Reflections from our Pastor

*M*y Dear Friends, and special greetings to all visiting with us this weekend as we celebrate our annual Fall Festival,

The day of our Fall Festival has finally arrived! Praise God! And for all those who generously gave so much of their time, energy and effort to plan and organize this grand event, God bless you!! Speaking on behalf of the whole parish, we are so deeply grateful to you. THANK YOU!!

I also want to thank each and every one of you who made any kind of contribution, great or small. Thank you to those who helped to make and serve our pork dinner and to those who made and brought cakes and pies. Thank you to those who contributed items for the silent auction, to those who were involved in putting games together for the kids, and those who offered to work the various booths. For the music and all who lent a hand with any of the much needed services that are too many to mention, thank you!

To put on a Fall Festival like this requires a cast of thousands. Everyone is needed. There is a part for everyone to play, each contributing something necessary. It is perhaps one of the best opportunities outside of Mass for our parish community to express itself, very tangibly, as the Body of Christ. It takes many people to make a single celebration of the Mass possible: the priest, the congregation, the choir and instrumentalists, lectors, communion ministers, servers, sacristans, ushers, greeters, the farmers who grow the wheat for the bread we use, the farmers who produce the grapes for the wine, candle makers, those who make the sacred vessels for communion, and I could easily go on. The same is true for an event like the Fall Festival; it could not take place or succeed without the united cooperation and efforts of many people, each doing their part.

The Fall Festival is, in a real way, an extension of the Mass, the Mass lived out. In the Mass we are the Mystical Body of Christ gathered together as one in the worship of God, and by this worship, which culminates in communion, we become more deeply united in love with Christ and with one another. This unity in the love of Christ calls each of us to express that love toward each other in tangible, concrete ways outside of Mass. If we did not live the love we celebrate, our life would be a countersign of what God's grace works in us with every Mass.

God alone will be able to count all the many concrete acts of love that went into and will make up this special day. And love is always fruitful. Based on passed experience, we can easily imagine what some of the fruits may be. The Mass will anchor our lives more deeply in the Lord and His Word and all the funds raised will help us to continue carrying out the mission of Jesus Christ. Bonds of fellowship and friendship will be deepened in our working together and being together, and the opportunities to meet new people will allow us to share our faith with others. The joy of children, youth, and adults playing games and having fun will uplift their spirits and allow them to forget their worries and troubles for awhile. The good food and drink will help us relax and thank God for such simple gifts.

So again, my deepest thanks to everyone. May God bless all our efforts, help us serve joyfully with grateful, generous hearts, and keep us always united in His love.

God love you,

Fr. Steven

Divine Mercy Cenacle

St. Peter's Divine Mercy Cenacle will begin meeting on Wednesday, October 7, at 9:45 a.m. in the Ravoux Room. This first meeting is the kick off for existing members, but also a great time for you to check out our group. We study the writings of St. Faustina, Scripture, and the Catechism of the Catholic Church. This date is also the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, so we will be praying the Rosary and reviewing the purpose of our Cenacle. If you would like further information, please contact Carol Mulvihill at 651-356-2970.

Holy Hour and Rosary for Our Archdiocese Sunday, October 11, 1-2 p.m.

Main Church

As we wait with hope for the assignment of a new archbishop for our archdiocese, coming together as a community to pray is increasingly important.

Please join others for an hour of Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, which will begin with the rosary. We will pray together for healing for all of those who have been hurt in any way by the events of the recent past and to pray for the future of our local church, its current leadership, and its eventual new archbishop.

Appalachian Christmas Collection 2015

Sponsored by St. Peter's Council of Catholic Women in cooperation with St. Paul and Minneapolis Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women.

Together with other parishes in the Archdiocese, St. Peter's helps bring Christmas joy to two parishes in western Kentucky each year. Thanks to your generosity, both parents and children can select Christmas gifts for one another at a "free store" hosted by the two parishes, which are located in areas where annual income falls far below the poverty line.

Here's how you can help:

- * Select one or more age groups for which you'd like to shop.
- * Purchase new items for those age groups. (Please see the reverse side for gift suggestions.) Because two parishes are involved, we ask that you purchase two of any item if at all possible.
- * Bring the unwrapped items to St. Peter's, and place them in one of the collection boxes marked for "Appalachian Christmas" in the coat room. Please no used or old items.
- * Please make a note of the deadline: Sunday, November 8. All donations of new, unwrapped gifts are due by noon on that day. We will be packing the boxes on Monday, November 9, 9:30 a.m. in the Ravoux Room. We would appreciate any and all help in packing the boxes.

Please deliver all gifts to boxes in the Coat Room by SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8

If you prefer to contribute money to purchase additional needed gifts and food for Christmas dinners for families, mail your checks directly to:

Father Richard Watson
