

May 4, 2014
Third Sunday of Easter

OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Youth Coordinator

A frequent question I hear from young people, is “why do we need organized religion?” It isn’t just young people either; there are many in our world today who don’t think our Church is necessary, and think that they can have a relationship with God and with Christ that will sustain them without having to go to church or join a religion. Whenever I am asked about this, I always quote a professor of mine from college, an Augustinian priest, who told us, “you can’t be Catholic alone. It isn’t possible.”

Directing the St. Peter’s Confirmation preparation program for the past 8 years, the thing that I have strived the most to help our candidates understand is that being Catholic means being a part of something bigger. As Catholics we are part of a community: our parish community, our local church community (our Archdiocese), and our universal church. A large part of our confirmation program for high school students is to try as much as we can to immerse them in the life of the parish. They participate in Mass by performing liturgical ministries, attend parish events, and hopefully participate in youth group. Our preparation program is somewhat unique in that we hold class on Sunday mornings and require Mass attendance as part of class. In fact, the candidates are told that “class starts at 9 in the Main Church.”

In this weekend’s Gospel, we hear the story of The Road to Emmaus. Two of Jesus’ disciples encounter him, but do not realize it until they see him break bread. And what is their immediate reaction? To run and find the eleven remaining apostles and share with them what they saw. They wanted to share their experience and their encounter with Christ with others; their friends, and those who share in their faith. Of the many wonderful elements of this story, this is but one for us to focus on: how often do we joyfully share our encounters with Christ? Maybe we tell our spouse or other family members. Do we post it on Facebook or Twitter? Do we call friends to tell them about our experience, the way we would to celebrate a new job, a raise, or an achievement by our children? At Workcamp, all campers are encouraged daily to share ‘God Sightings,’ a time that they saw God at work that day. ‘God Sightings’ are moments where we have no doubt that we are seeing God in action and that he is right there with us. ‘God Sightings’ are shared in small groups and also every night at program in front of the whole camp (usually over four hundred people). It becomes powerful to see how so many people are directly experiencing God’s love, presence, and providence on a daily basis. Like the disciples who were on the road to Emmaus, they want to share their encounters with Christ with everyone and spread his love.

Sometimes there are people who feel like they aren’t experiencing ‘God Sightings.’ I have tried the past few years to extend the discussion of ‘God Sightings’ to both Confirmation classes and also Wednesday night religion classes for our middle school students. Sometimes it is hard at first for our young people to realize when they have seen God. Hopefully, the more we talk about it, the more it stays with them. We all have encounters with Christ on a regular basis, the trick is being able to recognize it. It can be easy to take them for granted, and to chalk up an experience to coincidence or good luck. Just as the disciples did not recognize Christ as he walked with them to Emmaus, so do we frequently fail to recognize or identify his presence and providence in our lives.

So how do we become better attuned to recognizing ‘God Sightings,’ and more aware of these encounters we have with Christ? The more we move him to the forefront of our thoughts on a regular basis, the easier it becomes. The more we participate in the community of our faith, the easier it becomes. Jesus was (obviously) very smart. He knew that we would need each other to live the way he wanted us to live and to live the faith the way he intended us to live it. That is why he established the church for us as a community for support and growth. We are not alone in our faith. The parish community is not only intended to be a place for us to come for one hour on Sunday each week. It is a COMMUNITY, where we gather together, share together, grieve together, celebrate together, and LIVE OUR FAITH together. If you are struggling to recognize ‘God Sightings’ in your life, I encourage you to try and immerse yourself more deeply in the life of our parish. Don’t try to be Catholic alone. Join with other members of your community to help yourself grow in the life of the faith. If you are blessed to have regular ‘God Sightings’ that you do recognize, please share them with members of your community of faith, just as the disciples from the Gospel did. Share your experiences with your community, so that you may help it grow and bloom with God’s love. Maybe you can be a ‘God Sighting’ to others.

Please note that there was an error on the cover of last week's bulletin. On the cover was a list of children who are making their First Communion this year. The list was missing the name of Declan Wilson. My sincerest apologies to Declan and the Wilson family.

Save the Date!

Help bring in the first day of summer and help support your parish with a fun afternoon of golfing on Saturday, June 21, at Emerald Greens in Hastings.

Start planning now on getting your friends and family together for lunch, golf and fellowship. Watch the bulletin in the following weeks for additional information.

If you are interested in becoming a sponsor or donating prizes for this event, please contact the parish office at 651-452-4550.

Congratulations Susan Hanebuth

St. Peter's congratulates Sue Hanebuth for receiving the Neighbors Indeed Award from Neighbors, Inc. Here is what David Miller, volunteer coordinator at Neighbors, Inc. had to say about Sue and this wonderful award.

"The Neighbor Indeed Award recognizes outstanding individuals and groups who exemplify the Neighbors' Core Values: Respect, Empowerment, Compassion and Fairness during their volunteer service at Neighbors. Sue was nominated by both volunteers and staff and was selected by a review-committee to receive the Neighbor Indeed Award this year.

Sue demonstrates compassion for clients, staff, and volunteers. Everyone loves talking to Sue because she is a joy to be around. She has a personal mission to bring light to the world, and it shows in how she treats both clients and volunteers. No matter what the challenge may be, she always has a way of encouraging people and turning things around."

In addition, Sue has been working hard to share the gifts of our St. Peter's community with this terrific organization. Just recently, Sue made impressive changes to our March FoodShare collection drive and collected over 3,000 pounds at our parish!

Congratulations, Sue!

Hearing and Vision Aids Available for Mass
