Reflections from our Pastoral Associate

*"The earth is full of the steadfast love of the Lord."
(Psalm 33)*

It is always a little intimidating to be asked to write something about the Holy Trinity. I find myself challenged to describe adequately this great, defining Mystery of our faith. And yet, it remains one of the most naturally appealing parts of the Church for me. What is it that I love so tremendously about the Trinity?

One theme that weaves its way consistently through reflections on the Trinity is relationship. It's not a surprise to me that I feel such an affinity with this belief. Our relationships drive us all. We are forged and fed by those with our God, in the Persons of both the Father and the Son, and those with each other, bound together by the exchange of love—the Holy Spirit. Our God is a communal God and all that God has created is meant to draw us ever closer to God and others.

This story, from Nouwen's book, Reaching Out, describes a visit from a former student, illustrating beautifully this loving relationship.

"We sat on the ground facing each other and talked a little about what life had been for us in the last year, about our work, our common friends, and about the restlessness of our hearts. Then slowly as the minutes passed by we became silent. Not an embarrassing silence but a silence that could bring us closer together than the many small and big events of the last year. We would hear a few cars pass and the noise of someone who was emptying a trash can somewhere. But that did not hurt. The silence which grew between us was warm, gentle and vibrant. Once in a while we looked at each other with the beginning of a smile pushing away the last remnants of fear and suspicion. It seemed that while the silence grew deeper around us we became more and more aware of a presence embracing both of us. Then he said, "It is good to be here" and I said, "Yes it is good to be together again," and after that we were silent again for a long period. And as a deep peace filled the empty space between us he said hesitantly, "When I look at you it is as if I am in the presence of Christ." I did not feel startled, surprised or in need of protesting, but I could only say, "It is the Christ in you, who recognizes the Christ in me." "Yes," he said, "He is indeed in our midst," and then he spoke the words which entered into my soul as the most healing words I had heard in many years, "From now on, wherever you go, or wherever I go, all the ground between us will be holy ground."

There's more to this than simply being "together" as community, though. St. Paul reminds us that we are family. "Brothers and sisters: For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him."(Romans 8:14-17)

There are experiences in each of our lives that affirm our place as an adopted daughter or son of God. Today, take some time to quietly sit with God and reflect on what experiences have helped you understand your relationship with God. This lovely story by Sr. Joan Chittister is helpful to me in my own reflection on this connection.

"Once upon a time, the story begins, some seekers from the city asked the local monastic a question: "How does one seek union with God?" And the Wise One said, "The harder you seek, the more distance you create between God and you." "So what does one do about the distance?" the seekers asked. And the elder said simply, "Just understand that it isn't there." "Does that mean that God and I are one?" the disciples said. And the monastic said, "Not one. Not two." "But how is that possible?" the seekers insisted. And the monastic answered, "Just like the sun and its light, the ocean and the wave, the singer and the song. Not one. But not two." (Wisdom Distilled From the Daily, p. 195)

Once we can consistently acknowledge our true relationship with God, we can turn our hearts to how we live in community with others. What relationships are whole and strong? What relationships do we have or see that are out of whack? How can the example of the love of the Holy Trinity help strengthen or heal those divisions? Perhaps the place to begin is to acknowledge the Christ within ourselves, and then recognize it in others.

Best Wishes Ed!

For the past 9 years, Ed Overell has been our Youth Coordinator and my colleague and friend. Ed has been a primary and essential element of the Religious Education/Faith Formation Department and a wonderful blessing to this parish. It is with sadness that I see him leaving this position. His ministry to our teens has left a lasting and inspiring imprint on many of their lives. His dedication and knowledge of youth, as well as his understanding and embodiment of our Catholic faith, will be sorely missed. Ed has shared his numerous abilities and skills with all of us. He has done everything from being the staff's unofficial English grammar wizard, to being a witness and model of faith to our youth, to giving interesting presentations to parishioners that have helped many grow in their spiritual development. We may even miss his immense knowledge of sports and his sense of humor! He has truly been an asset to St. Peter's parishioners, the staff and to me personally.

Please join us on Sunday, June 7, after the 9:00 and 11:00 Masses to celebrate Ed. The Council of Catholic Women is hosting a reception in Heritage Center in his honor. Take this special opportunity to thank Ed for his work and to wish him the best as he continues his journey as a minister to youth. We ask that you hold Ed and his family in your prayers through this time of transition and his search for where God most wants him to be.

Peace,
Kathy Raible
Director of Religious Education/Faith Formation

Sincere Sympathy

St. Peter's Parish extends its sympathy to the families and friends of John Dybdal and Cal Reinhardt, son of Tim and Lucy Reinhardt. We invite all to join us in praying that God may make them sharers in eternal salvation.

Our Annual Parish Directory

The annual parish directory will be available in the fall for all registered parishioners. This is not the kind of directory that includes photos. It will include last name, head of household and spouse, address, and phone number. If you have an unlisted number and would like it listed in this directory, or if you request other changes; i.e., no name, phone number, address, etc., please contact Darlene Olson at 651-905-4302 or dolson@stpetersmendota.org.

We're Celebrating!

The Church of St. Peter is celebrating 175 years as a parish, and our beautiful new church is celebrating ten years since its dedication. To commemorate both of these milestones, we're having one large Sunday Mass together at 10 a.m. on Sunday, July 12, along with a lot of FUN at events before and after Mass! More details to come in next week's bulletin flyer. Please join us!

Thank You From the Center for Mission

Dear Fr. Steven:

I want to thank you and your parish for supporting the Pontifical Good Friday Collection ($2,423.69) for Christians in the Holy Land. As you may know, keeping the Christian faith alive in the Holy Land has become very challenging. There is an urgent need to give hope for those who struggle in the land that Jesus' life, death and resurrection made holy.....

Dear Fr. Steven:

I am writing to thank you and your parish community for their recent contribution ($1,460) to the annual Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Your support provides vital assistance to Catholic missions here within the United States and her territories.....

Dear Fr. Steven:

I want to acknowledge receiving your parish offering ($940) to the Global Solidarity Sunday Collection. Thank you for providing needed aid to the pastoral ministries in Latin America and assisting in the restoration of the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. Thank you for showing solidarity with the emerging Church in Africa and providing ongoing support to the most vulnerable served by the efforts of Catholic Relief Services.....

Sincerely in Christ,

Deacon Mickey Friesen, D.Min.

Watch Your Valuables

Now that the weather is nicer, you may be tempted to leave your car windows open during Mass. Unfortunately people wander through our lots during Masses. We have many visitors using the bike paths around the church, and some of those bike riders do not need to be tempted. Please lock your vehicles and keep valuables out of sight.

Hearing and Vision Aids Available for Mass

If you find it hard to hear at Mass or your ability to participate is inhibited by difficulty reading the hymnal or worship aids, we can help with that. Please see one of our friendly ushers and let them know of your need. We have hearing devices and magnifiers available for you to use while you're here. Thank you.

Neighbors Food Shelf

Those who come to the Neighbors, Inc. food shelf are grateful for anything they are given. It is often the last chance to get food after other sources have run out. If you'd like to contribute to our local food shelf, please consider bringing any nonperishable food in to our donation bins, which can be found in the Gathering Space and up by the door to the parish offices. Some items that are most appreciated by those who rarely get "comfort food" are peanut butter, pancake mix, and syrup. Thank you for any way you can help!
