veterans — the Grand Army of the Republic (GAR) — established Decoration Day as a time for the nation to decorate the graves of the war dead with flowers. Maj. Gen. John A. Logan declared that Decoration Day should be observed on May 30. ... It was not until after World War I, however, that the day was expanded to honor those who have died in all American wars. In 1971, Memorial Day was declared a national holiday by an act of Congress, though it is still often called Decoration Day.”

It was then moved, as you might know, to the last Monday in May. So on that day we honor those who died serving the country.

I would like to invite you, if you will be in town, to come to morning Mass in the Historic church at 10:00 on Memorial Day. It will feature music—both sung acclamations and the songs you might expect on a national holiday. Later we can meet at the parish cemetery between 11:00 and noon and be ready to welcome the VFW honor guard who will be arriving at our cemetery after having led the honors at several others that morning. It only lasts a few minutes. I hope you will find some way to keep the meaning in this particular national holiday, and I wish you a happy Memorial Day!

As this bulletin goes to print we are still uncertain about how many people were killed in Monday's tornado near Oklahoma City. Please do pray for the souls of those who died so unexpectedly, and for all of those whose lives have been changed by the violence of that storm.

~Fr. Joseph Gallatin

Workcamp

Can Recycling for Workcamp

Are you, or anyone you know (family? neighbors?) hosting a graduation party this year? If so, please consider collecting all the aluminum cans used and bringing them to church to donate to Workcamp! Our green can trailer is located in the lower parking lot. We have an organization that matches any money we make from recycling cans, so all your cans are worth double. Bring in 2 garbage bags full, it's just like bringing in 4 bags! Every time the can trailer gets filled, we can make $250-$350 depending on the price of aluminum, and then that total gets matched. The faster we can fill the trailer, the more money we can make! If you are able to collect cans, but have difficulty getting them to St. Peter's, please contact Ed Overell at 651-905-4312 or coverell@stpetersmendota.org for assistance.

Parish Grounds Cleanup

The Men's Club will be coordinating a church cleanup on Saturday, June 8, from 8 a.m. to noon. Donuts and coffee start at 7:30 a.m. If you'd like to adopt one of the many gardens on the church grounds, please contact John Vogel at 651-454-5329 or Nancy Stanton at 651-686-9009. We are asking anyone interested in participating to bring a rake and garden tools to help clean up the grounds. The Men's Club will also be undertaking a large window cleaning project for all the windows overlooking the river. We will also be joined that day with participants from the local Boy Scouts working on an Eagle project.

Pastoral Ministry

Anointing of the Sick

St. Peter's will hold an Anointing of the Sick service on Sunday, June 9, at 12:30 p.m. Our pastoral visitation team will provide a light luncheon in Heritage Center. If you or a loved one are in need of the sacrament, please join us. If you have questions about whether the sacrament is appropriate for your circumstances, please see below or contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

The Church teaches about this sacrament: the sick person will be saved by personal faith and the faith of the Church, which looks back to the death and resurrection of Christ, the source of the sacrament's power, and looks ahead to the future kingdom that is pledged in the sacraments. Great care and concern should be taken to see that those of the faithful whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age receive this sacrament. A sick person may be anointed before surgery whenever a serious illness is the reason for the surgery. Elderly people may be anointed if they have become notably weakened even though no serious illness is present.

First Thursday Weekday Evening Mass

This is a friendly reminder that weekday evening Mass is celebrated in the Historic Church on the first Thursday of every month. Join us in the Historic Church on June 6 from 6:30-7 p.m.

Golf Tournament

St. Peter's will once again be co-hosting a golf tournament with Faithful Shepherd Catholic School on Saturday, June 15, at Emerald Greens Golf Course in Hastings. We will begin at 8 a.m., enjoy a morning of golf and have lunch at the golf course. All golfers will receive a welcome bag. Team prizes will be awarded for low, average and high score and individual prizes awarded for longest drive and longest putt.

Gather your friends and family together for a fun day of golf and fellowship while supporting both the Church of St. Peter's and our parish school—Faithful Shepherd. Registration forms are available on the Information Counter or the parish office.

If you are interested in becoming a sponsor or donate prizes for this event, please contact the parish office at 651-452-4550.

Minute Memo from Ms. Shimshock, Principal of Faithful Shepherd Catholic School

Mother Nature has tricked and confused us many times this spring, but the date tells us that the school year is almost over for another year. Our year has had its ups and downs, but through it all, our faith has been our constant. We are blessed to have a community that stands together and rallies around those that need us. During these summer months let us continue to be that light and strength that our faith asks of us. Thank you, Lord, for being our constant companion this year. Thank you, parish supporters, for your partnership.

*So then, whenever we have an opportunity,
let us work for the good of all,
and especially for those of the family of faith.*
~Galatians 6:10
