Reflections from our Pastor

My dear friends,

What makes the celebration of the Feast of All Saints such a joyful feast and relevant to our simple, ordinary lives, is that the Christian women and men that we honor for their holiness and fidelity to Christ, are not just holy figures of a distant past. They are people who are still living, living in God's glorious presence, while at the same time, sharing with us a real and intimate bond of love and unity. As Catholics we believe in the Communion of Saints. It is this mystery that moved St. Paul to proclaim to the baptized of Ephesus, "You are no longer strangers and sojourners, but fellow citizens with the Saints, and members of the household of God."

So the Saints are present to us, loving us at every moment with God's own love, deeply interested in our lives and concerned for our salvation—wanting to express in numerous ways their friendship, to be in all things our brothers and sisters in Christ. It's wonderful to realize that there is this great throng of men and women who cherish us, pray for us, accompany us, and eagerly await our entrance into heaven.

This is one thing I have loved about being Catholic, our understanding of how real and actual is this communion with the Saints. All throughout my Catholic life, since the age of 22, God has given me different Saints at various times, and they have made it clear to me in various ways how much they wish to walk by my side and help me follow Christ in the way of salvation.

In the morning, at the end of my morning offering, I call upon these Saints to intercede for me and help me. One of them who has played a very significant role in my life is St. Therese of Lisieux, a Carmelite nun who died in 1897 at the age of 24. I was 27 years old when I read her autobiography, "STORY OF A SOUL." It was through her book that she introduced herself to me and became my spiritual sister.

One way she has helped me, and for which I am most grateful, is her teaching on the "little way." God gave her a very simple way of understanding holiness, of what it means to be a saint. Like her, I have wanted to become a saint, because I want to go to heaven, but like her, I am always deeply aware of my weaknesses, my imperfections, my littleness. And so her "little way" became a great comfort and encouragement for me, especially when life became hard or complicated. She often reminded me that the way to heaven is a simple path (not necessarily easy) but a simple path that consists entirely of doing all things with love, especially the most ordinary daily activities, and trusting our salvation entirely to the mercy of Jesus. This is how she puts it, speaking to our Lord:

"Yes, my beloved, this is how my life will be consumed. I have no other means of proving my love for you other than that of strewing flowers, that is, not allowing one little sacrifice to escape, not one look, one work, profiting by all the smallest things and doing them through love. I desire to suffer for love and even to rejoice through love; and in this way I shall strew flowers before your throne. I shall not come upon one flower without unpetalling it for you.

While I am strewing my flowers, I shall sing, for how could one cry while doing such a joyous action? I shall sing even when I must gather my flowers in the midst of thorns, and my song will be all the more melodious in proportion to the length and sharpness of the thorns."

It is because of her "little way," that I have always believed that St. Therese is a Saint for our time. She calls us to the heart of the Gospel, which is love, allowing the Holy Spirit to breathe God's love into all we do. By following her little way our kitchen counters, dining room tables, work benches, dash boards, and office desks become altars, places where the most ordinary activities become the means of offering our lives to God and serving others. Though I often fail to live out this little way, missing many opportunities to love, St. Therese is there to encourage me to place all my confidence and trust in God's mercy that comes to me through the Blood of Jesus—that precious blood that cleansed me at Baptism, and through the Sacrament of Reconciliation and other means, will continue to cleanse and purify all that is not yet transformed by love in my life.

Who are the special Saints in your life? It would be wonderful this week if we could share with each other stories about the Saints in our lives.

God love you,

Fr. Steven

Pastoral Ministry

Giving Tree

It may seem early to think about Christmas and the Giving Tree, but there are so many things that need to be done by those who work with the program that it is necessary to begin now so we have things ready for the families before Christmas. If you are aware of someone, yourself or others, in need of Christmas gifts from the parish, please use one of the flyers available in the Gathering Space to recommend them for the Giving Tree by Sunday, November 8. Your help in identifying recipients is very important. If you have any questions, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Newly Married Social Ministry

We have exciting news for couples married 5 years or less! We want to invite you to join others for evenings of fellowship and fun. The first of these events will be on Tuesday, November 10, from 6-7:30 p.m. at The Olive Grove, 720 Main Street, Mendota Heights. Cost per couple is only $10 and we will enjoy a short lesson in the use of gourmet balsamics and oils, taste testing and even ice cream. Beverages and snacks will also be provided. Please pre-register by Thursday, November 5. Registrations are limited to 15 couples. Direct inquiries and registrations to Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed Mass (All Souls)

On Monday, November 2, we will be celebrating the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. This is a special time to remember all of our loved ones who have gone before us in faith. Those who have had a loved one buried from St. Peter's within the last year have received a special invitation to this Mass but all are warmly invited to attend. Mass will be celebrated at 6:30 p.m. in the Main Church. Following Mass we will have a reception in Heritage Center. Please hold all who have died and their families in your prayers during the month of November.

Thank You Boy Scouts!

The boy scouts from St. Peter's Troop 264 spent a couple of hours last weekend picking up and raking our cemetery. They also did a tremendous job of clearing off partially covered and buried monuments. Thank you Scouts for a job well done!

St. Peter's Community News

Appalachia Christmas 2015

Last year's collection of gifts and shoeboxes for the "poorest of the poor" in Appalachia was a huge success. Many parishes in Minnesota contribute but, we here at St. Peter's, would like to double our collection. We can only do that through the help and generosity of our parishioners. As in the past, we will be collecting NEW GIFTS, clothing, toys, and household items until Sunday, November 8. On Monday, November 9, we will be packing the gifts to send to two parishes in Kentucky. We will also be filling SHOEBOXES at the request of Pope Francis to be included.

Heartfelt Thanks,
Kathi Dumond, Chair
Paula Ehrich, Vice-Chair

Papal Footprints

We are happy to announce the continuation of the Papal Footprints effort as a part of our upcoming Appalachian Christmas Project! This effort, which Pope Francis launched three years ago, allows us to reach out to the poor in two parishes in Kentucky by sending shoe boxes filled with age appropriate gifts for the boys and girls in these same parishes. For more information about the shoe box portion of the Appalachian Christmas Project, please stop by the collection box in the Gathering Space after Mass to see samples of loaded shoe boxes and to pick up the shoebox form for this marvelous effort. Let's make it our goal to pack at least one shoe box per family and help Pope Francis in his mission, the Church's mission, to serve the poor!

Halloween Candy for Appalachia

Don't forget individually-wrapped Halloween candy to share with the poor children of Kentucky. Boxes for your donations will be located in the coat room of the Main Church and the office entrance until Sunday, November 8.

Don't Forget to Turn in Your Commitment Card

We're still in the midst of our annual Stewardship Renewal. If you haven't returned your commitment card, you can still mail it to the parish or contact us for another form if needed. Returning your card is an important part of being an active member of St. Peter's. Please take this opportunity to express your support for our parish with your time, talent, and treasure, and thank you to those of you who have already returned your card!

Holy Hour and Rosary for Our Archdiocese

Sunday, November 15, 1-2 p.m., Main Church

As we wait with hope for the assignment of a new archbishop for our archdiocese, coming together as a community to pray is increasingly important.

Please join others for an hour of Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, which will begin with the rosary. We will pray together for healing for all of those who have been hurt in any way by the events of the recent past and to pray for the future of our local church, its current leadership, and its eventual new archbishop.

Sincere Sympathy

St. Peter's Parish extends its sympathy to the families and friends of Bart Hedges, Loretta Kopp, and Ron Mergens. We invite all to join us in praying that God may make them sharers in eternal salvation.

Eucharistic Adoration

Parishioners and friends are welcome for private prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in the Historic Church on Tuesdays after the 9 a.m. Mass until 6 p.m.

Matthew 26:40-41—Jesus said to Peter:

THANK YOU to the Gardening Team

I want to extend a BIG THANK YOU to all those who worked so hard this past spring and summer on keeping the gardens here at St. Peter's looking so beautiful! A great job was done by all of you.

It is now time for us and the earth to rest until spring. We will have a spring cleanup in either late April or early May and at that time those who wish to "Adopt a Garden" may do so at that time.

God bless you all,

The Woodbury Chorus and Orchestra will present "Te Deum -- We Praise Thee O God" at 4 p.m. on Sunday, November 8, at St Stephen's Lutheran Church, 1575 Charlton, West St. Paul. This concert of orchestral and choral music will feature songs of Praise to God in a variety of settings. The concert is free and no tickets are required.

During the program, a free will offering will be taken to benefit the Neighbor's Inc. Food Shelf. Woodbury Chorus and Orchestra, founded in 1985, is an arts organization that is unique in the Twin Cities. All members, including the directors, are unpaid volunteers and dedicated to helping those in need. How Can I Make My Pledge To The Campaign?

It is only through your help and commitment that we will be able to reach our goal. We have started our volunteer effort. Your fellow parishioners make up our volunteers and they will be contacting you throughout the upcoming weeks to discuss the opportunities available to you for making your sacrificial pledge. We ask each family to please take some time during the weeks ahead to talk to and listen to the campaign volunteers.

November 7th and 8th Is Commitment Weekend

Next weekend, we will have pledge cards in the pews for you to fill out. This will give you an opportunity to pledge if you have not already.

Volunteer Meeting

If you would like to volunteer and help the Church of St. Peter reach their goals, our next volunteer meeting is this Thursday night, November 5th, at 6:30 PM in the Heritage Center. All are encouraged and welcome to come.
