Twenty Sixth Sunday in Ordinary TimeOCTOBER 1, 2017

This weekend, we turn the calendar page to the month of October and our parish fall celebration. I am personally looking forward to some great food, visiting with folks and watching Father Steven scout the grounds for ice cream! We have put in our request for a beautiful fall day to celebrate together as family.

A celebration of this magnitude only happens when people come together to dedicate themselves to making it a success. This year, we have a talented and hard-working group of volunteers who have joined with Anne O'Keefe, our community life coordinator, to turn our parish grounds into a festival theme. We gather to celebrate our wonderful parish family, and we welcome the many guests who will join us for a day filled with fun and festivities! I join Father Steven in thanking Anne and all who have worked so hard to bring about this great parish event. Please plan to spend some time after the 10 a.m. Mass enjoying the fruits of all their hard work.

Our readings today and last Sunday are rich with harvest themes. Jesus uses the image of the vineyard to talk about the Kingdom of God. It is certainly appropriate, during this fall season, that we think about gathering the harvest and preparing for the long winter ahead.

A couple of years ago, our family spent an afternoon at a local vineyard. We began with a little sampling of a wonderful, crisp, semi-sweet fall wine. From the tasting room, we headed outside for a tour of the vineyard. Our guide explained how the grapes that are crushed to make the wine have to be handled with extreme care. It takes a highly trained person to know which vines need to be pruned and where to cut them, so that they will produce the most fruit. There is a great deal of care that goes into cultivating vines that will produce grapes from which to make wine. This is a wonderful image of how our loving God prunes each of us, so that we will bear much fruit for the Kingdom!

The image of the vineyard is one that Jesus uses repeatedly to talk about the Kingdom. Each of us is called to labor in the vineyard. Some will labor as teachers, some as lectors, altar servers or sacristans. Some will labor with their hands, such as the dedicated group toiling to renovate the space that will soon house our adoration chapel. Regardless of our gifts, Jesus is calling each of us to labor in the Father's vineyard. Just as the harvest master depends upon the labor of many hands to bring in the harvest, so too, does our Church rely upon the hands of many to do the work Christ has called us to do.

One of the pleasures of our household is a nice glass of red wine in the evening. As I swirl the wine in the glass, I first allow my sense of smell to pick up the subtle complexities of the wine. As the wine warms in the glass, a profile of flavors develops, so that the first sip of wine is often very different from the last sip in the glass. The wine changes character as it is exposed to the air and as it warms in the glass. The end product of the months of growing, the crushing of the grapes and the process of fermentation is the wonderful glass of wine that we enjoy. A good vintner knows how to get that perfect glass of wine by making subtle changes during the fermentation process.

During the consecration, the priest prays a beautiful prayer as the chalice, filled with wine, is elevated:

"Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness we have received the wine to offer you: fruit of the vine and work of human hands, it will become our spiritual drink."

In this prayer, we recognize the goodness of our loving God, who has given us the fruit of the vine. That fruit, taken by human hands, is then turned into the wine that is offered at Mass. The priest, acting in the person of Christ and through the action of the Holy Spirit, prays over the wine, that it will be transformed into the Blood of Christ.

This weekend, we celebrate the harvest. We celebrate the bounty of our lives, as we enjoy all sorts of wonderful food and drink, games and music. We celebrate the richness and variety of our gifts, all of us together, sharing what God has given us with each other. We celebrate what God has done, and what he continues to do in our lives. We admire the beauty of all that is around us, as we take time to be together as God's family.

Fall is a good time for us to reflect on the harvest and on God's abundant bounty in our lives. God is calling each of us to respond to his invitation to work in the vineyard. Some of us may be reluctant to step forward. Maybe I am thinking that my gift isn't all that great, so I choose to keep it to myself. Maybe I am discerning what gifts God is calling me to share with the parish community. God will use the gift he has given us to help bring about a bountiful harvest. As we celebrate this weekend, let us be mindful of the call on each of our lives and the bounty of God's generous response to the work of our hands.

God bless you!

Deacon Tim

APPALACHIA CHRISTMAS DRIVE

The generosity of St. Peter's parishioners has brought Christmas joy to many destitute families in Kentucky. Especially welcomed were the shoeboxes that were filled with gifts specifically designed for certain age groups of boys or girls. These children were pleased to have something especially chosen for them.

Now that summer is all but over, it is time to look at the end-of-season sales and back-to-school sales with the Appalachian Christmas Drive in mind. There are many things going on at St. Peter's now, but I hope you, with your extreme generosity, will find time to shop for our brothers and sisters in Appalachia. Again, we will be sending gifts to two parishes, so we would ask that whatever new items you purchase, you will buy two. A notice will be coming in future bulletins that will list gifts for different age groups. Shoebox items will also be listed. God bless you in advance for making Christmas brighter for the poor of Appalachia.

NEIGHBORS FOOD SHELF

Quack, quack! 2017 marks the tenth anniversary of the Great Neighbors' Duck Races, and we've got a grand prize you won't want to miss. This year's big winner will get to choose one of five pre-selected locations in the continental U.S. to have dinner! The fun begins at 11 a.m. on Saturday, October 7, during South St. Paul's On The Road Again Festival. The event will once again feature a variety of family-friendly activities. Visit www.neighborsmn.org/great-neighbors-duck-races for additional details, and don't forget to get your ducks for a chance to win!

Most needed items are baking supplies (sugar, flour, oil, mixes), canned corn, jelly, hygiene products (shampoo, adult toothbrushes, etc.).

Thank you all very much for looking out for your neighbors!

CENTER FOR MISSION

Fr. Steven,

I am writing to thank you and the people of your parish for welcoming and supporting the missionary group that came to your parish recently, under the Missionary Cooperation Plan of the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis. Each year, we participate in this face-to-face encounter with the efforts of one missionary organization, so that we might personally share in the story of the Good News of Christ being proclaimed in one part of the world. Your effort continues the tradition going back to St. Paul, who gathered assistance for the Church in Jerusalem, as an act of communion and encouragement within the body of Christ.

Thank you for the gift of $145 to the Center for Mission.

May our Missionary God continue to strengthen you in living out your own call to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Peace,

Deacon Mickey Friesen, D.Min., Director

MEN'S PILGRIMAGE

All men are encouraged to join Bishop Cozzens for a day trip to the Guadalupe Shrine in La Crosse, Wisconsin on Saturday, October 14. Busses depart at 8 a.m. from the Chancery at 777 Forest Street in St. Paul, and return at 8 p.m. The cost is $20, which includes transportation and lunch. Please register at www.thecatholicwatchmen.com.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

St. Peter's is here to bring the good news of the Gospel to all, so that every person can have a personal, life changing, life giving relationship with Jesus Christ.

PASTORAL MINISTRY

FOLLOWING JESUS

When we face situations in life, sometimes our first reaction does not come from a place of grace. Jesus reminds us in the Gospel that, with his help, we can change our “no” to God’s will to a “yes.” Let’s pray this week for his help to do God’s will.

CAREGIVER WORKSHOP

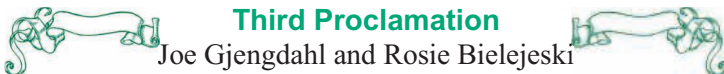

Paths to Faithful Caregiving is a workshop for caregivers, designed to strengthen the personal faith of those who are often struggling, while taking care of another’s needs.

You will learn how to:

- Manage stress and difficult emotions.
- Communicate more effectively.
- Create balance in life.
- Locate helpful resources.
- Find caregiving strength through your faith partner and personal spiritual practices.

Paths to Faithful Caregiving meets weekly on Saturdays, from September 30 through October 28, from 9 to 10:30 a.m., in the Good Shepherd Room, at St. John Neumann Church, in Eagan. To register, you may email Rozannrey@gmail.com or call 651-334-3207, by September 26. A fee of $15, payable to St. John Neumann, includes class materials.

WEDDING BANNS

Third Proclamation

Joe Gjengdahl and Rosie Bielejeski

RCIA

If you, or someone you know, has been thinking about becoming Catholic, we would very much like to hear from you! To begin, we’d like to get to know you and help you to learn more about the process. We will answer any questions you may have. We look forward to helping those baptized in other Christian traditions, the unbaptized and anyone who may already have made their First Communion as a child, but has not received the sacrament of Confirmation. RCIA begins Tuesday, October 3, from 6:30 to 8 p.m., and runs through March 13, 2018. For more information or to schedule a private inquiry meeting to discuss your own faith journey, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or email her at lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

ST. PETER’S PERPETUAL ADORATION CHAPEL

The city of Juarez, Mexico, just across the Rio Grande River from El Paso, Texas, has long been known as one of the most dangerous cities in the world. The drug cartels’ incessant vying with each other for power has resulted in a city rampant with murders. In 2010, there were 3,766 homicides reported in Juarez. In 2015, however, that number had dropped to 256. What could possibly have accounted for that drastic reduction? The local authorities deserve credit for their hard work, but Fr Patricio Hileman, founder of the Missionaries of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, believes that there is a great deal more to the answer.

In their desperation, the people turned to the One who alone could help them, Jesus Christ. Fr Hileman believed “that when a parish adores God day and night, the city is transformed.” In 2013, the first adoration chapel opened.

There have been many miracles in Juarez since the chapel opened. It has been reported that once, when the entire city of Juarez was under siege, a woman was making her way to the adoration chapel at 3 a.m. Soldiers stopped her and asked where she was going. They knew that nothing was open at that hour of the night. When the woman replied that she was going to pray before the Blessed Sacrament for an end to the violence, the disbelieving soldiers followed her. Arriving at the chapel, they found six women on their knees in adoration before the Eucharistic Lord. One of the soldiers broke into tears at the sight, and he was found at 3 a.m. the next day praying in the chapel. Now there are 10 chapels throughout the city of Juarez.

We need your help to pray for miracles, like those happening in Juarez and around the world. Our greatest need is on the weekends. Please consider committing to one hour on Saturday or Sunday once a month, if every week isn’t possible. Or, better yet, find a team of 3 or 4 to cover a specific hour on the weekend and rotate it among you. We will help you put together a team for your hour! To schedule your hour at adoration, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or Mark Mischke at 651-481-6900. You may also complete a registration card, found in the Gathering Space.

TRANSFORMING PAIN WORKSHOP

Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church, 5071 Eden Avenue in Edina, is hosting a “Transforming Pain Workshop” on Tuesday, October 3, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Please join us as Patricia Hughes Baumer helps to make our care toward the many faces of pain that we encounter in ministry more knowledgeable and our knowledge more caring. A light dinner is included. Please RSVP at jasongodin@olgparish.org.

1 Thessalonians 5:18

A special "thank you" to everyone who contributed to our Fall Festival! We had so many donors and volunteers who contributed their time, talent, money, food, baskets, encouragement, ideas and prayers. Without this commitment to their faith and parish we would not have had such a successful Fall Festival. Thank you to all of our parishioners who joined in and participated in the day's events.

A special thank you to our Festival Chairperson, Gail Barta, for her festival leadership and to all of the committee leaders for their dedication in making this festival a success:
