Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR MISSION

St. Peter's is here to bring the good news of the Gospel to all, so that every person can have a personal, life changing, life giving relationship with Jesus Christ.

Reflections from our Deacon

This weekend, we celebrate our Fall Festival - or as I like to say, “Festive All!” This is a time for our community to gather and celebrate all that God has given to this parish family.

Gatherings are so important in the life of any family. I am the fourth of five children in my family, and I remember always celebrating holidays together. We still carry on that tradition of being together, sharing stories and laughter, as well as sadness and tears. Anne and I have taken over the tradition of hosting Christmas Eve, now that both of my parents have gone to the Lord. Being together as family affirms our sense of connection and opens our hearts to be Christ to our family members and guests.

This will be my first Fall Festival at St. Peter’s. I am looking forward to the food, fun and fellowship that I know will be part of this celebration. Like any family, it is important for us, as a community of faith, to step back now and again and celebrate what God has provided. It is also a time for us to welcome visitors and guests to our parish. I look forward to this celebration of who we are as a parish—brothers and sisters in Christ, our Lord!

Fall is a time of transition. We see the leaves turning beautiful colors. We move from short sleeves and shorts to long sleeves and cardigans. The days grow shorter as we prepare for colder weather and the coming of winter. It seems fitting that our parish celebration comes in the midst of this time of transition. We gather to celebrate the life of this beautiful parish and each person who makes up its family.

St. Peter’s is a beautiful tapestry of new and familiar faces. I have been blessed to baptize many of those “new faces” that have joined our community and get to know their parents and siblings. I have blessed couples who are celebrating milestones in their married life.

Each Sunday, as I elevate the chalice during the prayer of consecration, I look out on this wonderful family, and thank God that I am blessed to serve in this vibrant community of faith. I have listened to the stories of many of our parishioners who have been faithful members of this community for decades. I also enjoy talking each week those who have heard about St. Peter’s and wish to make it their parish home. We must continue to share what God has given to St. Peter’s with the visitors who join us each week.

There is a weaving that God does so quietly and beautifully that we can sometimes miss it! God weaves us together as brothers and sisters. Within our parish, we welcome new life and say goodbye to those whom God has called home. We visit the sick, heal the broken and bring the Word and the Eucharist into the hearts of the faithful. God has woven this breathtaking tapestry that is St. Peter’s. With His gentle and guiding hand, the Father takes delight in watching us grow and change, and yes, sometimes struggle.

We are family. We are family, because God first called us to be His children. We are family, because God has brought us, for different reasons and in different ways, to this place to give Him honor and worship. Like any family, we have moments of joy and of sadness. We get along, and we disagree. Through all of this, He watches over us and guides us. This is a place where we can welcome all who come, knowing that God will continue to send new members to this beautiful family that He has made here.

So, here we are, joined together by a common faith and love in Jesus Christ. As we gather this weekend, we stand together as family to say a giant “thank you” to God for His boundless generosity. We recognize His hand in every aspect of the life of this parish. We also recognize the strength we have when we stand together, shoulder to shoulder, and profess the faith that binds us at each Mass. It is this common faith, this common bond as children of a loving Father, that makes us able to go out into the world and shine light in the darkest places.

So let’s celebrate this weekend. As we enjoy this time of being together, let us remember who we are and why we are here. Let’s affirm each other and welcome the stranger. Let us celebrate with song, dance and laughter. Let us give the glory to the One who calls each of us by name. We are blessed, truly blessed, that God is among us. And for all of this, we give thanks. Festive ALL!

In God who is always with us,

Deacon Tim

A Note from Mr. Randall at Faithful Shepherd Catholic School

Here at Faithful Shepherd, our school year has gotten off to a great start! Our SeptemberFest weekend was a huge success, both in terms of money raised and increased awareness for the school. Our teachers have been working hard creating a positive learning environment for our students. We just finished our NWEA testing and the students are once again proving to be high achievers!

While I have only been at Faithful Shepherd Catholic School for a year, it has been a very rewarding time. Parents who have been at FSCS for years have mentioned how there seems to be a positive, collaborative energy present at the school. We have a tremendously supportive parent community and an extremely talented group of teachers. Together, with the support of our tri-parish community, we truly are moving Faithful Shepherd forward together! We can't wait to see what this school year brings.

CCW Collection for Haiti Project

In Haiti, medications come in bulk form and medical personnel have to dispense them in smaller containers. For burials, they use sheets or tablecloths. They are currently cutting sheets in half to make them go further. They use pillowcases to transport rice.

The CCW will be collecting these much needed items:

- Empty pill bottles (with labels removed).
- All sizes of WHITE ONLY sheets and pillow cases.
- All sizes of WHITE ONLY tablecloths.

In the cloak room, you will find green bins for the collection: one for the sheets/pillowcases/tablecloths and one for the pill bottles.

Thank you so much for your participation.

Appalachia Christmas 2016

Last year's (2015) collection of NEW gifts for the poorest of the poor topped 2014's donations by a landslide. It is that time of year again. Even though we at St. Peter's are involved in several programs, we can take advantage of all the upcoming sales and stock up on items the people of Kentucky are in need of to live a little more comfortably.

As in the past, there will be a flyer in the bulletin with a list of the NEW ITEMS needed. We will also be filling shoeboxes for children as requested by Pope Francis in the "Papal Footprints" program he instituted. Letting our children fill a simple shoe box to donate would be a great way to get them involved, as well.

Thanking you in advance,

Kathi Dumond, Chair and Paula Ehrich, Vice Chair

A Tree to Remember Service

Each year, the St. Paul Deaneries' Council of Catholic Women plans a special service of song and prayer with individuals sharing their stories at A Tree to Remember.

The tree was planted in 1993 to commemorate those who died prior to birth or soon after. It is a place to pray, to remember, to meditate and to rest. Come to visit and to seek comfort by this special tree and bench in Como Park. Invite someone to accompany you to visit this special spot, so you can open to sorrows and memories in your heart and pray in this blessed and dedicated area of Como Park.

A plaque placed by the tree reads, "A TREE TO REMEMBER" FOR SPECIAL LOVED ONES, BORN AND UNBORN, ST. PAUL DEANERIES—COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN.

The service takes place on Saturday, October 8, at 11 a.m., in Como Park.

Directions: Go to Esterbrook by the parking lot, turn east to Nason Place, turn left, going east. Turn right at the first street, go to the end and park. The tree is on the hill by the bench.

Eucharistic Adoration

Parishioners and friends are welcome for private prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in the Historic Church on Tuesdays after the 9 a.m. Mass until 6 p.m.

Matthew 26:40-41—Jesus said to Peter:

*"Could you not watch
with me one hour?
Watch and pray."*

Neighbors, Inc.

I hope you all are enjoying the first bit of fall. Most of the Minnesotans I know are welcoming the cooler weather, and done with all the fervor of summer. We have had a great summer here, receiving more fresh garden produce than ever before (I don't have a grand total yet—some of you are still bringing it in!). Plus our grocery shelves have been full enough to keep hungry families well supplied, too. This wouldn't be the case without your help, so thank you very much!

Special plea for brown paper bags! You might already be saving a pile of these in your house, wondering what you are ever going to do with all of them. We can use them here! At the moment, we have a solid supply of plastic bags, but we could use more paper bags. Each shopper who comes through fills at least four (and usually five or more) bags, so we go through quite a few!

This month's Neighbor Spotlight is Lyra. As we shopped today, Lyra was a woman on a mission to make chili. Of course, not every item was destined for the chili pot, but she was excited to get chili beans (we even happened to have the brand she likes), an onion, canned tomatoes, ground beef, black pepper, and other chili essentials. She might even put some pasta in it to make some Ohio Skyline Chili. She and her husband will be enjoying a full meal with the groceries that she picked up at the food shelf today—and several other meals besides.

As always, thanks for all you do!
