OUR VISION

We envision St. Peter's to be a dynamic and growing parish through our: expressions of faith and worship, service to one another and the broader community, welcoming new members, compassion and ministry in pastoral care, and stewardship of God's gifts and blessings.

OUR MISSION

The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic parish in Minnesota, serves as a cornerstone of faith and heritage, where we welcome all to celebrate and live as the Body of Christ. We embrace our commitment to continue this founding legacy, care for future generations, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Reflections from our Director of Religious Education/Faith Formation

Change

Watching the leaves turn such beautiful colors and seeing them eventually fall from their branches, causes me to acknowledge that we are in the midst of a season of change. Some people look forward to this change and others wish it really didn't need to happen. There are many who are eager for winter and the many activities that it brings—skiing, sledding, ice skating and drinking hot cocoa. For others there is the dread of poor driving conditions and paying the horrendous heating bills. My guess is that for the majority of us, we have a mixture of thoughts and feelings about this annual change—we look forward to seeing those first snowflakes and cozying up with a blanket and yet, at the same time, we do not want to experience the bitter cold that is a natural part of our Minnesota winters.

One thing that simplifies experiencing this change is that we generally know what to expect when we are moving from summer into fall and fall into winter. We know what we need to do to help make that transition happen more smoothly and comfortably. We get our sweaters and coats out of storage, we winterize our homes and our cars, and we pull our shovels and snow blowers from the back of the shed. We prepare. On the other hand, there are some changes that occur in our lives for which we do not know how to prepare. Say, for example, the birth of your first child. People may give you advice, you can read books and even take classes on what to expect when you first bring your newborn home. Nevertheless, until you actually experience that major change in your life, you have no idea of what it really means to be transformed into a parent. This is also one of those changes in life that cause a multitude of mixed feelings for those involved. There is joy and fear, excitement and worry, contentment and doubt. Hopefully, the positive aspects of this or any other change will far outweigh the discouraging or frightening aspects of a new experience.

Change can and will cause us to feel a variety of things, but regardless of what we feel, change is inevitable. Change is not only a reality of life but it is a necessity of life. I recall as a teenager, complaining to my mom about some change in my life that I didn't want to accept. She told me that things have to change or they become stagnant; when things become stagnant, they die. Therefore to truly live we must experience change. She encouraged me to look for the positive in change even when I was afraid of what differences this would cause in my life. She tried to teach me that if I approached life and all the changes that occur within it with a heart that held faith, hope, and love, those changes and transitions would be easier to accept and could be wonderful. If I were truly open to this new direction in my life, I may come to realize it was exactly the change I needed, but I hadn't been aware of that need within me!

We, as a parish and as a staff at St. Peter's, have been through many changes in the last 10 months. Some of those changes were difficult; we may have felt confused, frustrated, and even angry. However, those same changes have hopefully taught us about our strengths, our ability to work together, and what it means to be a parish community. I am praying that we have discovered that even in the light of a difficult or painful change, there are wonderful things to be discovered and experienced. I pray that during these last ten months we have all learned or experienced something positive which in turn has helped us to be stronger as individuals and as a community.

As I am sure most of you know by now, we are about to experience another exciting change. Fr. Steven Hoffman has been assigned to this parish and he will be our new shepherd and spiritual leader. This is one of those changes that can cause us to have a multitude of feelings—excited, nervous, relieved, and a whole host of other things. One of the things that I encourage you to do as we go through this coming change is to keep faith, hope and love in your heart. It is important for us to have faith in our God who brings us to experience this and other changes in our lives. Have faith that God wants what is best for us. We may not always understand God's ways, but we need to keep faith that God is always with us. I ask that you keep hope alive in yourself, in this community and in the entirety of the Catholic Church. Without the hope of God's love and mercy for each and for all, we will not have the strength to continue the work of Christ and to share His message. And finally, I pray that you keep love in your heart. Love of God, neighbor and self helps us to rise to a new challenge and face change in a positive manner. Love is what enables us to keep an open mind and heart to the days ahead.

I pray that God grants each of us with the gift of change throughout our lives so we may continue to grow and develop as followers of Christ. We cannot let ourselves become stagnant if we wish to be a vibrant community. I encourage and challenge all of us to approach change and new experiences in our personal lives and in our community with minds and hearts filled with faith, hope and love. May God continue to bless us all!

Religious Education/ Faith Formation (RE/FF)

Attention: Parents of Students in Grades 1-4

On Wednesday, October 22, we will have a parent meeting at 4:30 and again at 6:30 p.m. in Heritage Center. The purpose of this meeting is to share with you the curriculum for the "Protection of God's Children" personal safety programs that we will be using with the youth in grades 1-5. If your child attends a Catholic School, you do not need to attend this meeting. Please contact Kathy Raible at 651-905-4311 if you have any questions.

Halloween Pizza & Bingo Night!!

On Friday, October 24, RE/FF is excited to host another Pizza and Bingo Night. From 6 to 8 p.m. we will serve pizza and play Bingo. Fun for all ages!! Children who wear a costume will get a special prize. Although this event is FREE, we ask that you make a "reservation" so we know how much pizza to order. There will be a table in the Gathering Space after all the Masses this weekend to sign up for this event OR you can call the RE Phone Line at 651-905-4314 and leave a message to let us know how many are coming. We look forward to seeing you there!!

Don't forget individually-wrapped Halloween candy to share with the poor children of Kentucky. A box for your donation is located in the coat room of the Main Church and the office entrance until Sunday, November 9.

All Souls Mass

This year the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day) falls on Sunday. This is a special time to remember all of our loved ones who have gone before us in faith. At all three weekend Masses we will remember—by name—all of those we celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial for or were members of our parish community. Please hold all who have died in your prayers during the month of November.

Sincere Sympathy

St. Peter's Parish extends its sympathy to the family and friends of Carol Grayson and Mark Toetschinger. We invite all to join us in praying that God may make them sharers in eternal salvation.

Pastoral Ministry

Scripture Study with Fr. Stephen Adrian

Apart from the Passion Narratives of the Gospel, no part of scripture has engaged the mind and heart of women and men as have the first two chapters of the Gospels of Matthew and Luke—the Christmas Story. These four chapters of scripture have inspired authors, composers, artists, and poets.

Each of these two authors tells the story, but very differently. Together they have been merged into the one Christmas Story, but taken separately they open doors to a deeper understanding of the mystery of God in human flesh and the purpose of Jesus' life.

Often the last part of a work an author writes is the "Introduction," the "Forward," or the "Preface." The purpose of the forward or preface is to introduce the reader to the purpose and theme of the author and the manner in which the author will proceed in developing the theme.

These first two chapters in Matthew and Luke are in introductions to the Gospel.

Scripture Study Topic: The Infancy Narratives, Matthew 1-2; Luke 1-2

When: Thursdays, November 6, 13, 20 and December 4, 11, 18, 6:30-8 p.m.

Presenter/Leader: Fr. Stephen Adrian

Location: Ravoux Room, St. Peter, Mendota

There is no fee for this study, but your preregistration will be appreciated so that we may prepare a sufficient number of resource packets. To register, please contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org

All Saints Day Mass

This year, the Solemnity of All Saints falls on a Saturday. This means that it is not a Holy Day of Obligation and Sunday Masses (including the 5 p.m. on Saturday night) will be celebrated as the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, or All Souls. For those of you who would like to observe All Saints Day, a 9 a.m. Mass will be celebrated in the Historic Church on Saturday, November, 1. Although this Saturday morning Mass will not satisfy the Sunday obligation, we hope that you will consider joining us to celebrate this meaningful day.

World Mission Sunday

Give Hope is the theme for World Mission Sunday on October 19. Give the hope of Christ to over 1,150 poor and struggling dioceses worldwide on October 19.

Giving Tree

It may seem early to think about Christmas and the Giving Tree, but there are so many things that need to be done by those who work with the program that it is necessary to begin now so we have things ready for the families before Christmas. If you are aware of someone, yourself or others, in need of Christmas gifts from the parish, please use one of the flyers available in the Gathering Space to recommend them for the Giving Tree by November 9. Your help in identifying recipients is very important. If you have any questions, please contact Lisa Amos at 651.905.4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Hearing and Vision Aids Available for Mass

If you find it hard to hear at Mass or your ability to participate is inhibited by difficulty reading the hymnal or worship aids, we can help with that. Appalachian Christmas Drive/ "Papal Footprints" Collection

We now have the boxes for the Appalachian Christmas drive placed outside the coatroom and in the front entrance of the church. A few shoeboxes, along with some flyers for the "Papal Footprints" shoebox collection will also be available. This is a project that children might like to be involved in by choosing some necessary things, (toothbrushes, toothpaste, bar soap, deodorant (no liquids)) and some not so necessary things (hair bands or clips, little craft kits, Matchbox cars, Lego sets, etc.) Maybe even some hard candy. Indicate on the flyer for which age group the box is intended.

Don't forget the wrapped candy! These children seldom get sweet treats to enjoy.

THANK YOU TO ALL!

St. Peter's Fall Group Tour The Museum of Russian Art

Join us for another St. Peter's group tour. On Wednesday, November 5, we will be visiting The Museum of Russian Art where we will have a private tour with a docent. The tour will include their featured exhibit—"Life on the Edge of the Forest: Russian Traditions in Wood." This exhibition will focus on the folk traditions of Russian woodworking as well as how the Russian forest played a role in cultural identity and the traditional way of life. Specifically it will examine three perspectives of Russian traditions in wood: wood as building and crafts material; forests as sustainable ecosystems for renewable resources that support life in Russian communities; and the forest as a spiritual and cultural resource that inspires artists and folktales while also serving as a component of cultural identity.

The bus will depart from St. Peter's following the 9 a.m. Mass, at approximately 9:45. Following the tour, as well as some free time to explore as you see fit, we will have a traditional Russian meal at Moscow on the Hill. We will return to St. Peter's by 2 p.m. Reservations must be made by Friday, October 31; cost is $35/person and includes transportation, tour, and lunch. To make reservations or for more information, contact Lisa Amos at 651-905-4304 or lamos@stpetersmendota.org.

Fall 2014 - Preschool Program Classes

Bugs

Explore the world's most abundant animals! What makes a bug an insect? How are insects' eyes different from our own? See a preserved giant lubber grasshopper up close and take home a bug eye lens.

Human Body

Have fun learning while helping to assemble the large Mr. Bones puzzle. Enjoy fun, hands-on activities that help you learn about your internal organs. Listen to your heart muscle with a stethoscope. Take home an Organ Outfit.

Keep In Touch

Learn about your sense of touch and then examine mystery materials using only your fingers. As a junior sculptor, use your fingers and hands to create a Model Magic® masterpiece to take home.

Mad Mixtures

Chemistry is a type of science that is all about mixing things together and observing the cool reactions. Experiment by mixing a mini explosion, floating colors, and then mix your own Mad Science color gel to take home.

Sea, Sand & Surf

Explore the science of the sea as you learn what sand is made from, how shells are used by animals for protection, and what types of animals live in the ocean. Make your own model ocean in a bottle to take home.

Water Works

Experiment with fun water activities. Discover the meaning of the words float, sink, density, absorption and surface tension. Turn little water droplets into big drops. Go home with your own sparkle tube.
