OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Pastor

My dear friends,

I want to continue focusing my thoughts on us getting to know each other. So I will begin where I left off in last week's bulletin, sharing with you more of the journey of my life; a song I sing to God's wonderful Mercy.

"Looking for love / happiness in all the wrong places," this best describes my teenage years. And we see this with so many people today, both young and old, searching desperately for happiness, but not finding it where they thought they would. The world promises so much, it glitters and makes a lot of noise, but in the end its promises are empty; its version of happiness disappointing. I wanted to be happy like everyone else, to know love and acceptance, to find a fulfilling purpose for my life, and more than anything, I wanted to be a man. But what are these things we desire? Where are they to be found? Not having someone to guide me, I, like many of my peers, looked to the world for the answers. And the fallen world always has the same answer: just more wealth, more power, more pleasure. "If you have more, you'll be content; if you become cool and macho, you'll be a man. There's nothing beyond the passing pleasures of this life, pursue them and you'll be happy." And so I and many of my friends put all our energy into striving for this 'ideal,' not realizing where it would lead us, not seeing the sign hidden along this path that reads "dead end." Following this path made me more selfish, I became ambitious and started tearing other people down to build myself up. By compromising my deeper values of right and wrong, I often hurt myself and all the people I wanted so much to love.

During this time our family was attending a Lutheran Church in town every Sunday. Though I did not find the homilies very inspiring, I still heard the Bible stories Sunday after Sunday. But as quickly as I heard these teachings about the Christian life, I just as quickly pushed them out of my mind and tried to forget them. The guilt I felt when I compared my life with the Gospel was more than I could deal with, and the deeper truth was that I did not want to give up my wayward lifestyle. I was a slave to sin, unable to break free. I had only a 'legalistic' understanding of faith then, a list of do's and don'ts. It was not yet a deeply personal relationship with Jesus Christ. I did not know the One, True and Living God.

What I find very moving and beautiful, is that even though I was drifting further and further from the Lord, God was drawing closer and closer to me; in ways that I did not recognize until years later. This is the good news of the Gospel: God does not abandon or forsake sinners, but seeks out the lost in order to save them.

The light that God was trying to shine into my heart was easy to leave behind at Church. But what was I to do when that same light became present every day in our home through my little brother, and a short time later through my sister? At the end of my sophomore year in high school my brother was moved to give his whole life over to God and follow Jesus Christ. He was not one of those 'preachy' types, but his changes were quick, obvious and powerful: especially when he stopped teasing me. I'll never forget the nights I woke up and found him praying. We shared a room together, and often, when he thought I was asleep, he would get out of his bed in the dark, kneel down and pray. I would watch in silence. I didn't know it then, but my little brother was praying for me, praying for our whole family. God heard those prayers of the night, and in the next bulletin I will share with you the fruit of those prayers.

God love you,
Fr. Steven

Pastoral Ministry

Giving Tree

The deadline for identifying Giving Tree recipients is this weekend. The Giving Tree will be put up this week and next weekend you will be able to choose dolls for purchasing gifts. UNWRAPPED gifts should be returned to the tree with the doll tag. All gifts need to be in by Sunday, December 7, 12:00 noon. Please make every effort to have them here by the deadline. Late gifts often mean a disappointed child. Thank you for your generosity in advance. Questions about specific gift requests can be directed to Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Other helpers are also needed. The more the merrier! There are small tasks with limited time commitments for adults and young adults, and the rewards are huge. Please consider spreading some Christmas cheer by helping with this very important project! Call Carol 651-453-1345 to help or for more information.

Prayer Shawl/ Baby Blanket Ministry

Thank you to all of our generous knitters and crocheters who have contributed many beautiful prayer shawls and baby blankets to this ministry. Many have benefited from these gifts and it can make a great difference in the lives of those who receive them. We continue to welcome your donated items. Shawls and baby blankets in all colors, shapes, and sizes are gladly accepted, but shawls are particularly needed at this time. You may choose your own yarn or contact us to obtain some available through pastoral ministry. Free patterns are also available or use your favorites. Most nursing homes do not allow fringed items. For more information or to suggest a member of our parish in need of a gift, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Talking Faith in the Toughest of Times

Professor Deanna Thompson will speak about her journey of living with stage IV cancer. Her straightforward, realistic and inspiring talk encompasses more than cancer. It's about life and love, grief and grace, and most of all, hope. Tuesday, November 11, 6:30-8 p.m., Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, 13901 Fairview Drive in Burnsville. Walk-ins are welcome. For more information, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Walk to End Hunger

The annual 5K (non-competitive) Walk to End Hunger will be held Thanksgiving morning at the Mall of America. Create a team from your church or sign up with your family—either way it's a great tradition to give back before giving thanks. For more information visit www.walktoendhunger.org. Remember to select Neighbors as your partner organization!

Student Hosting Family Needed

Do you have an extra room/bed in your home? If you do, you may be the family we are looking for. We have a couple of young boys (one from Germany and one from Hungary) both attending Henry Sibley High School in the 11th grade this year through Nacel Open Door. They are both in need of a new hosting family as soon as possible. They are very bright young boys. Peter from Hungary is a little shy but did make the Football team and Felix from Germany is very outgoing. He is on the cross country team and also assists the volleyball coach. This is an great opportunity to bring either the Hungarian or German culture into your home without actually going to their countries.

We ask our host families to provide a bed (they can share a room, but must have their own bed), meals and make them a part of your family. Students are responsible for their own expenses—whether personal, school or for activities. They also have their own medical insurance. If you are interested or would like more information, please call or e-mail Faith Richardson at 952-406-8676 or richardson_faith56@yahoo.com
