Reflections from our Deacon

One of the first things parents often teach their children is to use words like “please” and “thank you.” My three year old granddaughter is pretty good about remembering these words, but every now and again she needs a gentle reminder.

In our gospel story this weekend, Jesus heals ten lepers. As they are dancing away, their leprosy gone, one of them returns to thank Jesus for this miracle. Jesus rightly asks what happened to the other nine. Were they not also healed? This story offers us a much-needed chance to remember to have “an attitude of gratitude.”

Do you and I remember to thank God daily for all the blessings He has given? This is an important exercise that we should consider making part of our morning and evening routine. As we grow in the habit of giving thanks, we begin to see the world through the eyes of our loving God, who has given us everything. We have homes, cars, vacations, bank accounts, food, comfort and so much more; it can be easy to grumble and complain about all that we don’t have. I always seem to be able to focus on the thing that annoys or challenges me, instead of focusing on all of my blessings.

I recently read a touching story about a beautiful twenty-two year old Italian woman, who died of an aggressive form of cancer. She was a world-class violinist, author and brilliant student who studied at fine universities. This woman was engaged to a wonderful man and had what seemed like a perfect life. Then cancer came. Initially, she was bitter and angry. How could God do this to her? At twenty-two years old, how could it be that her life would soon end?

This young woman began writing a blog. She described her feelings, her hopes and her dreams. Many people were inspired by her marvelous reflections on her life and how she was learning to live with cancer. Toward the end of her life, she wrote about a moment of conversion. She had attended World Youth Day years before and had heard Pope John Paul II (now St. John Paul II) speak. He spoke to the youth about giving their lives to God and about suffering. Her heart was convicted by his words, as she now reflected upon them in light of her diagnosis.

Through the eyes of faith, she began to see her cancer as a gift. Cancer made her see her life in a new and beautiful way. All the things she previously thought were important faded into the background. Her life with cancer suddenly became the focus of her reflections. She celebrated cancer instead of cursing it! She died at only twenty-two years of age, and left a legacy of faith for many who journeyed with her through her trial.

Each day we are presented with joys and sorrows, triumphs and challenges. God is in all of it. Whether we realize it or not, God’s hand is always upon us. Many of us have a difficult time understanding why there is suffering in the world. I personally struggle with suffering almost every time I encounter it. Suffering brings us face-to-face with the reality of our dependence on God as the source of everything we have. Suffering helps us to strengthen our faith, because we must rely only on God as the source of our consolation.

If we want to quickly realize all that God has given us, we should adopt an “attitude of gratitude” that draws us back to the source of everything we have. As we awaken in the morning, we can be grateful for the warm bed and the roof that protects us. We can offer God thanks for the hot shower and the fresh cup of coffee that starts our day. Instead of cursing the car in front of us, we might thank God for a car that runs. We can thank God for our job, our friends and our family, for the singing of the birds and the chirping of crickets.

My brothers and sisters, let’s not be like the ungrateful nine who danced off without thanking the One who healed them. Let’s begin to see God’s hand in every moment of our day. As we grow in our ability to give thanks to God for everything, we will find that our hearts grow in generosity toward others.

May we flood the gates of heaven with unending thanks for all that God has given!

In gratitude,

Deacon Tim

CCW Collection for Haiti Project

In Haiti, medications come in bulk form and medical personnel have to dispense them in smaller containers. For burials, they use sheets or tablecloths. They are currently cutting sheets in half to make them go further. They use pillowcases to transport rice.

The CCW will be collecting these much needed items:

- Empty pill bottles (with labels removed).
- All sizes of WHITE ONLY sheets and pillow cases.
- All sizes of WHITE ONLY tablecloths.

In the cloak room, you will find gray bins for the collection: one for the sheets/pillowcases/tablecloths and one for the pill bottles.

Thank you so much for your participation.

Appalachia Christmas 2016

Last year's (2015) collection of NEW gifts for the poorest of the poor topped 2014's donations by a landslide. It is that time of year again. Even though we at St. Peter's are involved in several programs, we can take advantage of all the upcoming sales and stock up on items the people of Kentucky are in need of to live a little more comfortably.

As in the past, there will be a flyer in the bulletin with a list of the NEW ITEMS needed. We will also be filling shoeboxes for children as requested by Pope Francis in the "Papal Footprints" program he instituted. Letting our children fill a simple shoe box to donate would be a great way to get them involved, as well.

Thanking you in advance,

Kathi Dumond, Chair and Paula Ehrich, Vice Chair

A Huge Thank You!

The Heritage Center kitchen looks great, due to the hard work of some devoted people. Thank you to Lisa Brooks, Barbara Kaufmann, Marge Sullivan, Jo Cizek, Anne O'Keefe, Mary Medini, Paula Krause, Nancy Stanton, Kathy Metzger and Pat Kemper. These ladies did a yeoman's work cleaning the kitchen on September 19. Thank you also to St. Peter's Church for providing lunch for the crew.

Annual Report

Every parish household has already received, or will soon, the Annual Parish Financial Report. Included in the report is a beautiful message from Fr. Steven, a recap of the past year, what to expect in the coming year, as well as the financial position of the parish.

We also sent a summary of your donations for 2016. Finally, we included the pledge card and return envelope for the 2017 calendar year which we are requesting all households to return.

Knights of Columbus Pizza Night

The Knights of Columbus are hosting a Pizza Night at Solos Pizza in the Eagan Promenade (1270 Promenade Place). Simply print the flyer from the K of C website at eaganknights.com and come in to Solos on Wednesday, October 12, between 4 and 9 p.m. Thirty percent (30%) of your purchase will be donated to the Knights to benefit the good work being done in our community. Jubilee Year of Mercy – Holy Door Pilgrimage

Have you made a pilgrimage to a Holy Door yet? Pope Francis asked all cathedrals throughout the world to designate a Holy Door for the Jubilee Year of Mercy, and he calls all the faithful to make a brief pilgrimage to a Holy Door to experience and obtain the Jubilee Indulgence. We are blessed to have three Holy Doors in our archdiocese, located at the Cathedral of Saint Paul, 239 Selby Avenue, in St. Paul, the Basilica of Saint Mary, 88 North 17th Street, in Minneapolis and Saint Maron (Maronite), 600 University Avenue NE, in Minneapolis. 2016 Giving Tree

Gift Request Form

Each year many are in particular need of our help and generosity, especially during the holiday season. Last year, our Giving Tree sponsored over 50 families. In addition to the parishioners who received gifts and grocery certificates, we were able to help families from Armful of Love, CHAPS, The Lewis House and Neighbors, Inc.

Please take a few minutes to think about your friends, neighbors, the family who may sit next to you at Mass, or even your own situation. Is there someone you know who may need some help this season? Eligible families may be registered parish families, non-registered families recommended by a parishioner, or other families who meet with the pastor or pastoral associate. Because the need has been increasing each year, and we expect this year to do the same, we do ask that selected families have at least one child in the home under age 18.

Thank you and may God bless you and your families.

Please feel free to call Lisa Amos, pastoral associate, at 651-905-4304 for more information.

To recommend a family or request help for your own, please complete both sides of this form as completely as possible. Your requests are confidential. Please return requests to Lisa Amos, Church of St. Peter, PO Box 50679, Mendota, MN 55150. All forms must be filled in completely. Requests without a contact phone number cannot be filled. Names will be kept confidential.

1 Thessalonians 5:18

A special "thank you" to everyone who contributed to our Fall Festival! We had so many donors and volunteers who contributed their time, talent, money, food, baskets, encouragement, ideas and prayers. Without this commitment to their faith and parish we would not have had such a successful Fall Festival. Thank you to all of our parishioners who joined in and participated in the days events.

A special thank you to our Festival Chairperson, Gail Barta, for her festival leadership and to all of the committee leaders for their dedication in making this festival a success:
